

If You Have Eye Trouble

Of any kind call and have your eyes examined free. Permanently located. Always to be found. Work guaranteed. Prices reasonable. C. F. HOFFMAN, The Jeweler.

Reliability Exactness Courtesy

You can depend on our prescription work, as well as upon everything in our store. It is reliable—absolutely so. The work of prescription compounding is done with the greatest possible exactness. We try to be courteous—always willing to aid and accommodate without unpleasantly overdoing it. New customers are coming all the time and staying. The store appeals to and pleases discriminating observers.

H. Alex Stoke, The Druggist.

A Little of Everything.

The Pittsburg Exposition closes next Saturday evening. The P. R. R. pay car was over the Low Grade Friday. Hickman Bros. "Down and Up" at the Reynolds opera house Nov. 2nd. Charles P. Kerner, a groceryman, has bought a "dandy" new delivery wagon. Mark Miller's Juvenile Lady Minstrels at the opera house Friday night, October 23rd. The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association sold $3,800 at the meeting held on Monday evening. Fourteen hundred and twelve dollars was paid to the Winslow township school teachers last Saturday. The members of the Golden Gate Club held a social at the home of Charles A. Herpel last evening. Another school room will soon be opened in Sykesville, making thirty-six schools in Winslow township. On account of the death of the janitor's mother, there was no school in the public school building Monday. The new iron bridge over Stump creek at Sykesville, was completed and opened to the public last Wednesday. A large gray fox and eight coons were killed near William Norris' farm recently by a party of 'coon hunters. Rev. C. H. Prescott, of Cleveland, Ohio, preached in the Reynoldsville Baptist church last Sunday evening. Mark Miller's Juvenile Lady Minstrels at the Reynolds opera house on Friday night of this week, October 23rd. Mr. Shannon was given a birthday surprise party at home of his daughter, Mrs. Kate Tavender, on Jackson street Monday evening. A. L. Keagle, of Rathmel, has rented King & Co's store room in this place, near Burns House, and will soon put in a large stock of goods. Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church, J. W. Myers pastor. Sunday school at 9.30 a. m., communion service at 11.00 a. m., Vesper service at 7.30. To-morrow, October 22, The Leader, a new weekly to be published in DuBois, will be launched on the journalistic sea. It will be published by the DuBois Printing Co., with W. J. Hines as manager.

The Utopia Society held a social at the residence of James A. McCraith on Jackson street last Friday evening. Judge John W. Reed was at Smithport last week holding court for Judge Bouton, who assisted Judge Reed in the last criminal court in this county. "Uncle Sam" is advertising for bids for carrying mail from Reynoldsville to Wishaw, Eleanor, Desire and Panic. Bids will not be received after Nov. 3rd. There is good prospects of a large cigar factory locating in Reynoldsville. The interested parties will be here the first of next month to look the situation over. Frank J. Murray, an electrical contractor, engineer and contractor, has rented a house on Fourth street and will move to this place the first of next month. Mrs. Ed. C. Burns sold her fine driving and riding horse, "Billy," to Lewis Morgan of Ridgway last week. Ed. Burns, Jr., drove "Billy" to Ridgway Thursday. A male quartette from the Reynoldsville M. E. choir, John Radcliffe, Thomas D. Thomas, William Trudgen and Merrill Plyler, sang in the M. E. church at DuBois Sunday evening. The sixty-second semi-annual session of the Clarion District Conference will be held in the M. E. church at Summersville on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, Oct. 26, 27 and 28. The members of the P. O. S. of A. Camp of Reynoldsville will attend public services in the Baptist church at 11.00 a. m. next Sunday, Oct. 25th, at which time Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek will preach a special sermon. Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Dora Gertrude Deemer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Deemer, of McCalmont township, and William Peter Uplinger, which occurs Wednesday, November 4th. Rev. D. M. Lyle, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., who was attending the Presbyterian Synod in DuBois last week, was the guest of Rev. J. D. McKay in this place Sunday and preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. Miss Zola Griffin, of this place, who was operated on at the Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg, September 9th, for appendicitis, and had to undergo a second operation October 6th, now has typhoid fever and is in the typhoid fever department of the hospital. "The French Spy" at the opera house Monday night was not well presented. One of the prominent actors had been called to his home by serious illness of his sister and a fellow who did not know his part attempted to play it and made a complete fizzle. Frank Bohren, of this place, played with the "Keystone" football team of DuBois against the Punxsutawney team at the latter place Friday afternoon. Frank scored the only touch-down in the first half of the game. During the game Frank's left leg was badly injured. Captain Bradford, of the Salvation Army, will preach in the Reynoldsville Baptist church next Sunday evening. This will be his last service in Reynoldsville, and will end the Salvation Army work in this place. A free will offering will be taken after the sermon. The fiftieth anniversary of Masonic order in Brookville will be celebrated on the afternoon of October 29th. Grand Master of the Grand Lodge and a number of Grand officers will be present. Members of the Brookville lodge will hold a banquet at American House in the evening. Miss Jessie Smeltzer, of this place, who was taken to the Adrian Hospital some weeks ago suffering with typhoid fever, hopes to be able to be moved to her home on Jackson street the latter part of this week, but it is doubtful whether she will be strong enough to be moved before next week. William T. Cox had a long strip of jerked, dried, moose meat wrapped in paper carrying in his pocket. Saturday from which he sliced a taste for some of his friends when he met them. The moose was killed along the St. John river in New Brunswick. John Faconmeyer of New Bethlehem killed the moose, which weighed 1,000 pounds. A reunion of the 105th regiment was held at Butler yesterday and the following members of that regiment from this place attended the reunion: John M. Hays, C. C. Gibson, Lyman W. Scott, Frank Haymaker, David Hillis and Samuel Brillhart. Mrs. Brillhart was with her husband. William T. Cox, whose father was a member of the 105th, also attended the reunion. The following Reynoldsville ladies were over to Punxsutawney last Thursday evening to hear Mrs. Booth-Tucker deliver and address: Mrs. Perry A. Reno, Mrs. J. M. Hays, Mrs. H. Eugene Phillips, Mrs. Hannah Prescott, Mrs. A. M. Woodward, Mrs. George Harris, Misses Olie Ross, Edith and Edith Clark, Anna Davis, Lulu Black, Maude Meek and Edith Harris. Captain Bradford, Mrs. Donahue, Mrs. Kempise and several other members of the Salvation Army were also over to hear Mrs. Booth-Tucker.

Barn Burned. Henry Wildes' barn, near Prescottville, was burned about half past nine o'clock Monday night. All his hay, feed and chickens were burned. Origin of fire unknown. Italian Shot and Killed. Saturday evening Antonio Loggini, an Italian about 20 years old, was accidentally shot by another Italian who was examining a revolver in a boarding house at Sykesville. The bullet lodged in Antonio's abdomen. He lived until Sunday evening. Before dying Antonio said the man who shot him was not to blame. Blown to Pieces by Dynamite. An Italian was blown to pieces in the mine, near Sandy Valley, about 1.30 this morning by dynamite. A piece of one leg was the largest part of the body that could be found. Could not find his head. Ten or twelve sticks of dynamite exploded. The Ike was boarding at Pardon. Another Italian claims to have been working in the same room when explosion occurred, but he was not injured. Boys Play Truant. There are a few boys in town who make a practice of playing truant from school frequently, and some of these days Truant Officer Joseph M. King will look some of the boys in the cooler and the parents will be compelled to pay a fine. Under the present truant law parents had better see to it that their children do not play "hookie." If the parents work in co-operation with the truant officer the number of truant boys can be greatly lessened. Business Change. Peter H. Smith, an experienced man in the business, has bought the Bon Ton Bakery from John H. Baum. The change was made last week and Mr. Smith is now proprietor of the bakery. He was proprietor of the Bon Ton once before, selling out three years ago. If Mr. Smith had not bought the Bon Ton he would have started a new bakery. Mr. Baum will remain in Reynoldsville until next spring, on account of the schools, and will then move to his farm near Emersville. Barracks to be Closed. Four years ago next month the Salvation Army work was begun in Reynoldsville, but for some reason the work never received a sufficient amount of encouragement to make it the success hoped for and what it is in other towns, although a number of earnest and faithful workers have been sent here to look after the work. Unless different orders come from headquarters this week, Captain Bradford will close the Salvation Army work in Reynoldsville next Sunday. Buried Last Wednesday. Mention was made in THE STAR last week of the death of Thomas G. Johnston, of St. Petersburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnston of West Reynoldsville, but no particulars given as to age, etc. The deceased was born near Leatherwood, Clarion Co., now Brinkersville, Pa., September 27, 1863. He was a farmer. Leaves a widow and ten children. Funeral was held Wednesday. Interment in cemetery near Strattonville. His death was caused by blood poison from a bed-dug finger. Passenger Train Wrecked. The P. R. R. passenger train from Pittsburg, due here at 9.50 p. m., struck a box car in the yards at Falls Creek Friday night, stripping left side of the engine, tearing cab off engine and steps off two coaches. The fireman received a few bruises and the engineer and passengers escaped without injury. The box car had been set on the siding by a B. & P. crew and had not been put in far enough to clear the main track. It might have cost several lives. Edward Hause was engineer and M. J. McEntee conductor of the train. Death of Mrs. DeLorme. Mrs. Clarissa DeLorme, wife of Francis DeLorme, of Winslow township, and sister of Mrs. John S. Smith, of this place, died October 5, 1903, aged 79 years and three months. Funeral October 8, conducted by Rev. J. E. Dean, of Rathmel, and Rev. Isaac Hankins, pastor DuBois Baptist church. Interment in family burying ground on the homestead. Clarissa Smith was born in Franklin Co., N. Y., July 6, 1824. Her parents moved to Jefferson county, Pa., when she was eleven years old. She was married to Francis DeLorme April 28, 1843. Rural Free Delivery. Postmaster Edward C. Burns hopes to establish two or three rural free delivery routes from Reynoldsville in the near future. The first one he wants to get started is out by Prescottville, Soldier and in by Ludwick's Mill. Mr. Burns has been out two days on this route getting signers to a petition for the free delivery, and he found only one man who declined to sign the petition. The only expense to the people along the free delivery route will be the buying of a mail box. Postmaster Burns will have to spend at least one more day along the proposed route to complete the work of getting the people to sign the petition. Largest selection of Monarch shirts at Millirens. Save money by buying your wall paper now at Stoke's. Krippendorf-Ditman shoes for ladies at Nolan's shoe store.

Public School Lecture Course. The lecture course to be conducted by the public schools this year will be especially strong. The first number of the course will be the Roney's Boys' Concert Company. This is a musical organization which is booked on the best courses throughout the country. The company consists of Mr. Roney and five boys with well trained voices. Their programmes consist of quartettes, trios, duets, solos, both vocal and instrumental. They are entertainers of the first class and they delight their audiences wherever they go. Dr. D. F. Fox, pastor of one of the Congregational churches in Chicago, will be the lecturer for the second attraction. Dr. Fox is one of the most brilliant lecturers on the American platform. He is a "strong thinker, magnificent orator, a man of large and tender heart, of large experience with books and mankind and withal of winning personality. The Katherine Ridgeway Concert Co. will be the third attraction. Miss Ridgeway, who, it will be remembered, last year delighted her audience at this place with her marvellously executed readings, will be accompanied by a corps of experienced artists. This attraction needs no further testimonial than the fact of the hearty indorsement of last year's entertainment. As the fourth number of the course Dr. John B. DeMotte will deliver one of his famous illustrated lectures. Prof. DeMotte was here two or three years ago and his lecture was so favorably received that his return was asked for. His illustrations are beautiful and add greatly to the strength of his arguments. DeMotte is a profound scientific scholar and he highly instructs and entertains his audiences. The fifth number of the course has not been fixed as yet, but it will be of a high grade and in keeping with the others. The first two attractions will be here in December, the third one in January and the fourth in February. Death of Mrs. M. H. Strouse. Mrs. Margaret Helen Strouse, relict of George Strouse, died at her home in Paradise at 4.00 a. m., Sunday, October 18, 1903, after one week's illness with plural pneumonia. Her maiden name was DuMars. She was born in Mercer Co., Pa., December 23, 1833, making her 69 years, 9 months and 25 days old at time of death. She was married to George Strouse when 20 years old, almost 50 years ago. Three children were born to them, two sons and one daughter. The daughter, Mary E., died in March, 1889, and Mr. Strouse died in May of the same year, 17 years ago last May. When married Mrs. Strouse was a member of the M. E. church, but she joined the Lutheran church with her husband, and for 50 years was a faithful and consistent member of the Lutheran church. Funeral service was held in the Strouse church yesterday forenoon, conducted by Rev. W. Selner, pastor of the deceased for a number of years. A quartette and organist from Reynoldsville furnished the music, Will Herpel, Richard Ramsey, Misses Lois Robinson, Frances Kirk and Isabel Arnold. Interment in the Syphrit cemetery. Mrs. Strouse is survived by two sons, Daniel W. and G. C. Strouse, of this place, two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Moody, of Pittsburg and Mrs. Harriet Reed, of Sykesville, and four grand children, Frank S., Mabel L., Hazel A. and Howard I. Strouse, of Reynoldsville. Mrs. Strouse was a kind mother, good neighbor and an excellent woman. Evangelistic Services. The Presbyterian church is arranging to hold a series of evangelistic services, beginning November 15th. In these services they are expecting to have Rev. D. C. MacLeod, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Washington, D. C. Dr. MacLeod is a young man of rare powers. He was called to the First church of Washington to succeed the late Dr. Talmage. He is considered one of the ablest men in the American pulpit and his coming here, we trust, will result in much good. Committees Appointed. G. W. Lenkerd, the president of the Young Men's Free Reading Room Association, has selected his committees for the ensuing year. The financial committee is composed of Rev. A. D. McKay, Rev. P. A. Reno, Burgess L. M. Simmons, Dr. L. L. Means and Prof. C. V. Smith. The literary committee consists of Dr. A. J. Meek, Dr. J. H. Murray and F. H. Beck. Dr. B. E. Hoover, Prof. D. S. Bacon and Harvey Deter are members of the social committee. Delorme-Lenkerd. Frank A. Delorme and Miss Ella R. Lenkerd were united in marriage last evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Rich. The ceremony, which was private, was performed at the home of the bride, John Lenkerd, near West Liberty.—DuBois Courier October 21. The bride is well known in Reynoldsville. That handsome Austrian China in Hall's window will be closed out at a bargain. Look for it. See the fall hats for 1903 at Millirens.

DEATH OF FRANK W. MITCHELL. Died after Operation in Pittsburg Hospital. Funeral Service Held at DuBois and Interment Made in Reynoldsville. Francis W. Mitchell, of DuBois, who was baggage-master on the Low Grade Division eighteen years, a brother of our late townsman, Lawyer C. Mitchell, and at one time a resident of Reynoldsville, died in the West Penn Hospital in Pittsburg at 3.30 a. m. Saturday, October 17, 1903. Mr. Mitchell had worked on Monday of last week, but was sick Tuesday morning. A doctor was called and during the day he pronounced it a case of appendicitis. As the patient grew worse other DuBois doctors were called in consultation and they pronounced it a case of peritonitis. Thursday evening Dr. W. H. Ush, of Philadelphia, son-in-law of Mr. Mitchell, arrived in DuBois and he insisted on an operation, and arrangements were made and Mr. Mitchell was taken to Pittsburg on the early train Friday morning. An operation was performed Friday evening and the trouble was found to be an obstruction of the bowels, but the operation did not save Mr. Mitchell's life. The body was taken to the Mitchell home in DuBois Saturday evening. Frank Mitchell was born in Punxsutawney October 12, 1853, and was 50 years old on the 12th inst., the last day he was out on his run. In April, 1889, he was married to Margaret Cotton, of Reynoldsville, his second wife. He is survived by his wife and four daughters, one of whom, Mrs. Ethlyn Ush, of Philadelphia, was a daughter of first wife. Twenty-three years ago Mr. Mitchell accepted a position as passenger brakeman on the Low Grade Division, which position he held five years and was then promoted to baggage-master. He resided at Driftwood until about four weeks ago when he moved to DuBois to handle baggage on the train that leaves DuBois in the morning and gets back to that place at noon. Mr. Mitchell was a good natured, pleasant fellow and he had many friends all along the Low Grade. He was a devoted husband and father, a very kind and helpful man in his own home. He was a member of John M. Reed Masonic and the Royal Arcanum lodges of Reynoldsville, and Workmen lodge of DuBois. He carried $3,000 life insurance in Royal Arcanum, also insurance in Workmen lodge and in a life insurance company. Funeral service was held at the late residence of the deceased in DuBois at 10.30 a. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. I. S. Hankins, pastor of the DuBois Baptist church. The body was brought to Reynoldsville on the 1.29 p. m. train over P. R. R., the relatives and friends having a special coach. About fifty members of the Masonic lodge of this place, of which the deceased was a member, was at the train and marched in the funeral procession to the Reynoldsville cemetery, where the Masonic funeral ceremony was performed. The floral tributes were magnificent. "Indians" Won Game. A football team came over from Punxsutawney last Thursday and played the "Indian" football team of Reynoldsville. The visitors were defeated. Score 6-0. The "Indian" line up was as follows: F. Foley, left end; Bert Burns, left tackle; Dr. W. A. Henry, left guard; Deemer, center; H. Burns, right guard; J. Doubles, right tackle; J. Degnan, right end; Fred Bohren, quarter back; Frank Bohren, left half-back; Reynolds Gibson, (captain) right half-back; H. Copping, full-back. Time of halves, 20 and 15 minutes; subs., J. Bohren and W. Organ; referee, Jos. Williams, Reynoldsville; umpire, Miles, of Punxsutawney; touch down, Copping 1; goal, Gibson 1. It was an exciting and interesting game, and was witnessed by a large crowd. Concert Company. The Ithaca Conservatory Concert Company will give an entertainment in Reynoldsville November 16th under the auspices of the Helping Hand Society of M. E. church. The Sunbury Daily says: "Rarely, if ever, in the history of Lyons Opera House was there a more delighted or better pleased audience than the one present last evening to hear the concert company from the Ithaca Conservatory of Music. The company without a single exception were artists of rare distinction. The program from a musical standpoint was an artistic rendition of high class composition." Kinetograph Company. The American Kinetograph Company will give an entertainment in Reynoldsville November 11 under the auspices of Hope Fire Company. This company offers an exclusive program of the very latest subjects in animated pictures. The list is so large and includes so many different subjects that it is impossible to enumerate them here. Nothing old; everything new; positively the greatest moving picture exhibition on earth. Remember the date, November 11. That handsome Austrian China in Hall's window will be closed out at a bargain. Look for it. See the fall hats for 1903 at Millirens.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO. Philip Koehler spent Sunday in DuBois. Frank J. Black is in Bradford this week. Mrs. W. W. Dalbie visited in Brookville last week. Mrs. L. L. Gourley is visiting in Pittsburg and Bradford. Mrs. Fred Barto is visiting her parents at Phillipsburg. Mrs. L. D. Rupert and son, George, are visiting in Bradford. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gibson are in Buffalo, N. Y., this week. Miss Belle Ewing, of Cleveland, Ohio, is the guest of Mrs. J. T. Guthrie. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taafé spent several days in Pittsburg recently. John Marshall, of Hawthorn, was the guest of Francis Yost over Sunday. Robert Stephenson, of Gares, Clearfield Co., has been in town several days. Mrs. Isabel Swartz, of Brookville, is visiting Mrs. C. J. Kerr, on Jackson street. Dr. Clifford L. Kaucher went to Milton, Pa., Monday where he expects to locate. John McClure, who was in Pittsburg all summer, returned to this place Saturday. A. Silberman, of New York City, president of Enterprise Silk Co., is in town this week. Edward J. Worden, of Phillipsburg, visited his parents at Hopkins during the past week. H. P. Lavo was in Williamsport last week, called there by the serious illness of his mother. Samuel R. Crawford, of Denver, Col., who was visiting in this place, started for Denver yesterday. Senator John S. Fisher, of Indiana, state senator from this district, was in town last Wednesday. Samuel T. Reynolds is visiting his brother-in-law, Perry H. Thompson, near Corsica this week. Mrs. W. P. Hetrick, of Big Run, visited her sister, Mrs. W. H. Ford, in this place the past week. Misses Edith Baum and Mame Munch, of Falls Creek, were guests of Miss Mary McClure yesterday. J. Riley Smeltzer went to Washington, D. C., Monday to work in the government printing office. Mr. and Mrs. J. LeRoy Bartle, of Verona, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Barry in West Reynoldsville. Miss Kittie Dwyer, of Bradford, who has been the guest of Mrs. John Reed a month, returned home Monday. Mrs. John A. Welsh was called to Cretes, Clarion county, last Friday by the serious illness of her father. Mrs. Edward H. Bates went to Manington, W. Va., Monday, where Mr. Bates is working in a glass plant. Bruce Mitchell, of Homestead, came home Sunday. He was called here by the death of his uncle, Frank Mitchell. C. A. Stephenson and wife and Mrs. Dr. S. Reynolds will go to Pittsburg this evening to remain a couple of days. J. W. Campbell and wife left here Monday to visit a few days in New Bethlehem, Lawsonham and Pittsburg. Mrs. Jacob Booth returned Friday from a three months' visit at Johnstown, Williamsburg and several other places. Joseph S. Johnston, editor of the Driftwood Gazette, was in town yesterday attending the funeral of Frank W. Mitchell. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dempsey returned Saturday from a ten weeks' pleasure trip and visit at Bradford, Erie, Oil City and several places in Venango county. Mrs. Wm. Mabon, of Marlon Centre, was in town yesterday calling on old time friends. She came over to attend the funeral of Frank W. Mitchell. Mrs. Mary L. Jackson, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Gillespie, returned Monday from an extended visit in Knoxville, Iowa, Warren, Ohio, and Pittsburg, Pa. N. Hanau, one of our prominent merchants, was in Philadelphia and New York City the past week buying new goods. William Bone, who is working at Cherry Run, was at home of his parents in this place the past week nursing a bealed finger. H. J. Bowman and wife, of East Brady, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Benson, in West Reynoldsville last week. Mrs. J. F. Seltzer, of Lock Haven, returned home Saturday after two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. A. P. King, on Grant street. Mrs. E. E. Miles, who has been ill some time with lung trouble, will go to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg tomorrow for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Prescott, and daughter, Miss Louanna, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting at the home of J. H. Corbett, on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown and daughter, Misses Inez and Christine, are in Pittsburg this week. They went down yesterday afternoon. Richard Taafé, superintendent of the Bessemer Coal Co. plant at Ferris, Butler Co., spent several days of the past week at his home in this place. Mrs. G. Newell Meeker, of Owensboro, Ky., was called here by the death of her uncle, Frank W. Mitchell. Mrs. Meeker arrived here Monday noon. A. B. Weed and wife and C. F. Hoffman and wife took a trip to Big Run last Thursday on their automobiles. They intended going to Punxsutawney in the afternoon, but there was every indication of a wet afternoon and they returned from Big Run. Mrs. C. Gray left here Monday to visit a few days with a daughter in Punxsutawney and from there will go to Davis, West Va., to visit a daughter. Mrs. D. Nolan was in Kane over Sunday visiting her brother, M. Kane, a freight conductor on the P. & E., who had his right foot amputated last week. E. C. Sensor, who is working his team on McDonald's lumber job at Laquet, Bradford Co., Pa., spent several days with his family in this place last week. Mrs. Bort A. Hays and daughter, Miss Althea, of Allegheny City, were visitors at home of former's father-in-law, J. M. Hays, in this place last week. Martin J. Gleason, of this place, an engineer on the Low Grade Division, and his mother and sister, Mrs. Cecilia and Miss Kathleen Gleason, are in Pittsburg this week. Mrs. Thomas Neal is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Bassett, at Barnesboro. This is the first time Mrs. Neal has been out of town for a number of years on account of poor health. George W. Yost, of Putneyville, and Francis Yost, of this place, who is working at Upper Hillville, were called here last Friday by the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. Josiah Deter. Squire and Mrs. E. Noff have been visiting the former's brother, Dr. Edward L. Noff, in Pittsburg, taking in the exposition and other things of interest in the "Smoky City" the past week. R. L. Johnston, of Akron, Ohio, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnston, in West Reynoldsville last week. He was called to this section to attend the funeral of his brother, T. G. Johnston. Rev. Jacob Booth, who was in the northwestern part of Iowa six weeks doing evangelistic work, returned home Friday evening. He reports having had very successful meetings in the "Hawkeye" state. Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek and Rev. C. H. Prescott went to Lewisburg, Pa., Monday to attend the Pennsylvania Baptist State Convention, which convened Monday evening, and will close Thursday evening. The Educational and Publication Societies and State Missionary work will be represented by able men. Reign of Misfortune. Francis D. Smith, of the Reynoldsville Hardware Co., has had a double portion of trials and family affliction during the past two months. In the first place, trying to do business in a store room, partly torn down, while erecting another building over it, is almost enough grief at one time, but besides this Mr. Smith's son, Howard, took typhoid fever while out on the farm near Fancoast, and while Mrs. Smith was nursing him, their daughter, Mabel, had an attack of appendicitis and was taken to Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Smith accompanied her daughter to hospital and soon after the return from Pittsburg Mrs. Smith and another daughter, Jennie, both took fever, and Mabel, who was operated on, also took fever, making four cases of fever and one case of appendicitis in Mr. Smith's family. They are all convalescing and unless they get a setback will all recover. Mr. Smith expects to bring his daughter home from Pittsburg in about ten days. Re-Union Here Next Year. An invitation signed by one hundred citizens of Reynoldsville, was sent to the members of the 105th regiment at Butler yesterday to hold the reunion at Reynoldsville next year. The invitation was unanimously accepted and the old veterans will meet in Reynoldsville in October, 1904. Moving Machinery. Herpel Bros., machinists of West Reynoldsville, are moving the machinery from their old shop into their new brick building. They will have a fine machine shop when located in the new building. Reduction in Meat. On account of low price of cattle at present I will sell meat at the following price per pound: Round beef 10 cts., round steak 14 cts., tenderloin and sirloin 16 cts., boiling meat from 5 to 7 cts., stew 8 to 9 cts., pork chops, steak and roast 15 cts., lamb roast 12 to 14 cts., lamb chops 14 cts. All other meats proportionately low. P. B. RHODES' MEAT MARKET. Card of Thanks. We desire to gratefully acknowledge the many acts of kindness and sympathy accorded us during the illness and after the death of our mother, Mrs. Margaret H. Strouse, and hereby tender sincere thanks to our neighbors and friends, and to all who assisted in any way. CHILDREN. A Novel Display. Is shown in the show window of the Reynolds Drug Store this week, advertising "Breathlets," the great breath perfume and relief for hoarseness. Entirely different from all other breath perfumes. You can have a sample for the asking. Full size packages 5 cents. Reynolds' soda fountain is still open and running same as ever. Never closed. Florsheim shoes at Millirens. The Dr. Reed cushion sole shoes are sold at Nolan's shoe store. Save money by buying your wall paper now at Stoke's. See the great assortment of 50 cent shirts at Millirens. H. W. Eason & Co. are closing out their entire stock at a big sacrifice. Here is your chance to save on your fall suits, etc.