

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1903.

If You Have Eye Trouble. Of any kind call and have your eyes examined free. Permanently located, always to be found. Work guaranteed. Prices reasonable. C. F. HOFFMAN, The Jeweler.

Household Rubber Goods

Common everyday necessities now—used to be rare luxuries. Hot Water Bottles, Face Bags, Atomizers, Medicine Droppers, Breast Pumps, Syringes—various kinds Invalids' Comfort and Sick Room Requisites.

H. Alex Stoke, The Druggist.

A Little of Everything.

Halloween is not far off. E. S. Miller has moved from Williamsport to Reynoldsville. Next Tuesday is election day. The new form of ballot will be used. The Protected Home Circle of Reynoldsville now has a membership of 150. President Roosevelt has called an extra session of Congress to meet on Monday, Nov. 9.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Friedman October 26. The boys who play "hokey" from school had better keep an eye on the truant officer. The first number of the public school lecture course will be Roney's Boys' Concert Company. Milton Schlabig is now watchman at the Main street crossing of the R. & F. C. R'y in this place.

Evangelistic Meeting. A series of evangelistic services will be held in the Presbyterian church, beginning November 15. Rev. D. C. MacLeod, D. D., of Washington, D. C., is expected to assist in these special services. Killed in the Woods. Frank Wolfe, of Knoxdale, who was working in woods in West Va., was killed yesterday. Body will be brought to Knoxdale to-day. The young man was a member of the Improved Order of Red Men of Reynoldsville.

Rev. Kernick Dead. Mr. and Mrs. James Binney and son and daughter, Edward Binney and Mrs. Richard Bone, returned Monday afternoon from Tidoute, Pa., where they had been attending the funeral of Mrs. Binney's brother, Rev. E. M. Kernick, who died Thursday and was buried Saturday. Cancer of the stomach was the cause of his death. Rev. Kernick was 58 years old. Had been a Methodist Episcopal minister 33 years, and was successful in the work. He preached an able sermon in the Reynoldsville M. E. church about three years ago while visiting Mrs. Binney. Funeral sermon was preached by Rev. W. J. Holmes, D. D., of Bellevue, Pittsburg Conference. It was a large funeral. Two sisters of the deceased reside in this place, Mrs. Binney and Miss Grace Kernick. Merchant Tailor Moving. M. Gelsler, a first-class merchant tailor who has been in business at Reynoldsville nineteen years, is moving his tailor shop to Stonesboro, Mercer Co., Pa., this week. Mr. Gelsler left here this morning for Stonesboro. He will not move his family away from here for sometime. Misses Mamie Gelsler and Julia Tobin, who have been working in Mr. Gelsler's shop, expect to go to Stoneboro next week to work in the new shop.

Another Vacant Chair. Mrs. Margaret Spellman Cartin, relict of H. I. Cartin, died at her home on Jackson street at 7.20 p. m., October 21st, 1903, after ten days illness. Heart failure, superinduced by old age, was cause of death. Her maiden name was Margaret Spellman. She was born at Lockport, N. Y., May 5, 1821, and was 82 years, 5 months and 16 days old at time of death. Deceased was married to H. I. Cartin October 9, 1843. Mr. and Mrs. Cartin moved to Reynoldsville in March, 1874, and were both well and favorably known in town, having been in the grocery business here for some time. Mr. Cartin died August 22, 1899. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church at 9.00 a. m. Saturday. Father Brady celebrated Requiem Mass. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Cartin is survived by two sons and two daughters, Thomas H. Cartin, of Bridgeville, Pa., Mrs. Mary A. Reed, of Reynoldsville, Harry J. Cartin, of Chicago, and Mrs. A. M. Applegate, of Reynoldsville. Mrs. Cartin was an old Soldier's widow and the Woman's Relief Corps of this place furnished a beautiful floral piece, a Maltese cross, as a token of their high esteem for the deceased. Mrs. Cartin was quite a reader. About a year ago she got her second sight and from that time on she had no use for eyeglasses. She could thread a needle without her glasses. She was quiet and unassuming, a kind mother, good neighbor and a noble woman. The following out of town people attended the funeral: Thomas H. Cartin and daughter, Miss Mary, of Bridgeville, Pa., and M. Fox, of Belleville, Mifflin Co., Pa. Fire Tuesday Afternoon. A fire on the roof of the old building next to H. Alex Stoke's block, in West Reynoldsville, about five o'clock yesterday afternoon raised some excitement in town for a short time. The West Reynoldsville fire company and both companies in this borough were prompt to respond to the fire alarm. The fire was caused by burning soot out of flue, sparks falling on roof, setting it afire. The prompt work of the fire companies prevented a big fire. G. A. Krise, who has a shoe shop in front room of the building and uses the balance of the house for living in, had started a fire to get supper and was sitting at the bench working when notified that his house was on fire. About half the roof was burned off the house. Mr. Krise's goods were damaged a little by quick moving. An Italian stole some articles from Mr. Krise, but some one saw him stealing and told Mr. Krise and he caught the Italian and made him give back what he had stolen. The house is owned by A. O'Donnell, who carried a small insurance on it. It is not likely that Mr. O'Donnell will repair the building. We understand he had contemplated tearing it down next spring. About five hundred people were at the fire. It's a Great One. The Hickman Bros., with a superb company, will produce "Down and Up" at the Reynolds opera house Nov. 2. If the old adage, "Laugh and grow fat," counts for anything at all, it will be safe to predict that anyone who has the pleasure of witnessing this performance will increase in avoidpulpis. From the rise of the curtain until its final fall the spirit of mirth and fun prevails, calling forth prolonged laughter. "Down and Up" is an acrobatic farce comedy constructed on a scale differing in many ways from the average farce comedy, and it is refreshing to know that the art of genuine fun making on the stage, with comedy gymnastics and humor coupled with novel scenic effect is not a thing of the past. Public Sale. There will be a public sale at the Bollinger homestead in Winslow township on Friday, Nov. 20, 1903, at 1.00 p. m. A fine matched team of sorrel colts, a cow, farm machinery and household goods will be sold. SAM'L BOLLINGER. Card of Thanks. We hereby express our heartfelt thanks to the W. R. C. for the beautiful floral piece and to the friends and neighbors for their kind assistance during the sickness and death of our mother, Mrs. Margaret S. Cartin. FAMILY. Get in the Habit. And buy your next suit, overcoat, odd trousers, underwear and furnishings from Bing-Stoke Co. Cures a cold in one night, Reynolds' Perfect Cold Cure. John H. Doubles, the butterine dealer, will re-open his old stand, two doors above hose house No. 2, to-day. High grade butterine at 22c per pound. Jno. Kelly's shoes for women at Millirens. All this month wall paper at a discount at Stoke's. Cures a cold in one night, Reynolds' Perfect Cold Cure. Night robes at one-half price at H. W. Eason & Co.'s. Read their "ad." The Dr. Reed cushion sole shoes are sold at Nolan's shoe store.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

A. P. King was at Ridgway Saturday. John Fink, jr., was at Brookwayville over Sunday. Mrs. John H. Baum visited in Brookville this week. M. C. Coleman was over in Clarion county this week. W. C. Euser and wife were in DuBois yesterday. James A. McCreight and wife were in Pittsburg last week. David Brumbaugh was at Summerville the first of this week. Misses Nellie and Dorothy Sutter were in Brookwayville Monday. Mrs. A. W. Adam, of Brookwayville, visited in this place last week. Grier O. Switzer, clerk at Hotel Imperial, visited in Clarion county last week. Miss Nellie Sutter, of Bradford, visited her parents in this place over Sunday. Mrs. Henry W. Horpel has been visiting a sister at Kittanning the past week. George Osburn and wife were in New Bethlehem Saturday attending a wedding. Miss Hannah Knox, of Corvado, is visiting her brother, Hood Knox, on Grant street. John Howells and wife, of Johnstown, are visiting David Jones' family on Worth st. P. McDonald, lumberman, has been spending several days at his home in this place. John C. Hirst and wife visited the former's parents at Oil City during the past week. James and Rosetta Medland, of DuBois, were visitors at John Trudgen's over Sunday. Mrs. Clarence H. Patterson returned Saturday from a visit with friends at Garland, Pa. O. A. Gray, who has been at Mingo Junction, Ohio, a few months, returned to this place yesterday. John Trudgen, jr., fireman on the Low Grade Division of P. R. R., moved to East Brady last week. Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor Baptist church, is in Washington county this week visiting his parents. Mrs. William Gray, of New Bethlehem, was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. A. Truitt, over Sunday. Mrs. W. H. Gray, of Brookville, has been the guest of Mrs. A. Keith at home of C. A. Hall several days. Mrs. L. J. McEntire, who visited relatives in Chicago, Ill., seven weeks, returned home last Saturday. John W. Fink, who has been staying at Port Matilda, Pa., for sometime, is visiting his daughters in this place. Squire J. D. Woodring and Conrad Mendell were in Buffalo, N. Y., this week attending a meeting of the Buffalo Land Co. Sheriff and Mrs. Archie Cook, of Douglas City, Wyoming, are visiting James Ross and family and other friends in this section. Rev. Perry A. Reno and Rev. J. C. McEntire were in Summerville this week attending the M. E. Clarion District Conference. David Dougherty and wife, of Richmond, Indiana Co., visited their daughter, Mrs. Samuel K. Wray, in this place last week. Miss Mary Trudgen went to East Brady yesterday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Trudgen, jr., who she expects to remain several weeks. Mrs. J. A. Cathers, of Soldier, left here Monday for Lewistown, Ill., where she will remain some time to visit her mother and a son and for benefit of her health. Prof. W. D. Howe, of Pittston, Pa., impersonator and elocutionist who instructed the graduating class in the high school the past two years, was in town over Sunday. Mrs. E. L. Evans is at Cambridge Springs, Pa., for benefit of her health. She has been suffering with rheumatism for several months. Mrs. Ira Smith is visiting at Mt. Pleasant this week. She will bring her grandmother, Mrs. Brechbill, home with her to spend the winter here. Dr. W. B. Alexander, Burgess L. M. Simmons and Thomas F. Adam, of the Robinson Shoe Co., were at Brookwayville last Friday night to hear Dr. Harvey Grams Furbay lecture. Mrs. Kate Gordon, of New York City, Mrs. Thomas Williams, of Millport, Pa., and Miss Maude Bloom, of DuBois, were visitors at John C. Richards' and M. Schlabig's several days the past week. John Goodwill, of Shamokin, Pa., for a number of years a resident of Reynoldsville, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. William Gibson, in this place. Mr. Goodwill's old time friends are glad to see him again. R. H. Wilson visited his son, Dr. Reid Wilson, in Brookville Monday. J. R. Barnard and wife, of Dayton, visited the former's sister, Mrs. J. H. Corbett, in this place this week. Henry A. Reed, of Manchester, N. H., agent for the National Register Co., is visiting at the home of his parents in this place. Dr. Charles J. Stelm and wife, of Pittsburg, are spending a few days in town. Doctor is somewhat of a nimrod and he wanders up to this section about this time of year to get a little recreation chasing over the mountains for big or little game. Mrs. John H. Kaucher and daughter, Miss Laura, went to Milton, Pa., last Thursday to spend a few days with Dr. Clifford L. Kaucher, son of Mrs. Kaucher, and from Milton will go to Philadelphia to visit another son, Dr. Howard L. Kaucher. John S. Schultz, formerly of this place, who has been in the employ of Hall & Kaul at St. Marys several years, resigned his position with that firm to accept a position in the company store at Pardu, near Sandy Valley. Mr. Schultz and family came to Reynoldsville Saturday. Down and Up. An overwhelming, stupendous, magnificent production. The very acme of capital, energy and brains. Carrying an able company of lady and gentleman artists, elegant special scenery, wonderful mechanical devices, mysterious electrical effects. You will smile, you will laugh, you will scream. "Down and Up" is a musical and acrobatic farce comedy, constructed for laughing purposes, with nothing good left out. All old ideas side-tracked to give birth to a new and original play that will amuse the theatre-going public. At Reynolds opera house November 2. Letter List. List of unclaimed letters remaining in post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., for the week ending Oct. 24, 1903: Miss Mable Shay, (2) Miss Iva Shaffer, Dr. C. L. Hope, G. A. Freedlone. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above. E. C. BURNS, P. M. You Needn't be Afraid. Of that dreadful cold if you take Reynolds' Perfect Cold Cure in the start. Price 25c a box. New Train on the B., R. & P. Beginning Sunday, October 25th, the B., R. & P., Railway Company will add a new passenger train to its service. The train will leave Falls Creek at 7.30 a. m. for Bradford, making all stops, and returning it will arrive in Falls Creek at 8.30 p. m. Heretofore all passengers for northern points had to catch the night flyer or wait until 1.02 p. m. The new train will be a decided accommodation and will be hailed by the road's patrons with much delight.—Falls Creek Herald. Sensational Comedians. The Hickman brothers, known far and near as the "sensational comedians," gave what is possibly one of the most amusing, and at the same time entertaining performances ever witnessed in this section last evening at the opera house. "Down and Up" certainly made a great hit and those who failed to take in the show certainly missed a rare treat.—Reading (Pa.) Eagle. At the Reynolds opera house Monday night, Nov. 2nd. Your Next Hat. It may be the twentieth hat and cost you nothing, if you buy it at Bing-Stoke Co.'s. A story is going the rounds of the press of a man who went to sleep and dreamed he was living in a city governed by women. It was scrupulously clean, and while wandering around he saw three men arrested for spitting on the pavements. A garbage barrel at the rear of each lot hand painted and tied with blue ribbon. Mail boxes were decorated with drawn work throws on top of them. Sweet pea vines were climbing over the electric light poles and a handsome painted cupid occupied a prominent place on every corner, and the naked limbs of the shade trees were covered with linen and trimmed with point lace. H. W. Eason & Co. are closing out their entire stock at a big sacrifice. Here is your chance to save on your fall suits, etc. Cures a cold in one night—Reynolds' Perfect Cold Cure. See the great assortment of 50 cent shirts at Millirens. Save money by buying your wall paper now at Stoke's. See Millirens for your winter underwear. Reynolds' soda fountain is still open and running same as ever. Never closed. Read H. W. Eason & Co.'s ad on first page.