

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw and ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney trouble and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Freemont, N. C. writes. Only 50c. at H. A Runaway Bicycle.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c. at H. Alex Stoke's Drug Store.

A Mother Gone.

Mrs. Henry Mowrey died at her home near Emerickville on Thursday, October 29, 1903, aged 45 years. Funeral services were held at the Emerickville Methodist Episcopal church the following Sunday, conducted by Rev. W. H. Garnett. Interment in the family plot in the Moore cemetery. The floral offerings and the many friends at the funeral indicated the sincere sorrow of friends and acquaintances. Mrs. Mowrey's health for the last year was poor and for some months a more rapid decline was noticed, and reports from her bedside the past few weeks had been very discouraging. Her death, though not altogether unexpected, was a great shock to her family and numerous friends. Oh it is sad, indeed, when death summons an aged mother from a home, but oh, how sad, when a mother at the age of 45 years is taken from amidst her young family. Words cannot express the sympathy which all feel for this grief-stricken family whom God has seen fit to afflict, and only His great wisdom is an answer to the query, "Why is it so?" Mrs. Mowrey was loved by all who knew her. She was a mother that was ever found in her home. From early womanhood she was a member of the M. E. church. She is survived by her husband and seven children, six sons and one daughter, Mrs. Jennie Rockey, of Russell, Pa., being the only daughter, also three brothers and four sisters mourn for a loving sister. Mrs. Mowrey's last words were words of prayer and a sweet message to her loved ones: "Weep not for me, I am resting, sweetly resting, dear Lord in thee."

Look Out for the Locomotive.

The theatrical organization which possesses marked superiority in either the excellence of its dramatic vehicle or the artistic superiority of its mounting, is the fortunate one whose box-office receipts voice the appreciation of its audience. In this respect "A Foxy Tramp," under the personal direction of Charles Carley and H. Stanley Lewis, shines pre-eminently. One scene alone—the railroad yards at an important Pennsylvania junction, where interlocking switches, hustling towermen, dishevelled dispatchers and grimy train hands pass in kaleidoscopic review and red and green switch lights twinkle like a myriad of fireflies through the dusk, is alone worth double the price of admission. In addition a monster locomotive of the modern "Atlantic" type, with clanging bell, shining brasses and the hiss of escaping steam, thunders upon the stage and in full view of the audience, stops, and backs up, the blue-clad engineer leaning from his cab and the braveny fireman hurling coal into the glowing firebox. The New York Subway at midnight; the underground den of Red Leary's gang of counterfeiters; and a safe-blowing scene wherein the villain and his co-conspirator, "Hungry Joe"—a genuine reformed burglar—drill and "blow" a huge steel bank vault, are among the other special features. "A Foxy Tramp" will appear at the Reynolds opera house Friday evening, Nov. 13. Watch for the parade, led by Prof. Jacoby's Genadier Guards' Band.

Cut It Out Boys.

One day last week two bright looking boys passed the office, and we were impressed with their fine appearance. They were courteous when spoken to, and readily gave their age as thirteen, but the good impression was somewhat marred when we noticed that each one was smoking a cigaret. If the boys but knew the lasting injury they do themselves they would not take the chances. We wonder who sold the boys the poison.—Freeport Journal.

How many homes are shadowed in sorrow because of the brutal carelessness and criminal infidelity of the husband? And knowing these things to be true, is it any wonder that so many wives bear upon their features the stamp of misery and that the canker at their heart causes them to pine away and seek oblivion and peace in an early but welcome grave.—Ex.

Millionaires' Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station.
