Death of Aged Lady.
Mrs. Hannah Klingensmith, an aged and most highly respected lady of Washington township, died Tuesday morning at the home of Postmaster Wiser in Westville, where she had been making her home for some time. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. Wiser. Mrs. Klingensmith was 88 years old and has lived in Washington township many years. Funeral services were held yesterday at the Wiser residence and the remains were taken to Beechwoods for interment. The deceased is survived by three sons, one daughter, 23 grand children and 9 great grand children. Mr. Klingensmith preceded his wife to the grave several years ago.—Brookwayville Record.

Poisoned by Drinking Cider.
Dr. John Dale was called out to Rockdale the other day to see Walter Crawford, who had taken suddenly and violently ill. Mr. Crawford drank some cider which had been left standing overnight in a tin pail and it is thought was poisoned by the same. The doctor was able to relieve him considerably and he is reported as being better.—Falls Creek Herald.

An immense collection of everything which is new, stylish attractive and reliable—and offered at unusual opportunities for genuine savings throughout department. Our business is strictly cash and we are in a position to furnish you the best possible merchandise at a minimum cost, which means a saving of many dollars to you. Never in the history of our store have we had as well assorted stock in Dry Goods, Notions, Cloaks and Shoes as we have now in the beginning of a most prosperous season.

Dry Goods.

We kindly invite you to inspect our line of Dress Goods when looking for something for a suit, skirt, etc. The line contains all the new and nobby weaves in plain and fancy goods. We also have a strong and novelty line of Waistings, etc. In fact anything that is used in Dry Goods line we have for your inspection.

Cloaks, Suits and Skirts.

We need not say anything further for these as the citizens of Reynoldsville, as well as the entire United States, know of and are familiar with style and wearing qualities of "WOOLTEX Garments." The demand for these garments has compelled us to have our Wooltex man call on us with his sample line a second time this season to enable us to keep up our line on sizes and styles. We make it a point to keep in stock all new styles as they come out during the season. We are expecting some new and beautiful garments in a few days. Call and see them.

Shoes.

We have also a good strong line of ladies', misses', and Children's Shoes. Our line contains good, reliable shoes for school girls and boys. The time of year is about at hand when it is necessary to protect the children from cold and wet. Buy these early and you will have them when you need them.

Now is the time of year anyway to buy your Underwear and Hosiery for children, as well as ladies and misses.
