A Little of Everything.

'A Foxy Tramp.' Kinetograph Co. to-night. There are twenty prisoners in the county jail. A high class concert company at Assembly hall Nov. 16th.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve a chicken and waffle supper in the Chapel Thursday evening, Nov. 12. Price 25c. A cordial welcome to all.

M. Montgomery, of West Reynoldsville, a passenger engineer on the Low Grade Division of P. R. R., was off duty the past week nursing a sore arm.

The American Kinetograph Co. at Assembly hall to-night under auspices of Hope Fire Co. General admission 25 cents, reserved seats 35 cents. Tickets on sale at Stoke's.

Grand Chief Patterson, of Pittsburg, visited Mt. Cliff Castle, Knights of Golden Eagle, at Reynoldsville last Thursday evening, and the Castle at Sugar Hill Friday evening.

Reynolds Gibson, Frank Bohren and Jim Deegan, of this place, played with the Puxsutawney football team against the Ridgway team at the latter place Saturday afternoon.

Ex-Postmaster A. M. Woodward and C. N. Lewis went to "Sunset Camp," Beechwoods, yesterday to spend a week hunting. They took a wagon load of provisions and camping outfit with them.

Last Friday afternoon the constable from Lindsey was in town with three prisoners, Martin Redman, Clark McGregor and William Hessian, handcuffed together taking them to the county jail charged with larceny.

A freight wreck on the P. R. R. Saturday morning near Bennezzette delayed passenger trains over the road during the balance of the day. There was no mail from the east from early morning until late Saturday evening.

The Ithaca Conservatory of Music Concert Company gave an excellent entertainment before a large and deeply appreciative audience.—Democrat, Hoosick Falls, N. Y. At Assembly hall Monday night, November 16. Tickets, children 15 cts., adults 25 cts.

Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Reynolds opera house last Thursday evening was greeted with a full house. It is a good company and those who attended were well satisfied. The company carries a full band and orchestra and a number of ponies and blood hounds.

William Barchart, a large hearted glassworker, took pity on the boys and girls that were members of the minstrel show that stranded at this place the first of this month, and he raised enough money by subscription to buy tickets to send the youths to their homes in Philadelphia.

An oyster supper will be held in the West Reynoldsville town hall Monday evening, November 23, for benefit of the Volunteer Fire Co. This oyster supper should be liberally patronized, as every citizen is certainly interested in a good fire company, and should encourage the firemen every way possible.

Bessie, only child of Mr. and Mrs. William Roan, of Jackson street, who would have been ten years old the 21st of next month, died Friday, November 6, 1903, and was buried in the Reynoldsville cemetery Saturday forenoon. Diphtheria was cause of death. Mrs. Roan is now in a critical condition with diphtheria.

Mrs. D. B. Stauffer was called to Edgewood, suburb of Pittsburg, Saturday by the death of her brother, William H. Haney, who died Saturday forenoon from an attack of pneumonia. This was the fourth attack of pneumonia he had suffered with. Mr. Haney was fifty-five years old. He visited Mrs. Stauffer a couple of months ago and became acquainted with a number of our citizens.

The "Roney's Boys," the first number of the public school lecture course, will be in Reynoldsville on the evening of Dec. 11. This is a first class musical organization appearing on the best courses throughout this country. The boys have well trained voices and they give a varied programme of vocal and instrumental music. Everybody will desire to hear them. The date of Dr. Fox's lecture, the second number of the course, is Dec. 16.

Major-General Edward Fielding and wife, of Chicago, Ill., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dawson on Jackson street from Thursday until Monday noon. Major is a cousin of Mrs. Dawson. Major Fielding was at one time a worker in the Salvation Army, now vice-president of the Volunteers of America. He has charge of the Northwestern Division of the Volunteers. Major preached in the Presbyterian church at this place Sunday evening. He is an able and pleasant speaker.

By referring to the minutes of town council it will be seen that the Jefferson Traction Co. has been granted the right to lay a short piece of trolley track on center of Main street, as long as the width of Fourth street. The brick paving down Fourth street to Deitz alley, will run across Main street and the trolley company wants to lay this short piece of track before the paving is done. This would indicate that the Traction Co. expects to run their line through Main street some time and do not want to be at the expense of tearing up any paving to lay their track.

GRUESOME FIND.

Dead Girl Baby Found Along Public Road in a Small Box.

Last Thursday noon as Henry Greenwalt and Charles Gunn were driving along the public road near the Reynoldsville cemetery they saw a Maple Yeast box lying between the public road and trolley line, but did not get off the wagon to investigate the box. Saturday morning Mr. Greenwalt saw the box in the same place and he stopped to investigate. The lid was nailed on the box and when he knocked the lid off he was horrified to find a dead baby in the box. Edward Smith drove along just after Mr. Greenwalt opened the box and he was called to see the gruesome find. Mr. Smith took the box and its contents to Squire S. B. Saxton's office and that official telephoned for Coroner Kyle, but he was unable to get here before Monday noon. A jury was empanelled, composed of following six men, Peter Robertson, Charles Ritzke, John Howlett, George Warnick, E. C. Murphy and S. B. J. Saxton, and an inquest was held. The jury's verdict was that the baby had been strangled to death. The jury will not make a report for a week, as there is a suspicion as to who the mother of the baby is.

It had black curly hair and was a well developed girl baby that would have weighed about nine pounds. A little cotton had been put in bottom of the box, the unwashed and undressed baby laid on the cotton, face down, and covered over with a dirty rag.

The body was turned over to Undertakers Hughes & Pomroy and buried in the Reynoldsville cemetery yesterday forenoon at the expense of the county.

SHOT WHILE HUNTING.

Young Man Lost His Life by Accidentally Shooting Himself.

John McDonald, sixteen-year-old son of Nicholas McDonald, of Soldier, was accidentally shot while out hunting last Saturday and died in five hours after the accident. John and a younger brother, Joseph, were out together and while standing on a stump watching for game John put his hands in his pockets to warm them and leaned the gun against his body. The gun slipped off the stump, struck a log and was discharged. The load of shot entered the young man's body near the rectum and passed up through the bowels. Joseph ran to the nearest farm house and got the farmer to take John home in a hack. A doctor was called and at first it was not thought that the boy was fatally injured, but he died about 4.00 p. m. Saturday. He was shot about 11.00 a. m. Funeral services was held in the Catholic church at this place Monday forenoon.

Mail by Trolley.

Postmaster Burns has received notice from the Postoffice Department that two mails a day will be carried between Reynoldsville and Puxsutawney by trolley. This order was to have taken effect Saturday, November 7, but no further notice has been received concerning it. When this goes into effect the star route from here to Wishaw, Eleanor, Desire and Panic will be discontinued.

Lawyer W. F. Stewart Dead.

Lawyer William F. Stewart, of Brookville, a prominent member of the Jefferson County Bar Association, who was candidate for the nomination for judge at the time Judge Reed was nominated, died at his home in Brookville Monday afternoon from a cancerous trouble of the bowels. He had been sick about ten weeks. Lawyer Stewart had practiced in the courts of this county about thirty years. He was president of the Jefferson County Bar Association at time of death. He was an old soldier.

Fire Company Organized.

Wednesday evening of last week a meeting was held in the town hall of West Reynoldsville and a fire company, to be called the West Reynoldsville Volunteer Fire Co., was organized. W. B. Stauffer was elected president, Charles P. Kerner vice-president, Milton E. Williams secretary, Fred McEntire treasurer, John Burgh chief of fire department, Fred McEntire and John Burgh assistant foremen, William P. Woodring, Harry Sykes and John Burgh trustees. West Reynoldsville now has a good fire company.

Getting Near the Mark.

If the business of the Reynoldsville postoffice continues to increase it will only be a short time until the town can get free delivery. The receipts of the postoffice last month were $155.00 more than any other month in the history of this office. A small increase will put us in the free delivery class. Every citizen interested in the town should do everything they can to reach the free delivery mark. There has been enough mail handled at the Reynoldsville office for several years to put the town on free delivery list, but the gas postal cards and other matter is purchased elsewhere.

A cup of fine coffee made from Scull's Golden Blend Coffee served from 9.00 a. m. to 6.00 p. m. each day this week at Robinson & Mundorff's grocery. You are cordially invited to call and sample a cup. It's free.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Large Number of Guests—Beautiful Decorations—Lovely Presents.

The prettiest and most elaborate country wedding that has taken place in this section for many a day, was the wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Deemer in McCalmont township at twelve o'clock on Wednesday, November 4, 1903, when their daughter, Miss Dora Gertrude, and William Peter Uplinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Uplinger, were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony in the presence of about ninety relatives and friends. Rev. Charles Zetler, M. E. minister of Callensburg, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony under a beautiful arch of ferns and white chrysanthemums. It was a ring ceremony and was unusually impressive. Miss Grace Clawson, of Reynoldsville, was bridesmaid, G. C. Deemer, brother of the bride, was groomsmen, Ruth Deemer, sister of bride, and Master Ronald Lewis, of Reynoldsville, were ribbon bearers, and Miss Edna Lewis, of this place, played the wedding march. The bride was dressed in blue silk and carried white chrysanthemums. The parlor and dining room were beautifully and artistically decorated with ferns and white chrysanthemums, the handwork of Miss Elvian Coleman, of this place, and Lawrence Deemer, of Brookville.

A fine wedding dinner was served. Fourteen sat down to the bride's table, which was decorated with ferns, pansies and chrysanthemums. A piece of bride's cake, wrapped in tissue paper, tied with blue ribbon, was carried away by the younger girls to dream on.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Uplinger received a number of beautiful and useful presents, consisting of bedroom suit, dining table and chairs, set china dishes, parlor chairs, table linen, towels, silverware, fancy work, &c.

THE STAR joins their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Uplinger happiness and success as they travel down life's pathway together.

If Your House Was Afire?

If your house was on fire you would expect the fire company to respond quickly to the alarm, and likely growl if they were not out as quick as you thought they should be. Why should you expect the fireman out to work hard to save your property? They don't get any pay, and often very little thanks. Even a volunteer fire company finds it necessary and convenient to have money in the treasury sometimes, and how are they to get it if the citizens don't contribute in some way?

The moving picture entertainment in Assembly hall to-night is under the auspices of Hope Fire Company, and should be liberally patronized. Assembly hall should be packed. The firemen have as much right to expect you to patronize the entertainment to-night as you have to expect them to respond to a fire alarm. See? This is your opportunity.

Evangelistic Services.

The evangelistic services that have already been announced will begin in the Presbyterian church on the coming Sunday. Dr. MacLeod, of Washington, D. C., who is expected to assist in these meetings, will not be here till Monday. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these services. As preparatory to these meetings a cottage prayer service was held at the home of Mr. Joseph T. Guthrie, West Reynoldsville, Monday evening and last night at the home of Mr. M. H. Stiles, of West Reynoldsville, and Peter Burkhardt, of Pleasant Avenue. This evening the regular mid-week prayer service will be held in the church, and Friday evening another cottage prayer service will be held at the home of Mr. L. M. Simmons. Attend these services and take your friends with you.

Company are Artists.

The concert was a thorough success. The four young ladies constituting the company are artists of more than ordinary ability in their several lines, and they made an impression which will assure the company a good reception should it ever appear here again.—Onesto Star, Onesto, N. Y. At Assembly hall Monday evening, Nov. 16. Tickets, children 15 cts., adults 25 cts.

Keagle's Cash Store will open for business Wednesday, Nov. 18, in King & Coleman's block. We have had 25 years experience in the mercantile business and are going to give you the benefit of it, and will prove to you that it will be to your best interest to patronize us.

Mrs. Lizzie Smith, the milliner, has engaged an experienced dressmaker to take charge of her dress making department. She extends a cordial invitation to patrons to call.

Don't miss the world's greatest moving pictures at Assembly hall to-night. The latest and best moving pictures will be shown. Patronize the fire company boys. General admission 25 cents, reserved seats 35 cents. Tickets on sale at Stoke's.

SUDDEN DEATH OF THOMAS N. NEFF.

After a Few Days' Illness he Was Taken to Pittsburg Hospital.

DIED AFTER AN OPERATION FOR APPENDICITIS.

Was a Prominent Member of John M. Reed Lodge of Masons and a Model Citizen.

Thomas Neale Neff, son of Squire Ezra Neff, of Reynoldsville, died in the West Penn Hospital in Pittsburg at 1.30 a. m. Thursday, November 5, 1903. Mr. Neff was taken to the hospital on Wednesday morning and the doctors pronounced his case a very critical one, and said he could only live a few hours without an operation and that he might die on the operating table, but they could not say positively as to what the real trouble was. The operation was performed at nine o'clock Wednesday evening and the doctors found the case a hopeless one. It was a case of appendicitis in the worst form and there was also symptoms of tuberculosis of the bowels. Tom rallied from the operation and was rational until a few minutes before he died. He talked to his wife after the operation, when he knew that he had only a short time to live. He bid his wife and son good bye and said he was ready to die, if it was the Lord's will. The only thing that grieved him was leaving his little family. The body was brought to Reynoldsville on the 1.20 p. m. train Thursday and taken to the residence on Hill street.

Squire Neff received word late Wednesday evening that his son could not live and he and Mrs. Neff left here on last trolley car for Puxsutawney and took the B. R. & P. "flyer" at 5.00 a. m. Thursday for Pittsburg, arriving there at 8.15, their train being late, and did not learn of Tom's death, nor that the body would be brought home on the B. R. & P. train that leaves Allegheny City at 9.00 a. m., until too late to come on that train. They got home on the 6.15 p. m. train Thursday on the P. R. R.

Thomas Neff was born in Reynoldsville April 8, 1875, making him 28 years, 7 months and 3 days old at time of death. He was a quiet and unassuming young man, but was a bright and apt scholar. He attended Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., one term and a college at New Athens, Ohio, one term. He taught one term of school in the public schools of this borough, one term at Prescottville, and one or two terms in Winslow township. He had been working several years with the J. & C. C. & I. Co. civil engineer corps of this place, and was engaged at that work when he had to quit and return to his home Saturday afternoon, October 30. He was just completing a civil engineering course in the Scranton School of Correspondence. He was always busy and had no time for loafing. Tom was well liked and highly esteemed and it seemed almost incredible to his numerous friends when the news was circulated Thursday morning that he was dead, as it was only a few days before that he was seen on the streets in apparently good health.

Thomas Neff was married to Miss Hettie Beer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Beer, June 21st, 1897. They were married in Brookville by Rev. F. H. Beck, deceased. The widow and one son, Ezra, aged five years, mourn the loss of a good husband and father.

The deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge of this place and held the office of Worshipful Master at time of death. He had been a member of the Presbyterian church for a number of years.

Funeral service was held at the residence on Hill street at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, of the M. E. church, and Rev. Alex D. McKay, of Presbyterian church. One hundred Masons attended the funeral, about twenty from Puxsutawney and thirty from Brookville. The Masons had charge of the funeral and the beautiful Masonic ceremony was performed at the cemetery, conducted by L. J. McEntire. The funeral was large and there were several hundred people in the cemetery waiting when funeral procession arrived there.

The floral tributes were beautiful, consisting of the following: Standing wreath from father and mother of deceased, Maltese cross from Woman's Relief Corps, Masonic emblem from John M. Reed lodge, bouquets from F. H. Beck and J. S. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McEntire, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Feff.

The following out of town relatives attended the funeral: R. D. Beer, J. Lindsey Beer, Miss Cora Beer, of Clairton, Captain Robert B. Beer, of Omaha, Neb., father, brothers and sister of Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Dr. E. L. Neff, of Pittsburg, David Yoder and daughter, Miss Lulu, of Oakmont, J. F. Neff and wife, Charles Neale and wife, John Brown and wife, George Burkett and wife, Al. Neff, of Puxsutawney, W. D. Neff and wife, Miss Sara Neff, William Depp and wife, of Lindsey, S. M. Neff, wife and daughter, D. D. Neff, of DuBois, Joseph Neff and wife, of Falls Creek, A. A. Neff and wife, of Rosemeys, Indiana county.
