

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw and ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney trouble and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Freemont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at H. High School Bulletin.

Edited by Members of the Reynoldsville High School

About 3:30 p. m. Monday, Nov. 9, the Senior class accompanied by Prof. McClure wended their way to Mr. Elliot's for the purpose of gazing at the sun spots with the aid of a telescope and the assistance of Mr. Elliot himself. After satisfying our curiosity as to the magnificence of the heavens and insignificance of ourselves in comparison, we were invited to inspect the greenhouse where each one was presented with a chrysanthemum. We expressed our thanks to our patron and sauntered back to the school house.

The debate, "Resolved that Lady Macbeth was more guilty than her husband," discussed by the male and female members of the Senior class before Prof. Bacon, Rev. P. A. Reno and Mr. Garfield Harries, as judges, was a decided success—for the boys.

Debating is to be a regular feature of English in the High School.

Last Wednesday morning Dr. A. J. Meek conducted the chapel exercises. After devotional service he gave us a fine talk on the development of the mind. He compared it with the method of dwarfing the oaks used in the Orient.

At the meeting of the Shakespearean Literary Society Friday afternoon the following officers were elected to serve one month: President, Anna Klahr; vice-president, Mildred Ridgeway; secretary, Geneva Milliren; critic, Coe Shaffer; editor-in-chief, Lawson Reed; assistant editors, John Coleman, Frank Strouse; local editor, Carl Kirk; program committee, Anna Klahr, Eula Shaffer and Ethel Kunes.

A number of High School members have been sufficiently struck by something in Pux'n'y to make as many as two trips within a week.

What next? The girls of the ninth grade are going to get those two cent class pins.

New piano, better music, more interest in chapel and literary society.

Strange whisperings of a change are now floating around.

Did you ever stop to think? Better not. Just keep on moving.

Many are the songs some of us sing, for example, "How Green I Am," "How Little I Know."

Those woful pictures of the High School have arrived. O my eyes!

One of our Seniors is thinking of becoming a trainmaster. At least the report is that he is very anxious that the Driftwood local leaves on time.

The debate on the subject, "Resolved, That the Arcadians were Unjustly Treated by the English," was a feature of Room 13's Literary program Nov. 9. Mr. Leonard Harris represented the affirmative and Prof. Bacon stood for the negative. The judges, Maude Pratt, Twila Shaffer and John Thornton, decided that the negative side was the stronger.

Misses Witherow and Johnston of Room 13, have moved away. Their places have been taken by Miss Lynch, of Youngstown, and Miss Trudgen, of Falls Creek.

There are some who have nothing more to say, so adieu.

When the Bell Tolls.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch, of Sept. 15, speaking of the attraction which will appear at Reynolds opera house on Thursday Nov. 19, says: "When the Bell Tolls," which is playing at Havlin's this week, can assuredly lay claim to being one of the best of the melodramas of recent years. In its scenery it is of the most picturesque. In its dramatic situations it is original. In the duel on the mountains during a driving snow storm it is one of the most novel of dramas that have ever been seen on the realistic stage.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c, at H. Alex Stoke's Drug Store.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of the many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by H.
