

Object to Being Health Officers.
Action to bring about the repeal of the law requiring the boards of school directors of townships to also act as boards of health was unanimously decided upon at the convention of directors of rural and borough schools, which was held yesterday in Carnegie Music Hall. It was plainly the sentiment of the entire assembly that the law was an imposition upon them, just as much as the law requiring them to act as collectors of the dog-tax was.

One of the directors stated that as far as he was concerned, no attention would be given health affairs in his township. It was also shown that in many instances it had been necessary to extract large sums from the school funds to prevent the spread of contagious diseases and that the salaries of teachers had to suffer in consequence. A resolution was unanimously adopted to instruct delegates to the State convention of School Directors to work for the repeal of the law.—Pittsburg Dispatch Saturday, Nov. 21.

Grand Jury's Opinion of Jail.
In the presentment of the grand jury to the November term of court in Jefferson county, the following statement is made concerning the county jail:

"We also visited the county jail and found it fairly well kept, but bordering very closely on the dirty and filthy order. But considering the age and arrangement of the building, and many attempts to modernize and make it so prisoners could be kept in, we have unanimously concluded that it is a most miserable affair, a disgrace to the county and to the age in which we live. We do not feel like recommending that very much expense be put on the structure, but would call attention to the stairs from the corridor to the upper tier of cells and would recommend new steps. Would also recommend some better method of heating the corridor than the open gas stove now in use.

Most pitiable among human beings are scoured, hopeless, and despondent youths and loveless, unhappy old men. They are irredeemable pessimists, who believe that mankind started out a little lower than the angels and have been getting a little lower ever since. A real trouble, or even a good, old-fashioned sour-apple stomach ache, might help 'em a little. The man who is not in sympathy with good women, struggling men and innocent children, is a moaning dew-drip in life's wilderness, unnatural and unlovable.—Venango Spectator.

Don't fail to hear Dr. Furbay at Assembly hall Thursday night.

"Roney's Boys."
Dec. 11, 1903, the "Roney's Boys" will be here as the first number of the public school lecture course. Wherever they have been they have delighted and enraptured their audiences.

"Roney's Boys" have proved a revelation even to those familiar with the work of the Boys. * * * The greatest musical novelty of years. Aroused unprecedented enthusiasm.—Chicago Times-Herald.

"Roney's Boys" are bright, manly little fellows, who sing like artists and appear like gentlemen. Mr. Roney's accompaniments were, as usual, one of the delights of the evening.—Omaha Excelsior.

"Roney's Boys" scored the musical hit of the season. Much had been said and written about them but the half had not been told. The audience was not only enthusiastic but was beside itself with delight. The boys were given a perfect ovation, which was as sincere as it was well merited. They are simply wonderful, and as cute, manly and pretty as they are talented. The little fellows sang with all the color and tone of artists of thirty years. They were absolutely true, and their interpretation was phenomenal. The pathos, the temperament, the knowledge of music the little fellows displayed was wonderful. The audience said bravo and encored so many times that Mr. Roney consented to give a matinee to-day. The boys are the drawing card of the Star Course.—Charlotte (N. C.) News.
