

SAN DOMINGO CITY SURRENDERED

PRESIDENT FLEES FOR SAFETY.

Revolutionists Take the Capital of the Island—United States May Be Involved.

Dispatches from Puerto Plata say that the city of San Domingo was surrendered to the revolutionists and that President Wos y Gil and his ministers took refuge on board a German warship.

In a dispatch received at Washington from Minister Powell, dated San Domingo, November 23, he announces that the president of San Domingo has agreed to surrender the city to the revolutionists. The bombardment had been vigorous since Monday.

Revolutionists' success in Santo Domingo may involve the United States and there is a possibility that this government will have to adopt a strong policy to obtain recognition and respect for American property in this, the Dominican republic. This may mean intervention by the Washington government for the purpose of bringing order and a stable government out of the revolutionary chaos and constant danger to foreign interests.

United States Minister Powell has been for months urging President Wos y Gil to settle certain American claims. The United States has never been much inclined toward the cause of revolutionists because Gen. Jimenez, the insurgent leader, informed Minister Powell that when the insurgents gained control of the government they would not respect any agreements made with President Wos y Gil. The United States takes the position that in a change of government the formal international obligations of the deposed administration must be assumed by the incoming one.

President Wos y Gil requested the ministers of the United States, Belgium, Hayti and Spain to intervene in behalf of the government. The insurgents refused to accept the terms offered and demanded the immediate capitulation of the city.

WARSHIPS WILL CONCENTRATE.

British Navy Exhibits Great Activity in West Indian Waters.

An unprecedented large concentration of modern British war vessels is about to be made in West Indian waters because of developments in Panama affairs and the approaching Venezuelan election.

A cruiser squadron under Rear Admiral Sir Wilmet Fawkes, leaves shortly for the West Indies, where it will join in manœuvring with the British North American squadron, under Vice Admiral Sir Archibald Douglas. During the cruise the squadron will be brought up to its full strength, being increased to six new armored cruisers of great power and 22-knot speed.

It is believed that the concentration will coincide with an American display of strength in the same waters, though it is given out that the British concentration was arranged a month ago for British naval purposes.

TEN MEN MISSING.

Bark Wrecked and Only Part of Crew Is Saved.

The bark Francois Coppe was wrecked in a fog in Tomales bay, near San Francisco. Of a crew of 17 men only seven have reached shore and it is believed the remainder were lost while trying to swim ashore. Three of those saved floated in on a raft, and four in a lifeboat were picked up by the steamer Scotia. Ten of the crew, including the captain, were in a boat that was dashed to pieces against the ship. The men are said to have fought among themselves and thus caused the destruction of the boat.

FLEET WILL BE WITHDRAWN.

Eastern Question Settled So Far As America Is Concerned.

The Washington State department confirms the story that there has been an agreement among the nations on the Russo-Japanese situation and that there is no longer any necessity for keeping the Asiatic fleet, for the present at least, in Asiatic waters. This fleet, or the most important part of it, under Rear Admiral Evans, will soon start for Honolulu and the expectation is that it will continue its cruise to Panama.

"There is no longer, so far as we know now any eastern question in which the United States is involved," said an official of the state department. "The United States and China have agreed on a treaty which has arrived here and will be submitted to the Senate. All the reports are that there is no friction between Russia and Japan and there are the most friendly relations between the United States and Russia."

The Russian minister at Seoul has addressed another note to the Korean government declaring that if Korea should ignore all warnings and persist in opening Yonampoh to foreign trade Russia will take active steps to deal with the situation. The Korean government has replied, strongly objecting to Russia's interference as a violation of Korea's sovereign rights. A communication to the same effect was sent to the Japanese minister at Seoul.

A semi-official Russian agency at St. Petersburg has received from Tokyo a report to the effect that Japanese warships have been despatched to the Korean coast, the Russian war vessels, Tsarsvitch and Bayan, reaching Port Arthur to join the Russian squadron there.

PHILIPPINE DEVELOPMENT.

Government Makes Money on Loan.

Tariff Reduction Favored.

The development of the Philippine islands during the past year, together with a review of pending questions of importance relation to the archipelago, is contained in the annual report of Colonel Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs of the war department, made public. By January 1, next, the new fiscal system will be in complete operation. The proceeds of the same of two issues of bonds were deposited and drew interest at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent, so the Government actually made money by going into debt.

Colonel Edwards emphasizes the necessity of a reduction of the Dingley tariff rates for the encouragement of trade between the United States and the Philippines.

Colonel Edwards next dwells on the advantages expected to be derived when American vessels will be more generally used in the carrying trade. He says that now, of 4,125 boats engaged in coastwise trade of the islands, only 22 are American ships.

A DESPERATE ATTEMPT.

Counterfeiter Endangers Four Lives to Escape Arrest.

Jediah Grant, a nephew of Heber J. Grant, the Mormon apostle and alleged polygamist, who is now a fugitive from justice, was arrested in Salt Lake after a thrilling chase, on a charge of passing counterfeit money. Grant put three girl friends in peril of death in order to escape from the police.

Policeman Davies ran across Grant, who was in a carriage with three young women, and promptly arrested him. The latter invited the policeman to enter the carriage, saying he would drive to the city jail.

Hardly had Davis got in the carriage before Grant leaped out and closed the door. Then he jerked the reins from the driver, struck the horses a heavy blow and sent them down the street at express train speed. After running four blocks the vehicle was smashed into bits against a telephone pole, the girls just escaping with their lives.

Grant was captured two hours later at the home of a friend. He jumped from the second-story window of the house, but was seized and overpowered before he could again escape.

MUST WORK OR STARVE.

Radical Measures in the Education of the Red Man.

The annual report of Commissioner of Indian Affairs William A. Jones advocates the education of the Indian in the rudiments of the English language and that he be taught that he must work or starve. The commissioner thinks this policy in a generation or more will regenerate the race, and that the Indian should be protected only to the extent that he may gain confidence in himself, leaving nature and civilized conditions to do the rest.

There were 257 Indian schools in operation during the year, the enrollment being 12,357 and employees numbered 2,282.

Mr. Jones strongly denounces the "sun" and other "religious" dances of the Indians, and says that sworn reports of eye-witnesses of these performances show they are revolting in the extreme.

A total of $757,173 has been paid to the Indians for their inherited lands under the act of May 27, 1902.

PRaised THE GREAT WHITE MOTHER

ELOQUENT EULOGIES OF RED MEN

Good Work of Harriet Maxwell Converse Remembered by Big Chiefs of the Six Nations.

In the presence of many representatives of the people to whom she had devoted her life the last rites were performed at New York Sunday over the body of Mrs. Harriet Maxwell Converse, "The Great White Mother" of the six nations of the great Iroquois confederacy. Eulogies were pronounced by the dead woman's pastor and by the chiefs of the various clans of the Seneca nation, by whom Mrs. Converse was adopted when but a little girl, and one of the chiefs performed the ancient rite of the "passing of the horns," which consisted of taking the string of sacred wampum beads, the insignia of office, from the neck of the casket, and presenting them to Joseph Keppler, long associated with Mrs. Converse in her work among the Indians, by which act Mr. Keppler was nominated by the chiefs present as the successor of the dead woman. Mr. Keppler adopted by the Senecas many years ago, bears the name of Gy-On-Wa-Ka, or "The Planter."

In addition to the delegates from the six nations there were present representatives of the Hurons, Sioux, Algonquins, Aztecs of Mexi-o and several other tribes. Dr. Thomas H. Hill, of St. Chrysostom's chapel, the woman's pastor, read the Episcopal service for the dead, after which William Crow, a Seneca warrior, made a brief address in his native tongue.

Chauncey Abrams, a Seneca, acting for Chief Corn Planter, lifted the "horns" from the casket, and, presenting them to Mr. Keppler, informed him he had been selected to take the great White Mother's office. Turning to the coffin he said: "I wish you, Ga-le-Wa-Noh, a safe and happy journey to the spirit land."

Mr. Keppler accepted the ancient "horns," promising to faithfully administer the trust imposed in him by his red brethren. Chief Corn Planter, wearing a red sash, the badge of the high priest of the Gon-Of-Dia "religion," expressed his grief in broken English, while tears streamed down his face.

Addresses were also made by Dark Cloud, Chief Longfellow, Morris Leigh, and Carlos, an Aztec Indian from Mexico.

A BIG DEATH TRAP.

Thirteen Miners Killed by Explosion of Gas in Arkansas.

Thirteen miners were killed and great damage was done by an accidental explosion of gas in coal mine No. 20 at Bonanza, Ark., 12 miles from Fort Smith. At nightfall only six of the victims had been recovered.

When the explosion occurred there were about 175 men in the various shafts. All escaped without injury except the 13 who were employed in entry "K," the scene of the explosion. The force of the explosion was terrific and timbers were torn from the walls of the passages for several hundred yards at the mouth of entry "K."

The passages were so completely obstructed that the work of rescuing the entombed men was tedious in the extreme and several hours were consumed before the first body was found.

Bliss, counsel for the company, and the executive board of the local union of the strikers. The only important concession made by the company was an agreement to reinstate all of the strikers.

Treasury Deficit Growing.

The deficit thus far in the fiscal year amounts to $4,236,110, and appears to be the result of a falling off in customs revenues. For the same period of last year the customs receipts amounted to $122,925,694, while this year they are $119,252,579, a decrease of about $3,673,115. Sugar and steel are the two imports which show the largest decrease. The Cuba sugar imports being much below last year. # GREAT FLOOD IN RUSSIA.

Twenty Thousand Persons Driven into the Streets Destitute.

The flood which has caused so much damage in St. Petersburg was the biggest since 1824. The intense cold is causing much distress among the homeless and the dwellers in cellars. In the factory quarter 20,000 persons have been driven into the streets, many of them losing their all.

The authorities are doing everything in their power to relieve the sufferers and there have been few fatalities. A pathetic case was that of parents, burying home at the sound of warning guns, who found their children drowned. The destruction of property was heavy, especially at Cronstadt. The rats and barges in the river were smashed and the live stock in the environs drowned.

The strangest freak of the flood occurred at the cemetery, where coffins were washed out of graves and floated away.

The czar has donated $5,000 in aid of those who have been reduced to destitution by the floods.

Surrounded and Captured After a Hard Fight—One of Their Pur-suers Killed.

Chained wrist to wrist, their hair matted with dried blood, their clothing covered with dust and dirt—two beardless boys, Peter Niedermeyer and Harvey Van Dine, sat in the presence of Mayor Harrison and Chief of Police O'Neil, of Chicago, calmly confessing to their share in a three-months' career of crime which has included nine murders, the wounding of five men and a long series of robberies. The two young bandits, neither of whom is over 21 years old, together with their companion, Emil Roenkli, who is no older, were captured near Liverpool, Ind., after a fight in which they battled against policemen, railroad detectives, railroad laborers and farmers. One man was killed, another fatally wounded and all three of the young bandits were wounded, but not seriously. The casualties are: T. J. Sovey, brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad; Joseph Driscoll, detective on Chicago police force, shot through abdomen and gave life only a short time; Matthew Zimmer, detective on Chicago police force, shot in head and arm.

Niedermeyer was wounded in the hand by bird shot; Van Dine was similarly injured, and sustained in addition a flesh wound in the left thigh. Roenkli was shot in the right hip. His wound is the most serious of any inflicted upon the three men, but was not sufficiently serious to prevent him from traveling a long distance after receiving it.

The three men were wanted by the police for complicity in the murders at the car barns of the Chicago City Railroad Company on August 30, when two men were killed, a third badly wounded and $2,250 stolen from the company. # REVIEW OF TRADE.

Retail Trade Improves with Opening of Winter—Railway Earnings Show Increase in Traffic.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s "Weekly Review of Trade" says: Seasonable temperature and holiday purchases stimulated retail trade, making results more satisfactory during the past week than at any recent date. Another encouraging feature was the resumption of work at many mills, although there is still much idle machinery, especially in the textile and iron industries. Thousands of operatives are idle because of the shut-down at a number of paper mills. In view of the numerous wage reductions there is noteworthy harmony between employers and workers, indicating that labor leaders appreciate the necessity of sharing in the readjustment.

Grain shipments increased with the approaching close of navigation on the lakes, and freight traffic was subjected to the greatest pressure of the season. But there is less than the customary complaint of delay. Railway earnings for three weeks of November averaged 5.2 per cent larger than last year. It is at last possible to perceive an improvement in the demand for pig iron, due to the extension of supplies by consumers, the extent of reduction in output, and absence of further price concessions.

Business is by no means brisk, nor is there any expectation of activity during the remaining weeks of this year, yet there is evidence of returning confidence with the lapse of time. Makers of structural shapes are looking forward to a resumption of building operations that were demoralized and discontinued because of contentions between employers and wage-earners. Fallura this week numbered 258 in the United States, against 213 last year, and 14 in Canada, compared with 16 a year ago.

Bradstreet's says: Wheat, including flour, exports for the week ending November 26 aggregate 3,851,767 bushels, against 2,974,277 last week and 4,179,685 this week last year. For 21 weeks of the cereal year they aggregated 68,727,795 bushels, against 109,437,911 in 1902. Corn exports this week aggregate 1,520,941 bushels, against 1,391,625 last week and 255,174 a year ago. For 21 weeks they aggregate 24,503,533 bushels, against 2,643,354 in 1902.
