

Official - W. Reynoldsville.

AN ORDINANCE regulating all telegraph, telephone, electric light and electric railway poles and the taxation and inspection of the same, etc., in the streets, lanes and alleys of the Borough of West Reynoldsville.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Town Council of the Borough of West Reynoldsville, in council assembled and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, that whenever permission shall have been granted by council to any firm, corporation or individual to construct a line of telegraph, telephone, electric light or electric railway poles in or upon any street, lane, alley or public square of the Borough of West Reynoldsville, it shall be the duty of the said firm, corporation or individual, before any poles shall be erected, to submit to the Street Committee and Borough Clerk, a written application specifying the number and size of poles intended to be erected and designate the places where the same are to be inserted and if no objections are made thereto, it shall be the duty of the Borough Clerk to issue a license to said applicant for the erection of the specified poles at the designated places of insertion; in case of objections being made to the whole or any part of such application, it shall be the duty of the Street Committee to hear the same and grant the license with the application or with such conditions and modifications to secure the purposes of this ordinance as the case may require. No poles shall be newly erected without the license granted by the Street Committee, certified by the Clerk, shall have been previously obtained therefor, as provided by this section, and for every such license so granted there shall be paid to the Borough Treasurer, the sum of fifty cents for each pole.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Street Committee to cause a thorough inspection to be made at least once every year of all telegraph, telephone, electric light or electric railway poles erected within the corporate limits of the Borough of West Reynoldsville and if any pole shall be found defective from any cause, they shall notify the corporation, firm or individual owning such pole who shall forthwith replace the same with a sound pole, and if the said owner refuses or neglects to replace such defective poles within forty-eight hours after receiving such notification, he, they or it shall be liable to a fine of five dollars for each and every day during which said neglect or refusal shall continue, to be collected as debts of like amount are now by law recoverable.

Section 3. All telegraph, telephone, electric light and electric railway poles now erected or hereafter to be erected in the Borough of West Reynoldsville, individual or corporation, shall be designated by the names or initials of such owner, and each of such poles shall bear a distinctive number, together with the names or initials and the number shall be legibly marked in oil paint upon the poles so designated; it shall be the duty of every such owner or owners annually on the first Monday of January in each year, to make application to the Street Committee and Clerk for a license to maintain the poles heretofore erected for the ensuing year, specifying the poles to be maintained by their proper designation as provided for in this section, and the Street Committee shall cause the Clerk to issue a license to such applicants, which shall authorize the maintenance of the poles designated in the application only for a period of one year from the first day of January next ensuing the date of said application and the charge of issuing such a license shall be the sum of fifty cents for each and every pole authorized to be maintained thereby and shall be paid to the Borough Treasurer for the use of the Borough.

Section 4. No telegraph, telephone, electric light or electric railway pole shall be maintained within the corporate limits of the Borough of West Reynoldsville, without an annual license for the maintenance of the same shall have been previously granted in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of this ordinance. Any privilege heretofore granted by resolution or ordinance for the erection or maintenance of poles for any of said purposes are hereby repealed. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine of five dollars for each and every pole so maintained without a license, to be recovered as debts of like amount are now by law recoverable.

Section 5. By complying with the provisions and requirements of this ordinance, the privilege heretofore granted to individuals, corporations or companies by resolution or ordinance shall not be in any way affected.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Ordained and enacted this 2nd day of November, A. D., 1903.

HENRY HERPEL, Pres. of Town Council.
PHILIP KOEHLER, Clerk of Council.
Approved this 14th day of November, A. D., 1903. WM. M. BURGE, Chief Burgess.

Happiness falls to our share in separate detached bits, and those of us who are wise content ourselves with these broken fragments.—Beatrice Harraden.

Noisy fellows are always wedded to their own opinions, weak fellows to the opinions of others. The perfect man, conscious of his intellectual limitations, is content with aspirations.—Harold Regbie.

With men you must take your choice—liberty for your mind and a prison for your body, liberty for your body and a prison for your mind. Nearly all people choose the latter. We know what becomes of the few who do not.—James Lane Allen.

The Birds of Paradise.

Probably no famous bird has a smaller habitat than the bird of paradise, whose beautiful feathers are so highly prized in the millinery trade. No one knows why the varieties of this beautiful bird are confined to the island of New Guinea and the neighboring coasts of Australia. There are many other islands not far away where the conditions would seem to be equally favorable to their existence, but they are not found among them.

Quite as Satisfactory.

"I want to ask you something, Grace," said the beautiful heiress. "What is it, Duckie?" the duke inquired.

"Would you object if I should request the minister to omit the word 'obey' from the service when we are married?"

"Certainly not. He can just make it 'love, honor and supply.'"—Chicago Record-Herald.

To Get Rid of Rats.

After all other remedies fail, there still remains a way of getting rid of rats, and that is by depriving them of water. They can live for a very long time without food and when hard pressed will not hesitate to eat each other, but no rat can go twenty-four hours without drink. Therefore if every possible means of obtaining water is taken from the rats they will desert the vicinity.

Very Pathetic.

"What can be more pathetic," said the sentimental woman, "than a man who has loved and lost?" "Well," replied the man of experience, "a fellow who has bet on a sure thing and lost cuts quite a figure in the pathetic line."—Chicago Record-Herald.

AN ORDINANCE granting the Jefferson Traction Company the right to lay street car tracks on certain streets and alleys mentioned in section one.

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Town Council of the Borough of Reynoldsville, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same that the consent to the said council is hereby given to the Jefferson Traction Company, a corporation chartered by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to construct, maintain and operate a passenger street railway by the use of electric power, or power other than steam or horse power as may from time to time be determined with the necessary apparatus and mechanical fixtures for applying and operating the same and for that purpose to enter upon and occupy Deitz Alley from Bradford street west to Eighth street or Charles street and Eighth or Charles street from Deitz Alley to Jackson street, with single track with the necessary sidings, turnouts and switches, if post and poles are erected to maintain and operate electric system for the supply of motive power, said erection is to be subject to reasonable regulations by the Borough Council for the public convenience and safety. Subject however to all the limitations and conditions as reserved by the Borough Ordinance, No. 79, granting the right of way to the Piquette Street Passenger Railway Company.

Section 2. Any ordinance or part of ordinance conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance is hereby repealed so far as the same effects this ordinance.

Ordained and enacted into a law in Council this 6th day of Oct. A. D., 1903.

A. M. APPELATE, President of Council.
L. J. MCENTIRE, Clerk of Council.
Approved this 14 day of November, A. D., 1903. L. M. SIMMONS, Chief Burgess

Comparative Ages of Animals.

Q.—What is the age of a field mouse?
A.—A year. And the age of a hedgehog is three times that of a mouse, and the life of a dog is three times that of a hedgehog, and the life of a horse is three times that of a dog, and the life of a man is three times that of a horse, and the life of a goose is three times that of a man, and the life of a swan is three times that of a goose, and the life of a swallow is three times that of a swan, and the life of an eagle is three times that of a swallow, and the life of a serpent is three times that of an eagle, and the life of a raven is three times that of a serpent, and the life of a hart is three times that of a raven, and an oak grows 500 years and fadeth 500 years.—Philadelphia North American.
