The Druggist.

A Little of Everything.

Fifteen days until leap year.
"Pit" is a new game that is becoming popular.
There are ten pages to THE STAR
this week.
Time to begin to think about your New Year resolutions.
There are some fine displays of Christmas goods in town.
A sleighing party of young people at this place drove to DuBois Saturday evening.
Dr. Fox will not only entertain you to-night but he will also give you much food for thought.
From now until Christmas the postoffice and express offices will do a rushing business.
A subscription to THE STAR one year would make an appreciative Christmas present for a friend.
Hear Dr. D. F. Fox lecture on "A Neglected Cavalier." He will delight you with his wit and oratory.
The first of the year is the time for settling all accounts. Don't forget your newspaper subscription.
Ten glassworkers of this place attended a meeting of glassworkers at Falls Creek Saturday afternoon.
"A Neglected Cavalier" is the subject of Dr. Fox's lecture to-night. He is a first-class lecturer. Hear him.
A year's subscription to THE STAR makes an acceptable Christmas gift to a friend interested in Reynoldsville.
The jury commissioners filed the jury wheel last week with 605 names for service during 1904.
The DuBois Courier and Express are having a "scrap" over the purity of the water supply of that town.
The Clearfield county teachers' institute will be held at Clearfield next week, beginning Dec. 21 and closing on 25th.
In the present session of congress there are eight Smiths in the House of Representatives, but only a Smith in the Senate.
Congressman Smith has presented a bill in congress for an increase of pensions for Robert L. Miles and Jacob Hanninger of this place.
Rev. A. J. Meek, pastor of Baptist church, will preach on the "Reasonableness of the Christian Religion" next Sunday evening.

Dr. S. Reynolds has been critically ill the past week. He is now much better.
An article on the glass situation will be found on the last page of THE STAR
this week.
A Winchester repeating rifle was won last week by J. M. King at the shooting gallery. Score 25.
A man named Joseph Miller had both legs and both arms broken by falling from the bucket in shaft at Sykesville Monday noon.
Dr. Fox is a clear thinker, a man of broad culture and of rare power on the platform. Go to Assembly hall this evening to hear him.
P. B. Rhodes, the butcher, will discontinue his meat market to-morrow and open a restaurant. It will be called the Palace Restaurant.
The annual banquet of Mystic Commandery No. 313, Improved Order Knights of Malta, will be held on the evening of December 30, 1903, at eight o'clock.
Congressman W. O. Smith of this district has been appointed on two committees in the House of Representatives, Reform in Civil Service and Militia.
The winter season does not begin until the 22nd of this month. However, we have had about four weeks of solid winter weather, including some good sleighbing.
The separate rooms of the West Reynoldsville school will render a short program on Friday afternoon of this week.
Teachers and pupils will appreciate the presence of the parents.

years 185, number of deaths 13, number of births 2.
S. Taylor North, of Young township, who was a candidate two years ago for the Republican nomination for Assembly, but was not the winner at that time, although a strong candidate, was a caller at THE STAR office last Friday.
Mr. North will be a candidate the second time for the nomination. He is now looking carefully after his political interests.
The Haskins-Davidson orchestra, comprising piano, violin, clarinet and trumpets will furnish the music for the ball to be given in the Wislaw park pavilion on the night of Christmas eve, December 24. Arthur Haskins, who is at present pursuing his musical studies in Potsdam, N. Y., will be home for the holidays, thereby completing the orchestra.

Dividend Declared.
A meeting of the directors of the Summersville Telephone Company was held at Punxsutawney yesterday and they declared a dividend of 10 per cent on all stock, payable January 1, 1904.

Fire Started at Glass Plant.
Monday the fire was started in the glass plant at this place and it is expected that plant will begin work by the first of the year, if not sooner.
The plant at Falls Creek will begin blowing on 26th. The men there will get market money Saturday of this week.

County Institute.
County Superintendent R. B. Teitrick, in speaking of the teachers' county institute to be held at Brookville the last of this month, says: "A special effort has been made to make this the most interesting and most pleasurable institute ever held in this county. The strongest, most practical, most popular talent available has been secured. Everyone on the program is a master in his line."

In Mercy Hospital.
Walter Stauffer, aged eighteen years, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B.
Stauffer of West Reynoldsville, was taken to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh on Thursday last week to be operated on for appendicitis. The operation was performed Friday, but was not a complete success and another operation will be necessary in about three weeks from time of first operation. Mrs.
Stauffer is in Pittsburgh with her son.

Moved to Falls Creek.
William Dougherty, a highly esteemed and successful farmer of Paradise, sold his farm last August to Oscar Shaffer, built himself a new dwelling house at Falls Creek, where he moved a few days ago. Mr. Dougherty has a son, Dr. J. C. Dougherty, who is in business at Falls Creek, is why he moved to that place. The people of Falls Creek will find Mr. Dougherty an excellent citizen, a man of integrity, whose word is as good as a bond.

Keep the Water Pure.
The terrible scourge that Butler is now suffering from, caused by impure water, has aroused the people over the country and the water supplies for towns and cities are being carefully looked after. We now have a supply of good water and the water company is using all possible precaution to keep it pure. There is a communication on the last page of this issue of THE STAR from the secretary of water company requesting the assistance of the people in keeping pollution out of the water supply. Read it and do your part.

Accident at Soldier.
Monday noon four carpenters had some work to do near the big engine at Big Soldier mine and they stuck a beam in the drive-wheel of engine to make it doubly safe to do their work.
In some manner the powerful monster was given steam and the beam was broken and the engine started. Four men were knocked down and two narrowly escaped having their brains knocked out. H. T. Blose, W. P.
Dickey, Rouché and Tush were the men knocked down. Blose and Tush were badly injured.

Miss Ella E. Seely will have her display of fancy work on exhibition Saturday, Dec. 19, at Millirens department store. Will have painted turn over collars more fashionable this year than last. Call and see them.

Ridgway Has a Daily.
By an oversight last week we neglected to mention that Ridgway has a sprightly new daily paper. The Record is the name of the daily and it is edited by our old time friend, Postmaster W.
H. Baker of Ridgway. With being editor of a weekly paper, Ridgway Advocate, and postmaster, we should think Bro. Baker had grief enough for one mortal without adding a daily paper to the list. May the Record prosper.

Lecture Free.
Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will deliver his great lecture, "John Ruskin's Message to the Twentieth Century," at the Jefferson county Teachers' institute in the Belvedere opera house, Brookville, at 8.00 p. m., Tuesday, December 29. Prof.
Teitrick has engaged Dr. Hillis to appear at this time to compensate for the disappointment occasioned by his being unable to keep his evening engagement last year. Admittance free for this lecture.

Holiday Shopping.
Never, in the history of our town, has there been such a large and fine line of holiday goods displayed by our merchants as they are displaying this year.
Any person a little skeptical concerning this statement will soon be convinced that it is correct by visiting the stores of town. It is not necessary for shoppers to go or send out of town for Christmas presents. You can buy toys or cheap presents and you can also buy a fine suit, silk hat, seal skin sacque, gold watch, diamond ring, cut glass, china dishes, bed room suit, in fact most anything you desire. Visit the stores, see the goods, patronize the home merchants and be happy.

The Opening Number.
The public school lecture course opened Friday night under very auspicious circumstances. The attendance was as large, and possibly larger, than any previous year and not a single selection of "Roney's Boys" passed without hearty appreciative applause. The concert was unique, the lads composing the quartette being all under thirteen years of age. Under direction of Prof.
Roney however they gave a first class entertainment. Varied costumes were worn by the boys, among them being military uniforms, 16th century court costumes, cardinal college gowns and most striking of all, Scottish Highland tartans. The instrumental music—violin, flute, fife and organ chimes—was even better than the vocal.

Christmas Presents by Express.
All packages to go out by Adams Express on the 22nd, 23rd and 24th of December must be in the express office not later than 10.30 a. m. on the above dates to insure that the package will go out on the afternoon of the day it is taken to express office.

Open New Restaurant.
On Thursday I will discontinue my meat market and on Saturday, December 19, will open a first-class restaurant in the room now used for meat market.
It will be known as Palace Restaurant.
Public patronage solicited.
P. B. RHODES.

Pie Social.
There will be a pie social and festival at the old Baptist church at Prescott-ville on Tuesday evening, Dec. 22nd, 1903. Everybody cordially invited.
Proceeds for Oscar Tapper and family.

Meeting Fire Co.
At 8.15 p. m., to-morrow there will be a meeting of Hope Fire Co. to elect officers.

Dr. Fox has the hearty endorsement of Col. Bain, Robert McIntyre, Hillis' Wendling, Hedley and other prominent lecturers. Be sure to hear him to-night.

From Friday, Dec. 18 until Dec. 25

Married in Ohio.
At the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Root on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock the rite was performed by Rev. A. C. Miller, D. D., which united in holy matrimony, Mr. Harley H.
Fate, of Plymouth, and Miss Anabel Lawton, of Reynoldsville, Pa. Both the contracting parties are well known to our residents. Mr. Fate is the senior member of the firm of the J. D.
Fate Co., a wide-awake, progressive man who enjoys the respect and esteem of his fellows. The bride has by brief stays in our midst won her way into the hearts of the people by her charming personality. The pride of the groom in the success of his matrimonial venture is quite justifiable.—Plymouth, Ohio, Advertiser, Dec. 12, 1903.

The bride was trimmer for Miss Sayers in this place.

Public Installation.
Tuesday evening of last week the Daughters of Rebekah held public installation in the I. O. O. F. hall. There was a large number present. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served after the installation. The following officers were installed: N. G., Mrs.
Emma Burgeson; V. G., Mrs. Jennie Barclay; Secretary, Mrs. Maggie Moore; Treasurer, Mrs. Ella
Evans; Warden, Mrs. Clara Shick; Chaplain, Mrs. Minnie Herpel; Conductor, Mrs. Jennie Womeldorf; I. G., Mrs. Dea Burgh; O. G., Mrs. Mary Herold; R. S. N. G., J. K. Womeldorf; L. S. N. G., Mrs. Mabel Ridgeway; R.
S. V. G., Gus Herold; L. S. V. G., Mrs.
Carrie Herpel; R. S. S., Mrs. Austin.

Hit in Eye With Snowball.
John Pomroy, jr., was hit in the eye with a snow ball while going through Rathmel last Saturday with a sleighing party to DuBois. He had a narrow escape from losing his eye. Rathmel, like other towns, has a number of boys that think it is good fun to snowball sleighbing parties. It is a mean and dangerous practice. Boys of Reynoldsville do the same thing.

Visited Falls Creek Lodge.
Thursday evening of last week District Deputy Mrs. Annie Winslow, S.
J. Austin and wife, Mrs. Charles A.
Herpel, Mrs. Henry W. Herpel and Mrs. Edith Philippi drove to Falls Creek and installed new officers in the Daughters of Rebekah lodge at that place.

B. R. & P. R.'s Clerical Orders.
Clerical orders for the year 1904 will be issued by the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh R'y Co. as in former years to ordained clergymen having regular charge of churches located on or near the line of its road. Application blanks will be furnished by ticket agents of the company and should be forwarded to the General Passenger Agent at Rochester, N. Y., as early as possible and in no case later than Dec. 25th.
No orders will be issued except on individual application of clergymen, made on blanks furnished by the company, and certified to by one of its agents.

Dr. Fox's Lecture To-Night.
The plot of Assembly hall for Dr.
Fox's lecture this evening is at H. Alex Stoke's drug store. Arrangements for reservations should be forwarded to the subject of "A Neglected Cavalier" will begin at 8.30 o'clock. The doors will be opened at 7.45. There will be special music before the lecture.

Card of Thanks.
We hereby express our heartfelt and sincere thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy in time of great sorrow—the occasion of death of our husband and father.
