A Little of Everything.

Did you make New Year resolutions? How about those New Year resolutions? Criminal court opens at Brookville next Monday. Mrs. Willis Hoon, of Monessen, has typhoid fever. Frozen water pipes were not uncommon yesterday morning. A little daughter arrived at home of W. A. Loding Christmas. There is some talk of a plate glass plant locating at Reynoldsville. "Is it cold enough for you?" was a common interrogation Monday. It is claimed that there is almost three feet of snow in the woods. The Utopia Society held a social at C. R. Hall's New Year's evening. Rev. Headley will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday evening at 7.30. Twenty new members were initiated in the Protected Home Circle at this place Monday night. Richard P. Bowen moved his family from this place to Crabtree, Westmoreland county, last week. Evangelist Joseph E. Kirkwood preached in the Reynoldsville Baptist church Sunday evening. A. S. Harmon, brother-in-law of Dr. A. H. Bowser, moved from Kittanning to Reynoldsville this week. Miss Alice Mitchell entertained a number of young friends at her home on Grant street Monday evening. Ira S. Smith, of this place, has been appointed traveling fireman on the entire B. & F. railroad system. Benjamin Jones, who was working at Big Soldier, fell off a ladder one day last week and broke a rib on his right side. Nice clear ice fifteen inches thick is now being put in the ice houses at this place. Jack Frost is making a big ice crop. The students that were home for holiday vacation have returned to the various colleges, universities and preparatory schools. The week of prayer is being observed three nights in the Methodist Episcopal church this week, last night, tonight and Thursday night.

Wednesday evening of last week Miss Lillian Harries entertained a number of young friends at her home on Hill street. Robert S. Williams, a carpenter of West Reynoldsville, fell across a rafter several days ago and broke a rib on his right side. Peter Welsch, a blower at glass plant, had his left wrist badly cut Friday while assisting his snapper to handle a large cylinder. Dr. Gibson's large and increasing practice speaks for his ability and careful work. See him if your eyes need care. See dates. Arthur Barclay, who has been working near Smithport, Indiana Co., several months, has returned to his home in this place. W. M. Wetzel, a farmer residing near Emerickville, lost a valuable cow one day last week. The cow slipped on ice and broke her neck. Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Bowser gave a small party Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bowser before they returned to Pittsburg. This has certainly been an old-fashioned winter. We have had fifty days of continuous winter, with fairly good sleighing most of that time. A fellow, who was looking for trouble, was knocked down in the P. R. R. station Saturday afternoon by a traveling man whom he was annoying. Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church, and Rev. C. W. Miner, of Punxsutawney, exchanged pulpits Sunday evening. Fred Biggle fell several weeks ago and broke one of his ribs. The bandage was only off a short time until he fell and broke the rib the second time. There was a small blaze at Frank's Tavern this morning. The fire alarm was sounded but the fire was extinguished with a few buckets of water. Dr. A. J. Meek and Evangelist Joseph E. Kirkwood, both of this place, are holding special meetings in the Church of God at Rathmel this week. Mrs. F. H. Gallagher, of Hill street, will give instructions Saturday afternoon in crayon, pastel and water color work to persons desiring such instructions. The concert given by the Western Star Jubilee Singers at the Methodist church on Dec. 28, was fairly well attended and those present enjoyed the entertainment. C. R. Hall and wife entertained the Golden Gate Club at their home Thursday evening of last week. Elegant refreshments were served. "Pit" was the amusement of the evening. Rev. C. W. Miner, pastor of the M. E. church at Punxsutawney, delivered the address at the men's meeting in the rooms of the Young Men's Reading Association Sunday afternoon. The members of the Knights of the Golden Eagles held a banquet in Bell's hall New Year's eve, to which the members of the Ladies Temple and friends of the Eagles were invited. It was an enjoyable affair. The gas engines that furnish power in THE STAR and Volunteer printing offices both froze and burst their jackets on Sunday night, December 27, and both engines were crippled, but after under going an operation they were ready for service again. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of last week the Edwards Stock Co. entertained theatre goers at the Reynolds opera house, Thursday night, "The Moonshiner's Daughter" was the attraction, Friday night "In the Heart of Texas" and last night "Weary Willie." The two weeks' of school vacation ended Saturday and the boys and girls began to ascend the hill of difficulty again on Monday to the office where knowledge is dispensed. Coasting and skating was fine during the vacation and the pupils took advantage of the snow and ice. Rev. W. P. Graham, D. D., pastor of the Brookville M. E. church, preached at the watchnight services in the Reynoldsville M. E. church. The sermon was scholarly, earnest and much enjoyed by all present. Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Presbyterian church, participated in the watchnight service. Saturday afternoon, December 26, a small blaze in the second story of John H. Corbett's building next to Sutter's blacksmith shop, occupied by an Italian shoemaker, called out the fire company and about five hundred people, but a few buckets of water extinguished the blaze before the fire company were ready for work. A defective flue caused the excitement. Mrs. P. McDonald was at St. Mary's last week attending the funeral of her brother, Alois Wilhelm, who was drowned in a reservoir, or dam, at Clermont Dec. 26. It is not known how the accident happened, but the supposition is that Mr. Wilhelm was walking on a foot bridge over the reservoir, which he had to cross to get to his work, and that he slipped and fell in. His body was found in the reservoir. He was about 30 years old.

RESPIRE GRANTED. Aiello and Pallone Will Not be Executed January 12. Governor Pennypacker has granted a respite for John Battista Aiello and Michael Pallone, who were to have been executed at Brookville Tuesday of next week, January 12. Sheriff Curry had not been notified of the date of execution when THE STAR was put to press this morning. Mercantile Appraiser. The county commissioners have appointed A. B. Howard, of Ringgold township, mercantile appraiser for 1904. Snappy Weather. Monday morning it was from 30 to 34 degrees below zero in this section. At 9:00 a. m. it was still 24 degrees below zero. This morning it was only 16 degrees below zero. Butler Fund. Burgess Simmons has sent $84.00 to Butler that was raised by the committee appointed to solicit funds to aid the suffering people in Butler. We do not have a list of the names of those who have already subscribed to this fund and for that reason cannot publish list of subscribers. Will do Evangelistic Work. Joseph E. Kirkwood, who has been attending Moody's Bible Institute at Chicago, Ill., several terms, completed his studies at that institution and came to his home in this place for the holiday vacation. Mr. Kirkwood will go over in the neighborhood of Franklin, Pa., next week to assist in evangelistic work. Dangerous Place. The borough authorities should see that a railing is put up immediately on the north side of the east end of Main street Iron bridge. On a stormy night a pedestrian, especially a stranger, is liable to walk over the steep embankment into the creek. It is a very dangerous place and needs prompt attention. Sons of Veterans Rally. Monday, January 18th, the Sons of Veterans of Reynoldsville, New Bethlehem, Brookville, DuBois, Punxsutawney and Curwensville will hold a rally at Reynoldsville. If the weather is favorable will have a parade in the afternoon. All persons eligible to become Sons of Veterans are cordially invited to attend this rally. Arrangements will be made at the rally for the encampment this year. Home Wedding. At 4:00 p. m. to-day, January 6th, 1904, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Williams, in West Reynoldsville, Miss Annie S. Williams and Ralph D. Albright, step-son of Rev. J. C. McEntire, will be united in marriage in the presence of the members of the two families. Rev. McEntire will perform the ceremony. Both young people are well known in Reynoldsville and have a host of friends. THE STAR wishes them happiness and success. County Institute. The county teachers' institute held in Brookville last week was one of the best, if not the best, institute ever held in Jefferson county. Prof. Teitrick, our worthy county superintendent, deserves credit and praise for giving the teachers of the county the best talent obtainable for day instructors and evening entertainers. A very high standard has been set for the institutes in this county within the past few years, and it requires able instructors to come up to the expectations of the teachers. There were no disappointments last week, everything passed off pleasantly. Mitchell-Stawt Nuptials. David Mitchell, of Anita, and Miss Mary Stawt, of Soldier, were married at home of bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stawt, at 4.30 p. m., December 25, 1903, by Rev. Matthew Blair, of Anita, in the presence of a number of friends. Miss Belle Campbell was bridesmaid and Thomas Stawt, jr., was groomsmen. A wedding supper was served at 5.00 p. m. The bride received a number of presents. The following out of town guests were present: James Ingles and wife, Richard James and wife, John Lewis and wife, John Ingles, James Hellburn, John and William Mitchell, of Anita, Samuel Mitchell and son, of Glen Ritchey, Wm. Tyson and wife, of Reynoldsville. New Superintendent. Benjamin Sykes, cousin of our townsman, George W. Sykes, succeeds C. C. Ramsey as superintendent of the Elk Tanning Company tannery at Reynoldsville. Mr. Sykes took charge of the Reynoldsville tannery last Wednesday. He has had over twenty years experience in tannery work and is well qualified to superintend the tannery at this place. He was superintendent of the Curwensville tannery and from there went to Instantan, Elk county, two years ago and superintended the tannery at that place until transferred to Reynoldsville. Mr. Sykes moved to West Reynoldsville last week. His family consists of wife and two sons. The sons are students in the Dickinson Preparatory school at Carlisle, where they went Monday to take up their school work again after the holiday vacation.

A SHORT FIRE. Glass Plant Will Shut Down Saturday—Only Two Weeks' Run. The glass plant at this place, after an idleness of over eight months, began work Monday night of last week and will close at noon next Saturday for an indefinite period, which throws a number of needy men out of employment again. The window glass manufacturers made an effort to organize a selling agency, requiring 1,500 pots to make the agency a success, but they failed to get more than 1,300 pots in the agency and had to abandon the scheme. It was on the strength of the selling agency being a sure thing that the plant at this place was started and because it was abandoned the plant will be shut down. The Star Glass Company claims that to operate the plant under present conditions means a loss of $150.00 per day to the company. Married Under Holly Arch. Wednesday, December 30, 1903, a pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Siple in West Reynoldsville, when their daughter, Miss M. Mabel Siple, was united in marriage to James D. George, of Blairsville, Pa. Only members of the two families and a few friends were present. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Reynoldsville Baptist church, under a beautiful arch of holly. Miss Clara Siple, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Claude George, of Vandergrift, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. The bride was dressed in white silk mull, trimmed with medallion and chiffon. The bridesmaid was dressed in pink organdie, trimmed with ribbon and chiffon. It was a pretty bridal party. After congratulations a fine wedding dinner was served. The bride received a number of beautiful presents, consisting of cut glass, china, silver, linen, etc. Their many friends wish them a pleasant voyage through life. The out of town guests were Miss Nellie Hutchison, of Brookville, Prof. G. A. Isabel, of Deannville, John Siple and son, of Lanes Mill. Congregational Meeting. The annual congregational meeting was held in the Presbyterian church Monday evening of this week. D. H. Broakey was elected chairman, Frank P. Alexander was re-elected trustee for three years, M. E. Wood was re-elected secretary for another year, and a board of auditors was elected. This is the first time the congregation elected a board of auditors. The auditors elected are Fred J. Butler, Ninian Cooper and Joseph M. Hutchison. The congregation voted to have their charter changed to allow the congregational meeting to be held the first Monday of April each year instead of first Monday in January. The reason this change is desired is that the church year ends the first of April and it is difficult to get reports made out properly under the present system. The Malta Banquet. Last Wednesday evening was the occasion of the second annual banquet of the Ancient and Illustrious Order Knights of Malta. The Sir Knights and their ladies assembled at Frank's pavilion, where an elegant repast was served at ten o'clock. During the evening, while the Strauss orchestra discoursed sweet strains, the guests enjoyed themselves at various games until 12.30 when the happy throng slowly broke up and dispersed to their homes carrying away with them such memories of a most delightful evening as time cannot efface. Installed Monday Night. Monday night District Deputy D. W. Atwater installed the following officers in the Protected Home Circle at this place: President, B. R. Raymer; Vice-President, John Heemer; Guardian, Maggie Hall; Chaplain, Carrie Raymer, Guide, D. W. Strouse; Companion, Cora Burns; Porter, Mary Herold; Watchman, Rachel Guthrie; trustee 18 months, J. G. Muser; delegate to State Convention, A. F. Yost; Secretary, Luella Strouse. Moving the Bank. Seeley, Alexander & Co., bankers, will move their bank to-day from the corner of Main and Fifth streets to the new building next door to Shick & Wagner's store, two doors west of where the bank has been located for many years. A New Feed Store. Flour, feed, hay and straw in the building formerly occupied by Riggs' grocery, near the Main street bridge. Prices lower than any feed store in town. Call and give us a trial. M. J. BREMER, Proprietor. Madame May, famous palmist, by special request can be seen three days more at the Ross House. 25 and 50c. Consult her in business, love and marriage. Come to-day and to-morrow all who can. Dr. Gibson makes a specialty of children and young people's work. See him if troubled with headaches, blurring, &c. Cash store—smallest prices, Shick & Wagner. Boys' high cut shoes at Nolan's shoe store.

GONE TO HER REWARD. Mrs. Catherine North Died Jan. 4, 1904—Funeral To-day. At 1.00 a. m. Monday, Jan. 4, 1904, Mrs. Catherine North, relict of Daniel North, died at her home in McCalmont township—the North homestead—where she had resided almost three score years. Her death was caused by cancer of the stomach. About nine months ago Mrs. North had to undergo an operation in a Philadelphia hospital for cancer on left breast. After the operation she gained in flesh until she was heavier than she had ever been in her life, and her loved ones were very much encouraged. About three months ago she began failing and could not eat. She did not eat anything for twenty-two days before she died. She did not suffer much pain. Catherine Bell was the maiden name of the deceased. She was born on the Bell homestead, near Anita, November 7, 1828, making her 75 years old last November. About 55 years ago, Oct. 5, 1848, she was married to Daniel North, who died 12 years ago. Mr. North and wife began housekeeping on the farm where they both died. Mrs. North joined the Cumberland Presbyterian church a half century ago and was a faithful member of the church. Twelve children were born to Mr. and Mrs. North, ten of whom survive the parents, and are: James B. North, of Indiana, Mrs. M. E. Smith, of Punxsutawney, Scott North, of Anita, Mrs. W. R. Johnston, of Plumville, Mrs. Andrew McCright, of Punxsutawney, Mrs. J. B. Neale, of Reynoldsville, J. C. North, on old homestead, Mrs. J. B. Nichols, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. W. S. Calderwood, of Kane, and D. O. North, of Eleonora. Funeral service will be held at the old homestead at 10.00 a. m. to-day, conducted by Rev. H. G. Teagarden, Ph. D., of Punxsutawney, and interment will be made in the Zion cemetery. Mrs. North was an excellent woman. Wedding at Hamilton. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Henry, of Hamilton, Pa., was the scene of a happy wedding at high noon on Wednesday, Dec. 30, 1903, when their daughter, Miss Myrtle, was united in marriage to Dr. Clarke Monroe Smith, of Grange, Pa. The house was handsomely decorated in green and white festooning, and while the wedding march from Mendelssohn was being rendered by Miss Tessie Henry, the contracting parties appeared and took their places under an arch of white lilies, where Rev. J. R. Burrows, of Ringgold, united them in marriage. The bride was arrayed in a gown of white honietta, trimmed in panne velvet, wore a bridal veil and carried a bunch of cream white roses. Congratulations over, the company was served to a most sumptuous repast. The presents were both numerous and valuable. All the members of the families of both contracting parties were present, the Henry family, with their wives, husbands and children, especially swelling the crowd. These are as follows: D. L. Henry, Mrs. M. H. Smith and Dr. W. G. Henry, of Punxsutawney, W. C., S. C. and Dr. W. A. Henry, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Dr. P. P. Horner, of Cool Spring, and Misses Bertha and Tessie Henry at home. With the best wishes of a host of friends the young couple took the 3.35 p. m. train for a wedding tour to Pittsburg, Marion and Columbus, Ohio. A FRIEND. Katherine Ridgeway Concert Company. The Katherine Ridgeway Concert Company will come to Reynoldsville Friday evening, Jan. 29, as the third attraction of the public school lecture course. This company is composed of Miss Nellie Mae Brewster, who has a most "exceptional soprano voice and a most pleasing stage presence," Mr. U. S. Kerr, the popular basso, Mr. Lamberson, a skilled pianist, who recently has returned from Berlin where he studied under the leading musicians of that German city, and of Miss Katherine Ridgeway herself, whom the citizens of this place remember so well because of her most excellent recital last year. Miss Ridgeway, it is claimed, stands without a peer as a reader and this fact together with the three musicians makes the concert company exceptionally strong. The citizens of this place are looking forward to the coming of this attraction with a great deal of pleasure. Why Take the Risk? Of a lingering illness of cold or grippe, Reynolds' Perfect Cold Cure used in time will prevent it. Used any time will cure. Night school Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening at Reynoldsville Business College. Men's high cut lace rubbers at Nolan's shoe store for $1.85 a pair. Dr. Gibson has visited so long and been so successful that parties needing eyework cannot mistake in consulting him. See his dates. John H. Doubles, the butterine dealer, handles a high grade of butterine which he sells at 22 cents per pound. The people like it. Tarry brand of candee rubbers at Nolan's shoe store. It will be too late after the sale is over. Shick & Wagner.
