Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, assisted Dr. James Conway two evenings last week in special meetings in the Brookville Presbyterian church.

The Washington Township Sabbath School Association convention will be held in the M. E. church at Allens Mills Friday, January 22, beginning at 10.00 a. m. A good program has been arranged.

A DuBois man has secured a patent on a cheap fuel made from the refuse which is thrown away from coke ovens after the coke has been drawn. He claims to cheapen fuel one-half, and it is almost smokeless.

Standard P. R. R. scales that will weigh 5,000 pounds have been placed in the Pennsylvania baggage room at this place. The platform of the scales is level with the floor and baggage can be put on scales without much trouble.

Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church, will preach in the Brookville M. E. church next Sunday and Rev. H. H. Barr, of Brookport, will preach in the Reynoldsville M. E. church Sunday morning and evening.

A hotel man went into a store in Reynoldsville one day last week and inquired for glasses for "Tom and Jerry." The store keeper asked if they were twins, and wanted to know if skates or something else would not do in place of glasses.

Burning of soot out of the chimney in Meoy's fruit store about 7.40 a. m. Friday led some of the neighbors to think that the building was afire and the fire alarm was given, but before the fire company got half way to Meoy's they were informed that it was a false alarm.

A number of Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah of this place attended a banquet given at Falls Creek last night by the Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah at that place. The Reynoldsville people were well pleased with the warm welcome given them.

A number of old friends called at the home of J. H. McCaskey on Sunday, 10th inst., and jollifications of olden times were rehearsed. There were five plasterers present, H. Monteer and son, of Clarion, J. A. McCaskey, of Summersville, James Tallor, W. N. Kiney and J. H. McCaskey, of this place.

The Brookwayville Record, one of the up-to-date and progressive weekly papers of Jefferson county, has been changed from a seven to a six-column paper. The editor says the change was made necessary in order to print a greater number of pages at a time on the new cylinder press recently placed in the Record office.

The Summersville Telephone Co. line between Reynoldsville and Brookville "had a fit" Monday afternoon and yesterday forenoon and there was no communication between the two places over the Summersville line during that time. The operator in the central office at Reynoldsville is authority for the statement that the line "had a fit." There was something wrong.

Some of the Clearfield county papers that predicted during the fall campaign that Allison O. Smith, if elected judge of Clearfield county, would be a "whiskey judge," that is, would grant liquor license to all applicants, know by this time, as also do a number of the applicants, that Judge Smith will not grant liquor license promiscuously. Last week was license court week in Clearfield county and Judge Smith refused license to a number of applicants.

Driftwood loses another excellent family this week and also a very able school director. Conductor M. McMahon, Jr., who for thirty years has been a popular resident of this place, will to-day move his family to Reynoldsville. We are sorry to lose you, but the best of friends must part.—Driftwood Gazette. Mr. McMahon is a conductor on one of the local freight trains on the P. R. R. He moved into the old Presbyterian parsonage on Grant street.

Glass Plant Shut Down.

The glass plant at this place closed Saturday. The fire has been banked and some of the men think the plant will be started again this season.

Passenger Train Discontinued.

After next Sunday the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg passenger train due here at 1.25 p. m. and the train leaving here at 2.05 p. m. will be discontinued.

William is Hustling.

William T. Cox, Reynoldsville's candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly, is out hustling for support from the Republican voters. Mr. Cox says his chances are good this time for the nomination.

Another Myrtle Geist.

The Miss Myrtle M. Geist that was married in Brookville on December 25, 1903, was not the Miss Myrtle Geist that taught several terms in the schools of this borough, as stated by our contemporary last week.

Primary Election.

The local committee has appointed Saturday, January 30, from 3.00 until 8.00 p. m. as the time for holding the Republican primary election in this borough. Candidates are to be nominated as follows: Three councilmen, three school directors, one assessor, one auditor, one judge of election for each precinct, two inspectors of election for each precinct, and one register for each precinct.

Freight Wreck.

A westbound freight train on the P. R. R. was wrecked at Meredith, four miles west of Reynoldsville, Sunday night. A broken axle caused the wreck. Twelve cars were wrecked. The westbound passenger train due here at 6.31 a. m. and the eastbound due here at 11.32 a. m. were annulled Monday. Passengers on two of the morning trains were transferred at scene of wreck.

Mrs. Jas. Bond Dead.

Mrs. James L. Bond, of Brookwayville, niece of Ninian Cooper, of Reynoldsville, and daughter of N. B. Lane, of Lane's Mills, died Saturday night, January 9, 1904, from a complication of diseases. She had been ill sometime. Mrs. Bond was about forty years old. She is survived by her husband and two children, son 17 years old and daughter 14 years old. Funeral at Brookwayville at 10.00 a. m. yesterday.

Cocking Main.

A cocking main was held in Wishaw park yesterday, which was attended by a number of sports who like to see roosters fighting. The price of admission was $2.00. The birds were from Reynoldsville, Pittsburg and other places. The Pittsburg sports had gathered in a large sum of money, reported anywhere from $1,000 to $2,000, when Constable Leech of Rathmel made a raid on the cocking main and arrested a number of the fellows present. They were brought before Squire S. B. J. Saxton in this place and he imposed a fine of $6.00 apiece on the chaps.

Bank in New Room.

The Seelye, Alexander & Co. bank has moved into the new room, two doors west of old location, which was built especially for the bank by W. S. Ross. It is a neat and up-to-date bank room with modern bank fixtures of golden oak. The vault is large and solid. Steel safety boxes for benefit of customers will soon be placed in the vault. In rear of building is a good sized room that will be nicely furnished and will be used for a private office. The new room has all modern conveniences and is a very comfortable and cozy room for a bank, far ahead of the old room.

Will Not Vote on Bonding.

A few weeks ago it was stated in THE STAR that the town council would give the voters of this municipality an opportunity at the February election to say by ballot whether the indebtedness of the borough should be increased for paving purposes or not. By referring to minutes of last meeting of council, which will be found in this issue, it will be seen that council has decided not to submit the bonding question to the voters at February election. The councilmen seem to be of the opinion that a better way to get the streets paved is for the property owners to petition council for what street paving they want and the property owners thus petitioning to pay two-thirds cost of paving portion of street petitioned for.

R. H. Longwell for Assembly.

R. H. Longwell, of Brookwayville, a candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly, was in Reynoldsville last week looking after his political interests. Mr. Longwell was born in Polk township, Jefferson county, and is of Scotch-Irish descent. He is the son of Cunningham Longwell. He was principal of the Brookwayville public schools several terms and is now engaged in the insurance business. The Brookwayville Record, Mr. Longwell's home paper, says: "As a man of ability and energy Mr. Longwell is, as all his acquaintances know, one of the foremost of the county's young men. That he is a man of honor and clean record will also serve him to good advantage in his political aspirations."

Another Date for Execution.

It was mentioned in THE STAR last week that Gov. Pennypacker had granted a respite for Aiello and Pallone, the two Italians who were to have been executed at Brookville yesterday, Jan. 12th, but at time THE STAR was put to press last week Sheriff Curry did not know the date of execution, which has been fixed for Tuesday, February 23rd, at 12.00 noon. It is only a conjecture with the officials at Brookville as to what influence was brought to bear on the Governor that he granted a respite. It is stated by some that a petition was presented to the Governor asking for the respite, while others report that the Italian Consul at Philadelphia requested a respite until after the Board of Pardons meets. The board will hold two meetings before the time fixed for the execution, January 20 and February 17.

Aiello and Pallone are feeling very jubilant over the respite, and they hope to have their sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

Farewell Reception—New Assistant.

Father P. T. Miller, who assisted Father T. Brady in the Catholic parish in Reynoldsville fifteen months, has been transferred to Warren, Pa., where he went last Friday morning to enter upon the work at his new appointment. Thursday evening Father Miller was given a farewell reception in the rooms in basement of the parochial school building. The L. C. B. A. and C. M. B. A. had charge of the reception, which was largely attended. Refreshments were served and Father Miller was presented with a well filled purse. During Rev. Miller's stay in Reynoldsville he made many warm friends who were sorry to see him leave here, yet they are glad that the change is a promotion for him.

Father James Carpenter, of Warren, has been sent to Reynoldsville to assist Father Brady. He arrived here Friday and conducted the Sunday service in the Catholic church. Father Carpenter is a bright young man.

Pleasant Social Event.

The largest and most delightful social event that has taken place in Reynoldsville for some time was given by Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Robinson at their beautiful home on Grant street last evening. There were about seventy-five persons present. Progressive domino was the main amusement of the evening. J. O. Johns and Mrs. Thomas D. Hoon were the prize winners. About eleven o'clock fine refreshments were served and at the midnight hour the guests began their departure for their respective homes after assuring Mr. and Mrs. Robinson that they had enjoyed a most delightful evening. The out of town guests were: G. W. Robinson, of Tionesta, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mandorff, Mrs. Laura Brewer, Mrs. L. H. Young, of Punxsutawney, Mrs. Elizabeth Stone Robinson, of Beaver, Pa., Mrs. C. S. Aldrich and daughter, Caroline, of Steubenville, Ohio.

Loc 1 Institute.

On Saturday, January 23rd, the public school teachers of Brookville, Punxsutawney and Lindsey will meet with the Reynoldsville teachers in Assembly Hall and hold a local institute. An interesting program has been prepared for both morning and afternoon sessions, and all patrons and friends of education are especially invited to attend the afternoon meeting. The program, which will be printed in full next week, will be interspersed with musical selections by local musicians.

Criminal Court.

Criminal court opened at Brookville Monday with Judge Reed on the bench. Hon. C. R. Vashinder, of Brookville, was appointed foreman of the grand jury; F. R. Crawford constable in charge of grand jury. Tipstaves: Emanuel Thomas, of Beaver township, H. E. Bargerstock, of Bell township, Samuel J. Stormer, of Worthville. The criminal list is small this term, only twenty-seven cases, two-thirds of which are a, b. and c. cases.

Will Hear Appeals.

County Commissioners Webster, Haugh and Hawk will be at Frank's Tavern, Reynoldsville, Thursday forenoon, February 18, for the purpose of hearing appeals from the triennial assessment for the years 1904, 1905 and 1906. For West Reynoldsville at the Ross House Thursday afternoon, February 18, and Winslow township at the Burns House Friday, February 19, in the forenoon and at the Ross House in afternoon of Feb. 19.

Butler Fund.

BUTLER, PA., JAN. 6, 1904. L. M. Simmons, Burgess Reynoldsville, Pa., Dear Sir:

Your contribution for the amount of $82.00 was handed to the proper authority this afternoon.

We thank you very much in behalf of the community for your liberal donation. Very Truly Yours, W. M. KENNEDY, Mayor.

A long letter from Emerickville was received too late for publication in this issue.

Boys' high cut shoes at Nolan's shoe store.

Relief Corps Officers Installed.

Friday evening of last week Mrs. Albert Reynolds installed the officers in the Woman's Relief Corps at this place. Old veterans, Sons of Veterans and a few friends were invited to attend the installation. The ceremonies are beautiful and were well executed. After the installation a few impromptu speeches were delivered, followed with a lunch of sandwiches, coffee, cake, cold meat, pickles, potato salad, &c.

Following is a list of the officers installed: President, Mrs. Albert Reynolds; Sr. V. P., Mrs. W. C. Gibson; Jr. V. P., Mrs. Arthur O'Donnell, jr.; Treasurer, Mrs. Edith Phillippi; Chaplain, Mrs. W. D. Woodring; Secretary Mrs. Lewis Klenhans; Conductor, Mrs. W. H. Lucas; Assistant Conductor, Mrs. Edward Barry; Guard, Mrs. E. L. Evans; Assistant Guard, Mrs. Ellen Plyler; Patriotic Instructor, Mrs. C. R. Hall; Press Correspondent (new office), Mrs. E. Neff; Organist, Mrs. T. C. Shields; Color Bearers, Mrs. Robert Sayers, Mrs. William Barclay, Mrs. S. B. J. Saxton and Mrs. Nancy Foley.

Suggestion Meetings.

Republicans take notice that a suggestion meeting will be held by the Republican voters of the borough of Reynoldsville, in the second precinct hose house, on Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1904, at 8.00 p. m. for the purpose of suggesting candidates to be voted for at the ensuing election.

LOCAL REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

WINSLOW TOWNSHIP.

There will be a suggestion meeting of Winslow township Republicans at hose house No. 1, in Reynoldsville Saturday, Jan. 16, 1904, at 2.00 p. m. for the purpose of suggesting candidates for the offices to be voted for at primary.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

WEST REYNOLDSVILLE.

There will be a meeting of the Republicans of West Reynoldsville in the town hall on Tuesday, January 19, 1904, at 7.30 p. m. for the purpose of suggesting names for borough officers to be voted for at the primary election to be held in the town hall on Thursday, January 28, 1904, from 3.00 to 8.00 p. m.

COMMITTEE.

Ladies of the Golden Eagle.

Following are the officers installed in Pleasant Valley Temple No. 25, of Reynoldsville, for ensuing six months, Mrs. Tamar Sayers installing officer: Past Templar, Mrs. Hannah Tyson; Noble Templar, Miss Frances Sayers; Vice Templar, Mrs. Kate Tupper; Proprietess, Mrs. Dorothy McGinness; Priestess, Mrs. G. G. Griffith; Guardian of Records, Mrs. Tamar Sayers; Guardian of Finance, Miss Susie White; Guardian of Exchequer, Mrs. Hannah Yenewine; Marshal of Ceremonies, Mrs. Helen McGinness; Guardian, Mrs. Lucinda Butson; Guardian of Inner Portal, Mrs. Eliza Reed; Guardian of Outer Portal, Mrs. Mary Ann Cottle; Trustees, Mrs. Dorothy McGinness, Mrs. Frances Reed, Mrs. Mary Ann Cottle.

Senator Fisher a Candidate.

Senator John S. Fisher, a lawyer of Indiana, Pa., and present State Senator from the 37th district, composed of Jefferson and Indiana counties, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for a second term. Senator Fisher will not have any opposition for the nomination in the district. It has been the custom in this district for years to give the senator from other county two terms without opposition, and according to that custom Senator Fisher is entitled to the nomination without a contest in Jefferson county. Senator Fisher was in town a couple of hours yesterday and will be in town a short time to-day.

From Another County.

W. T. Cox, president of the Hawthorn and New Bethlehem Street Railway Company, was in town this week. He was also looking after the right of way between this borough and Hawthorn. We notice by the Jefferson county papers that Mr. Cox is a candidate for Assembly in that county with excellent chances for success. Mr. Cox is the right kind of a man to send to Harrisburg. He is a man of sterling integrity, which combined with his business qualifications and general knowledge of the wants of the people, would make him a useful man at Harrisburg next winter.—New Bethlehem Vindicator.

Teachers' Meeting.

There will be a teachers' meeting at Rathmel Jan. 23, to which all teachers and friends of education are invited, and at which time the secretary of the Winslow township school board will issue the teachers' orders.

Oyster Supper.

The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church will hold an oyster supper in the basement of the church on Thursday evening of next week, Jan. 21. Oysters served in any style, raw, fried, stewed or scooped. Price 25 cents.

Men's dress shoes for $2.50 at Nolan's. Can't be bought elsewhere for less than $3.00.

Night school Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening at Reynoldsville Business College.

Council Meeting.

The regular meeting of the town council was held Jan. 2nd. President Applegate in the chair. Members present, Deible, A. P. King, Ritzie, Dr. King. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

Chief Burgess L. M. Simmons reported receipts for fines and licenses to be $24.00.

Secretary Board of Health reported receipts to be $9.55.

Tax Collector L. M. Swartz reported $873.21 tax collected.

Mr. D. H. Clark, general manager of the Jefferson Traction Company, appeared before the council and requested the council to grant a right of way to the Jefferson Traction Company on Tenth or Taylor street from Jackson street south to borough line and on Werth street from Tenth or Taylor street east to borough line.

On motion bills and interest amounting to $682.90 were ordered paid.

On motion the building committee was instructed to have fire hose tower repaired and arrange for having the same heated for the purpose of drying the hose.

On motion ordinance No. 90, granting the Jefferson Traction Company a right of way on Tenth or Taylor and Werth street, was passed.

On motion duly made and seconded the council would, if petitions are presented by the property owners abutting on the line of improvements agreeing to pay 1/3 of the cost of said paving, pave any or all such portions of streets so petitioned for, for a distance of two squares or more.

On motion ordinance No. 89, submitting to a vote of the electors of the borough the question of increase of indebtedness of said borough for the payments, costs and expenses of paving and curbing certain streets or parts of streets, was tabled.

Katherine Ridgeway Concert Co.

The Katharine Ridgeway Concert Company has come and gone, but there is left with us the memory of one of the most pleasant evenings that a concert company ever gave us. One pleasing surprise of the evening was the extent of Miss Ridgeway's repertoire; from the heavy dramatic selection through the light narrative, down to the ridiculous restaurant story and the disheveled flight of the colored Lochinvar; and then her voice! a single tone had the sweetness of music.—The Index, Evansston, Ill.

Katharine Ridgeway as the star was pleasing, versatile and entertaining. In humorous story and short sketches, with excellent pantomimic action, she was very good. The ridiculous situation in the last sketch of Amelia Barr's "Colored Lochinvar" was received with peals of laughter.—The Evening Journal, Albany, N. Y.

The Katharine Ridgeway Concert Company furnished without exception the most pleasing entertainment of the season's course. Every number received an encore and some of them three and four.—Daily Advertiser, Elmira, N. Y.

At Assembly hall Friday evening, January 29th.

Republican Publishing Co.

Thomas V. Hendricks, who was editor of the Falls Creek Herald six months, has bought an interest in the Brookville Republican and that paper is now published by The Republican Printing Co., of which W. S. Weaver is president, H. J. Weaver is vice-president and Thomas V. Hendricks secretary. The Falls Creek Herald will either be sold or discontinued and Mr. Hendricks will devote his entire time on the Republican. H. J. Weaver has been unable to work for over a year and W. S. Weaver, not robust himself, has had to do two men's work, hence the assistance of a bright young man of Mr. Hendricks' calibre will relieve Mr. Weaver of considerable work, which also means an improvement in the Republican.

First National Bank Officers.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National bank of Reynoldsville was held in the bank office yesterday afternoon and the old board of directors and officers were re-elected, as follows: President, Scott McClelland; vice-president, Dr. J. C. King; cashier, John H. Kaucher; other directors, Daniel Nolan, John H. Corbett, G. W. Fuller, R. H. Wilson.

Notice.

All members of True Blue Temperance Union are hereby requested to meet at Bell's Hall Tuesday, Jan. 19th, 1904, at 8.30 p. m., as business of importance is to be transacted.

BY ORDER OF COM.

It is surprising how many philanthropists there are in this country—men who are willing to give away, practically, valuable mining stocks, rather than keep them and become enormously rich. Our mall every week tells about them—Elizabeth Herald. We frequently hear from these great philanthropists.
