Mysterious Circumstances.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and head off constipation. Try them. Only 25c. at H. Alex Stoke's, Druggist.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c.; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists. H. Alex Stoke's.

BURNING THE YULE LOG.

The Custom One of Ancient Origin. The Yule Candle.
The custom of burning a large log of wood which is known as the Yule log is very ancient in its origin. All through the middle ages every farmhouse, cottage and castle in England burned its Yule log upon the hearth, the log being dragged in with much ceremony.

COINS OF THE PAST.

A Race of Masked Men.
The "Footprints of the Sahara are one of the most curious races of mankind. The men never expose their faces to public view. They always wear a cloth mask, even when they are eating and sleeping. It is said that only one white traveler has ever seen a Tamarig unmasked. They think they are dishonored if their faces are uncovered.
Impressive.
"Why did we arrive late and leave before the opera was over?" asked the youngest daughter. "It was very enjoyable."
"Of course it was," answered Mrs. Newfield. "but, my dear, we had to show people that we didn't care whether we got our money's worth or not."
The Proof of the Pudding.
"You can hardly persuade Miss O'Neil that marriage is not a failure."
"Why? She never did marry."
"But she tried to and failed."—Smart Set.
Better Than Gold.
"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run-down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by H. Alex Stoke.
HUGHES & POMROY.

ALWAYS BE SANGUINE.

Keep to the Highways and Shun the Back Alleys of Life.
Keep to the broad highways of hope and cheerfulness. Expect to succeed. Think success, and you will succeed. Keep out of the back alleys of gloom and pessimism. Join the procession of the cheerful, the willing and the hopeful. Be sanguine. Know the pleasures of living. Enjoy the sunshine of hope.
Keep away from the scavengers and rattlepicks who infest the back alleys of life. Your pessimist is your scavenger, your rattlepick. He may be a necessary evil, as hell is on the body social, but too much of him is fatal. He never gave the world a smile. He never contributed to the good cheer of any human being. He never lifted the gloom from any distressed soul. He is the antithesis of progress. He is the pollywog which in the evolution of life is continually dragging backward toward the slippy past, resisting the progress of development which must go on with or without him.
Beware of the encroachments of the carping, pessimistic spirit. It is a hardy plant. It takes root easily in the mind, and, like the thistle, when once it gains a foothold it is well nigh impossible to uproot it, but it cannot live in an atmosphere of sunshine and cheerfulness. Therefore, keep to the highways. Keep out of the back alleys.—Exchange.

Children's Weight.

Some curious experiments have been made at one of the royal philanthropic institutions in Copenhagen. For some years back the seventy boys and girls in the place have been carefully weighed every day in groups of fifteen and under. Thereby it is proved that the children gain weight mostly in autumn and in the early part of December. From that time till the end of April there is scarcely any increase in weight. More remarkable still, there is a diminution till the end of summer.
Discreet.
Mrs. Dove—Henry, I think you are positively cruel! Here I've tried so hard to cook you a nice dinner, and you haven't had a word to say to me about it.
Mr. Dove—Darling, I love you too much for that. If I'd said what I thought, you'd never speak to me again.—Boston Transcript.

REASSURING.

"But how can I be sure," said the beautiful heiress, "that you do not want me merely for my money?"
"Darling," replied the duke, "if I can have you I shall never worry about money any more."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Profit With the Brush.

"Do you think it possible for a man who is clever with the brush to make a living these days?" asked the discouraged artist.
"Yes," responded the cruel cynic, "if he is a bootblack."—Philadelphia Record.

Did you ever notice the indecision of a woman about choosing a seat in a street car with but few passengers?—Milwaukee Sentinel.

DON'T MISS THIS!

On the Saturday of each week this month we will make a sitting and One Cabinet Photo of ANY CHILD BETWEEN THE AGES FREE OF FOUR AND EIGHT YEARS FREE. Mothers, bring them in! At this time in a child's life you see the most pleasing and attractive expressions, and we want to show you that we can catch them with our camera. We have made child portraiture a close study.
