A Little of Everything.

Lent begins to-day. This is Ash Wednesday. Yesterday was a cold election day. Next Monday is Flag Day in the county schools. Next Monday, February 22, is Washington's Birthday. The Paradise Grange has taken in five new members this year. Some of the thermometers at this place registered 16 degrees below zero yesterday morning. The law of the state prescribes that deeds be placed on record within 90 days after execution. Evangelistic services each evening this week at the Baptist church. Go and enjoy the meetings. An Improved Order of Red Men was organized at Curwensville Wednesday evening of last week with ninety-eight members. The DuBois Courier is authority for the statement that the Fitzpatrick glass plant at Falls Creek will resume work to-night. The New Cloak House that was opened in the Deible block before the holidays, was moved to some other town last week. The editors of the Courier and Express have been sparing long enough. Won't they ever fight?—DuBois Searchlight. No, never. The county commissioners will be at Frank's Tavern to-morrow forenoon, February 18, to hear appeals from trial assessor. Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio, died at the Arlington Hotel, in Washington, D. C., at 6:40 p. m. Monday, Feb. 15, from typhoid fever. A citizens meeting was held in the Reynolds opera house Monday evening to consider a proposition from the promoters of an industry looking for a location. A branch of the Sons of Rest has been organized in town. The regular meeting place is at one of the blacksmith shops. We did not get a list of the officers. A. C. Murray, one of the school directors of Winslow township, left here yesterday for Beckman, Md., where he will remain a few weeks with his brother, Ab. Murray.

The P. O. S. of A. members will hold a banquet at the City Hotel to-morrow evening. Col. John P. Wilson, one of the proprietors and also business manager of The Spirit, of Punxsutawney, and Clymer H. Frens, local editor of the same paper, were in Reynoldsville Saturday. Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is in New Bethlehem this week assisting the pastor of the Presbyterian church at that place in special meetings. The trolley party to Punxsutawney planned by the Ladies Work Society of the Presbyterian church for to-morrow has been postponed on account of cold weather, until Thursday, Feb. 25. The Ithaca Conservatory of Music Concert Company at Assembly hall Friday evening, March 4, under the auspices of Hope Fire Co. This is not the same company that gave an entertainment here last fall. Sheriff Curry, of Jefferson county, was at Greensburg last Thursday to witness the execution of Kruger. Sheriff Curry expects to have to execute two Italians on Tuesday of next week and he wanted to see how the job was done. John W. Williams, known as "Blackspot," who murdered an Italian near DuBois last fall, was convicted of murder in the first degree in the Clearfield county court last week. An application has been made for a new trial for "Blackspot," which will not likely be granted. Rev. A. D. McKay was present at the opening of the public schools last Friday morning and conducted the devotional exercises. He also gave a brief interesting address on some famous doings of history, pointing out how they achieved greatness in their future career, though as students they were regarded as being dull and stupid. Mrs. Lucinda Eisenhuth, wife of George Eisenhuth, of Rathmel, died Saturday, February 13, 1904. Deceased was born August 17, 1842. Funeral service was held in the Church of God at Rathmel Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. L. Richards, Evangelical Minister of Shawmut. Interment was made in the Baptist cemetery at this place. Undertaker J. H. Kocher, of Shawmut, had charge of the funeral. Saturday evening a Reynoldsville girl and her lover quarrelled and to make him sorry for his naughtiness the girl said she would take her own life by swallowing a small vial of chloroform. She filled her mouth with the liquid, but before swallowing any of it she concluded to live a little longer and spit the chloroform out on the floor. The young man thought the girl had swallowed the chloroform and he shed big tears. The body of James Baughman, formerly of Rathmel, who was one of the Harwick mine disaster victims, was found and buried last week. Wednesday one leg was found and was identified by his wife by the under clothes and a new shoe on the foot. On Thursday the other part of the body was found. Baughman was a nephew of William Clawson, of Reynoldsville, and was married to a daughter of Samuel Brison. Evangelist Frank M. Wells gave his address on "The Situation in the Philippines" to an audience of fully 250 or 300 men in the Baptist church last Sunday afternoon. His address was very interesting and held the closest attention throughout its delivery. Next Sunday afternoon he will deliver his famous address, "Jerusalem Under the Turk." Rev. Wells was in Jerusalem for three months and very carefully studied the influences of the Ottoman Empire in its influence in its rule in the Holy City. All are invited to hear this discourse. Protestants, Catholics, Masons and all Secret Orders are invited to hear him. Seats free. The location of a large industry in Reynoldsville is a necessity if the town is to continue to grow and keep in the front ranks, and in this day and age, when every town is looking for new industries, it behooves our citizens to awaken and take active steps towards inducing industries to locate here. We have cheap fuel, good railroad facilities, admirable sites, &c., in fact everything is in our favor, but these things must be brought to the attention of capitalists looking for locations. It may be necessary for the people of town to take stock in some of the industries to get them to locate here, but there would be no hesitancy in taking stock when the people are satisfied that it is a good thing. Last Thursday afternoon D. H. Clark, general manager of the Jefferson Traction Co., and some Punxsutawney friends, who were his guests, came to Reynoldsville in a special car over the trolley line. Mr. Clark and his party took supper at the National Hotel. They left here about 8:40 p. m. on return trip and notwithstanding the fact that they came over on car No. 13 and that there were thirteen in the party, the trip was made without a mishap. The following persons composed the party: D. H. Clark and two daughters, J. B. Phelen and wife, T. E. Bennis and wife, J. B. Eberhart and wife, John P. Wilson, of The Spirit, and wife, Miss Dora Miller, Miss M. McDonald. Lawyer George W. Means, of the firm of Means & Clark, of Brookville, died at his home at eight o'clock last evening. His death was caused by grip and acute bronchitis. He had only been in bed a week. Operation for Fistula. Last Thursday afternoon Drs. J. B. Neale, J. C. and Harry B. King, of this place, performed an operation on Mrs. John M. Stephenson, of Garco, Clearfield county, for fistula in left hip. The operation was performed at the home of Mrs. Stephenson's sister, Mrs. Nancy Foley, on Jackson street, Reynoldsville. Moving to Colorado. Thomas Secrist and wife, of DuBois, formerly of this place, were visitors in Reynoldsville Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Secrist will move to Colorado Springs, Col., next week where their two sons and two daughters are located, having gone there last year for benefit of their health and like the country so well that they do not want to return to Pennsylvania and the parents will move there. The Empire Entertainment Company. The fifth and last number of the public school lecture course will be the Empire Entertainment Company. This company consists of three musicians and an impersonator. The musical instruments used by the company include guitars, mandolin, violin, banjo, trombone and euphonium. The impersonator adds variety and strength to the program. This company is booked for this place March 18. Second Date for Execution. Tuesday of next week, February 23, at noon, is the second date fixed for the execution of Alelio and Pallone at Brookville. The Board of Pardons meets to-day and an effort will be made to get the Board to pardon the two Italians or have the sentence commuted to life imprisonment, and if the Board of Pardons takes no action in the cases the murderers will be executed by Sheriff Curry next Tuesday. Birthday Surprise Party. Mrs. Henry A. Swab, of Fifth street, was given a birthday surprise party last evening by Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Myers, a number of ladies of the Protected Home Circle and some neighbors. The ladies carried well filled baskets with them and a lunch was served at ten o'clock. Mrs. Swab was given a handsome present. The occasion was a very pleasant one and all present had a delightful time. They returned home at a late hour. Supt. of Parochial Schools. Rev. Father C. Weinker, who was pastor of the S. S. Cosmas and Damian's Catholic church at Punxsutawney, has tendered his resignation to accept the position of superintendent of the parochial schools of the Erie Diocese, which embraces twelve counties. Father Weinker is well known in Jefferson county, having been a worker in the county about 35 years. Father Weinker built the first Catholic church in Reynoldsville in 1875. The church was located on Worth street. At that time Father Weinker was pastor of the Catholic church at Brookville. John B. DeMotte. No more popular lecturer than Prof. John B. DeMotte ever stood upon the platform of Assembly Hall and his second appearance there Monday evening was greeted by a large audience. Prof. DeMotte is eloquent at times, but it is not so much as an orator as a great teacher that he stands pre-eminent. He founded his lecture upon the biggest word in the English language, "habit," and his revelations were not only startling but so forcibly and plainly stated that they will linger long in the minds of his auditors, and perhaps in the case of the younger ones, prevent many a downfall in future life. His warnings and pleadings were rendered doubly impressive by the aid of illustrations thrown on a screen. North Nominated for Assembly. S. Taylor North, of Punxsutawney, received the Republican nomination yesterday for Assembly. As we go to press the returns are not all in and North's majority over R. H. Longwell is not known. The vote in Reynoldsville borough, first precinct, North 80, Longwell 91; second precinct, North 95, Longwell 125; Winslow township, 1st pre., North 50, Longwell 40; 2nd pre., North 40, Longwell 48; 3rd pre., North 39, Longwell 10; 4th pre., North 108, Longwell 50; West Reynoldsville, North 38, Longwell 34. The entire vote polled at the borough election yesterday was 385 and the vote at the Republican primary was 391, making 6 more votes polled at the primary than was polled at borough election. Charles S. Kirchartz was elected as committeeman to attend the Republican county convention to-day. Coats at half price at Millirens. See the great display of Defender muslin underwear at Millirens Friday, February 19th. Men's and boy's overcoats reduced 25 per cent. at Millirens. If in need of an odd piece of underwear to finish season with, at Millirens 25 per cent. off.

Lawyer Means Dead. Richard Humphrey, formerly of Reynoldsville, Succumbs to Lung Trouble. Mr. Richard Humphrey died at his home in Beaver, Pa., Feb. 11, at 3:45 a. m. after about two weeks illness from dropsy of the lungs. He was the son of Mr. William and Mary Humphrey and was born Feb. 11, 1836. He was born at Spruce Creek, Huntingdon Co., Pa., and died on his birthday at the age of 68 years. He was married June 12, 1856, to Miss Mary J. Slack, who, with five children, survive him, viz: John H., Tarentum, Geo. B., DuBois, Mrs. Annie Broadhead, Reynoldsville, Mrs. M. J. McCroight, DuBois, and Everett C., of Beaver. Mr. Humphrey was a large man of commanding appearance, good hearted and a splendid neighbor and moved in a large circle of friends. In his youthful days he was baptized and united with the Richard-ville Baptist church. Later he removed to Prescottville, where he remained for 17 years and then came to Reynoldsville where he remained for 3 years. He was identified with the Baptist church in Reynoldsville and was choir leader. Several years ago he removed from our town. After his death his remains were taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. H. Broadhead. The funeral services were held in the Baptist church on Saturday at 2:00 p. m., conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, after which he was laid to rest in the Reynoldsville cemetery. He has gone, but is not forgotten. Flag Day in the Public Schools. Next Monday, Feb. 22, in keeping with the wishes of the county superintendent, Prof. R. B. Tetrick, the public schools of this place will observe Flag Day. As this day coincides with the anniversary of Washington's birth, the schools are arranging to observe both of these occasions at the same time. In the afternoon of the day there will be public exercises in Assembly hall, consisting of selections furnished by the pupils of the different rooms. The general spirit of all these exercises will be patriotic. One of the functions of the public schools is to make good, intelligent and patriotic citizens. The observance of Flag Day is to inspire into the pupils a deeper love of our country and a greater reverence for our national emblem of freedom. We hope that many of the parents and citizens of this place will favor the schools with their presence at that time. Everybody will be cordially welcomed. "A Glowing Success." The concert given by the Students' Concert Company of the Ithaca Conservatory of Music last evening at the opera house was a glowing success. Too much praise could not be given this Company. Each one displayed wonderful talent as well as a thorough training throughout the entire performance. Every number of the program was loudly encoored which made a second appearance necessary. The audience was a large one, composed of the most intelligent people of Luray and vicinity, and not one left the building expressing himself otherwise than in the highest terms. The Ithaca Conservatory of Music has won laurels in our town.—Luray (Va.) Courier. At Assembly hall Friday evening, March 4, 1904, under the auspices of Hope Fire Company. Citizens' Meeting. A citizens' meeting will be held in Stoke's hall to-morrow evening, February 18, at 8.15, to decide on accepting or rejecting Mr. McSherry's proposition to locate an industry in Reynoldsville. COMMITTEE. Card of Thanks. We hereby express our thanks to the general public for their liberal patronage of the fireman's ball held on the 8th inst., and also to Mr. Frank A. McConnell for use of Frank's Pavilion. HOPE FIRE CO. The man who judiciously advertises his business from day to day is the man who gathers the coin. There is nothing so productive of business, more business, as persistent and judicious advertising, backed by good goods and fair dealing. Having bought the grocery stock and good will of A. G. Millirens, we would be pleased to meet all his old customers and as many new ones as may care to patronize us. We shall aim to give you as good goods, and prices, and as courteous treatment as accorded you by Mr. Millirens. Come and see us, get acquainted and leave your orders. THE STAR GROCERY CO. ROBT. DIED IN BEAVER. Alexander Finner, Victim of Harwick Explosion, Brought Here Saturday. The body of Alexander Finner, one of the victims of the Cheswick mine disaster, was found last Friday morning and brought to home of his father-in-law, Calvin DeHart, in this place Saturday noon. Funeral service was held at residence of Mr. DeHart on Jackson street at 2:00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. J. C. McEntire, and interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery beside the body of the deceased's son, Harry Finner, who was also killed in the Harwick disaster and buried two weeks ago. It was nineteen days from the time of the awful explosion until the body of Mr. Finner was found and the body was still in good condition. It is claimed that the body was in as good condition as any body taken out of the mine. The body was found in a pool of water. Alex Finner was born in Clarion Co., Pa., January 1, 1867, making him 37 years old the first day of this year. April 12, 1888, he was married to Mary Edith DeHart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin DeHart. The widow and two daughters survive the deceased. Mrs. Finner and her two daughters will make their home with Mrs. Finner's parents in this place. The loss of her husband and son and the watching and waiting for nineteen long days before the body of her husband was found, was an intense strain on Mrs. Finner, but she has been bearing up bravely under this great affliction. She has the sympathy of many friends. Postmaster Robbed. Captain Leahy, postmaster at Falls Creek, was robbed before eight o'clock last Friday evening by three large men on his way home from the postoffice. The robbers secured $165.00 in cash, large number of postage stamps and a gold watch and chain valued at $150.00, making a total of over $300.00. Mr. Leahy lives about two squares above Hotel Evergreen on the street leading to DuBois and there is only one house between his residence and the hotel, and it was just after he passed this house that the robbers attacked him. They handled him roughly and tore his clothing almost all off of him. He carried $91.00 and the postage stamps in a tin box and had $75.00 and his gold watch in his vest pockets and the robbers took all. Sometime ago robbers blew open the safe in the Falls Creek postoffice and since that time Captain Leahy had been carrying the postoffice money and stamps home every evening for safe keeping, which was a temptation to robbers that, no doubt, live not a great distance from Falls Creek. Captain Leahy will lose the whole amount. There is a safe in the postoffice and had the Captain left the money and stamps there and the safe had been cracked and the contents stolen the government would have been the loser, but when a postmaster carries government money and stamps out of the office with him and is robbed he is the loser. Pleasant Affair. Tuesday evening of last week a very pleasant affair took place in the Church of God at Rathmel. At 8 o'clock the church was comfortably filled and an interesting program was carried out. The exercises consisted of music, vocal and instrumental, recitations and addresses. Mr. F. N. Dean was master of ceremonies and presided with dignity and grace and kept the exercises moving in an interesting and pleasant way. Quite a number of excellent anthems were sung by the Rathmel choir under the leadership of Prof. Schomo, of DuBois, also by the choir of the Reynoldsville Baptist church under the leadership of Mr. M. C. Coleman. Among the interesting features was a female quartette by Reynoldsville ladies. Many thanks are due to Misses Edna Keagle and Agnes Wyse for their excellent recitations. Rev. J. E. Dean made an excellent address followed by an address by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., and in due time Rev. Dean on behalf of the friends in Rathmel presented a purse of $47.00 to Dr. Meek. Mr. M. C. Coleman, on behalf of the young people, presented a purse to Mrs. A. J. Meek containing $8.00, making a total of $55.00. Rev. Meek closed a meeting at Rathmel lately at which there were about forty conversions. He has the best wishes of the community. Notice. The regular annual meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association will be held Feb. 22nd, 1904, at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of electing four directors and one auditor, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before it. There was a great noise around town last spring about the last raft that went out of Redbank. The last raft is in the woods yet. The noise about the last raft is a little premature. The Hon. Curtis R. Vashbinder claims he is going to have the honor of running the last raft out of Redbank, if he has to haul it on bare ground. It is now February. He has had two months of sledding, but won't budge until all the others get ahead. Some count it an honor to be first, some to be last.—Brookville Democrat. Dr. MacTaggart, the New York specialist, permanently located at Punxsutawney, 213 West Mahoning street, is having an immense practice and treats nothing but long standing ailments.—It
