He came to Jefferson county 53 years ago and set tled on what is now known as the Mulhollan farm, near where he died. Since his wife died, January 12, 1897, he had been living with his son, M. K. Shirly. He was the father of eleven children, seven of whom survive him, as follows Mrs. M. M. Kennedy, of Kansas, M. K. Shirley, of Panic, Mrs. Annie E. Bloom of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. S. S. McFeeley, of Windber, Pa., Mrs. Jennie E. Deem er, wife of Frank Deemer, of Winslow township, Mrs. R. E. McDermit, of Marienville, Pa., Mrs. Emma Cribbs, of Verona. Besides his sons and daughters he is survived by 71 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren. Funeral services were held Sunday, conducted by Rev. H. G. Teagarden, Ph. D., of Punxsutawney, and interment was made in the little cemetery on the hill near Panic. Hughes & Pomroy, of Reynoldsville, had charge of the funeral.

Death of An Old Pioneer.

The deceased was well and favorably known to many of the older citizens of Reynoldsville and vicinity. He had been a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church for many years.

Paid For His Fun.

Friday afternoon a man from the rural district named Strawcutter came to town, got intoxicated, visited a house on Jackson street, kicked a stove to pieces and created considerable excitement on Main street Friday evening by trying to give "leg bail" when Policeman Adelsperger got after him. The fellow ran from Hotel Imperial up Main st. to Fifth st., down Fifth to Jackson st. and up Jackson to Cole alley before he was arrested. A number of fellows joined with the officer in the chase although they didn't know what offense the fellow had committed. Burgess Simmons imposed a fine and costs of over $13.00 on Strawcutter for his naughtiness. Rather an expensive afternoon's fun.

ROBBERY AND INCENDIARISM.

I'wo Italians Steal Goods, Burn Building,

Nichol Fasco, known around this vicinity as "Bull Dog," and another Italian named John e'rank, were run ning a store at Windber, Pa., getting their goods on commission from J Solomon, of Windber, and A. Berger, of Sumerset. They had about $8,000 worth of goods, consisting of jewelry, silverware, &c., most of which they packed in trunks, shipped goods away, then poured oil over the floor and burned the building at 2.00 a. m. on Tuesday morning of last week. The building burned so rapidly that three Italians who were sleeping up over the store, could not escape. Two of the Ikes were burned to death and the other one was so badly burned that he died in a couple of hours. The Italians carried $2,500 insurance and, hence, they had a two-fold purpose in burning the building, to get the insurance and to make their creditors believe the goods had been destroyed by fire, but the scheme did not work as planned. Fasco and Frank were arrested and confined in the Somerset jail.

Nicholas Stio, brother-in-law of "Bull Dog," who was at Windber, concluded to come to Soldier. He arrived in Reynoldsville Wednesday evening by trolley, bringing three big trunks with him. A team was hired to haul the trunks to Soldier. Thursday morning Solomon and Berger, who were following Stio, came to town and got Police man Adelsperger and Constable Warnick to go with them to Soldier, where they arrested Stio and found nine trunks full of the stolen goods. Stie and the trunks were taken back to Windber.

Pasco and his companion escaped from Somerset jail Friday night and have not been re-captured yet.

Bold Robber.

Sometime before closing hour on Wednesday evening of last week, March 23, Antonia Blahoski, an Italian, entered the company store at Eleanora and secreted himself and was locked in the store. After every person had left the store Antonia proceeded to business, He broke the money drawer open with a hatchet and took possession of what money he found in it and then he went up to second story and began deliberately to select and pile up the goods that he proposed to carry away. Early in the evening one of the clerks returned to the store for something and Le heard the robber at work up stairs. He quietly slipped out of the store, got several men to return with him to store and they took Antonia into custody and sent to Punxsutawney for Constable Walker. Antonia is now in the county jall at Brookville.

Highland Park. Mr. Al. F. Harris informs us that be will not take out his summer stock company this season, but instead has completed arrangements with the Jefferson Traction Co. to put in a pleasure resort along their line midway between this place and Ponxsutawney at what has been known as the Summit. It is a beautiful pine grove and looks almost a shame to destroy some of the large pine trees which have grown thereon. However, this will have to be done to make room for the numerous buildings. A beautiful summer threatre, a monster dance pavilion, merry-go-round and numerous other buildings to be used for refreshment stands, cating rooms, etc. will be erected. Though these added attractions, so we are informed, will not be allowed to detract from that which nature itself has done, but rather adding to and making it a veritable dreamland for the picnicer, the pleasure seeker or the one who would seek a complete day's rest.
