

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Prop. WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1904.

Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Va., second class mail matter. SUMMERSVILLE TELEPHONE NO. 61.

WATCHES

I have something of interest to watch buyers and would like to have you come in and talk WATCHES. If you don't want to buy now, would like to show you a filled case guaranteed for 100 years.

C. F. HOFFMAN The Jeweler.

The New Wall Papers

This is a great Wall Paper year. Never before have designs and tints been more beautiful. With this year's wall paper it is the easiest thing in the world to transform a dark, gloomy room into a light, cheerful apartment at the slightest expense.

Can you imagine the change that new papering will make? We shall be glad to show you what can be done with wall paper if you will come to this store.

Prices never so low—3, 4, 5, 6, to 50 cents per roll. Borders same price.

Stoke, the Druggist.

A Little of Everything.

April term of court begins next Monday, April 11.

Conductor M. T. McMahon is off on a short vacation this week.

The Democrat state convention will be held in Harrisburg April 19.

Miss Ada M. Martin is clerking in Bing-Stoke Co. department store.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Smith M. McCright April 1, 1904, a daughter.

The Republican state convention will be held in Harrisburg to-day, April 6.

The production of "David Garrick" will be the society event of the season.

There was a flood in the Sandy Lick creek Saturday. The lowlands were inundated.

The attendance at the reading room during March was about four hundred. The conduct was excellent.

Dr. A. R. Rich, presiding elder of Claron district, preached in the M. E. church at this place last Thursday evening.

J. C. Craft has accepted a position as traveling fireman for the R. & F. C. R'y Co. His first trip was to Boston, Mass.

A big freight wreck occurred on Low Grade Division near Pentfield last Wednesday. Spreading of the rails caused the wreck.

A special trolley car will leave Punxsutawney after Prof. Hines' dance on Thursday night. Car will leave Punxsutawney at 1.30 a. m.

Josh Billings says: "Consider the postage stamp, my son; its usefulness consists in its ability to stick to one thing until it gets there."

F. P. Strickland, who resided at Hopkins a number of years, now employed at Ashtola, Somerset Co., is moving his family to Ashtola this week.

Three-year old daughter of Tim Wilds, of Winslow township, died Monday morning. Interment at the Twin Church cemetery this afternoon.

On account of slides on the River Division of P. R. R. last Friday the Pittsburg mail and daily papers did not arrive here until about 8.00 p. m.

Postmaster E. C. Burns, Dr. S. Reynolds, U. G. Schesafnocker, Herbert R. Burns, Charles A. Hoppel, Conrad McDonald went to Harrisburg yesterday to attend the Republican state convention.

A Hungarian murdered a Slav at Boardman, Clearfield Co., last Sunday night.

F. G. Corbett, who moved to Pittsburg about a year ago, is moving back to Prescottville this week.

Henry Snyder, of West Reynoldsville, was injured yesterday morning while riding out of the barn on a wagon.

The Utopia Society will hold a social at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Meek on Friday evening of this week.

Thomas Gullford, of this place, went to Oak Ridge last evening to accept the position of mine foreman of the Alcolia Bituminous Coal Company's plant.

John T. Barclay, traveling salesman for the DuBois Candy Co., who has resided in Reynoldsville a number of years, moved his family to DuBois this week.

The headquarters of the Pittsburg division of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg R'y was transferred from Butler to Punxsutawney on Monday of this week.

Evangelist Kirkwood and Wallace Mitchell will hold a series of meetings at Elanora soon. Mr. Kirkwood will preach and Mr. Mitchell will conduct the singing.

There was a typographical error in THE STAR last week in the date given of the execution of Aiello. It should have been Thursday, April 21st instead of Thursday, April 23rd.

Special service in the Emerickville Lutheran church on Wednesday evening of next week, continuing each evening until Saturday evening. Subject of discourses, "Conversion."

Evangelist J. E. Kirkwood will preach at Rathmel at 11.00 a. m. next Sunday and at West Liberty in the evening. Wallace Mitchell will accompany Mr. Kirkwood to assist in the singing.

In this issue of THE STAR will be found two charter notices. One is for "The Brockwayville Theatre Co.," and the other is "The Brockwayville Agricultural and Driving Park Association."

A very large audience assembled in the opera house last night and listened to an interesting lecture on the "Battle of Gettysburg," by Prof. Gilbert. The pictures were excellent.—Piedmont Herald.

The editor of THE STAR has been appointed as a delegate from Pennsylvania State Editorial Association to attend the meeting of the National Editorial Association to be held in St. Louis next month.

The Elks have secured the services of the talented child actress, little Miss Genevieve Dean, to play the part of "Ada" in their production of "David Garrick" April 21-22. Miss Dean is from St. Marys.

The "Fatal Step Co." that was booked for three nights at Reynolds opera house, beginning Monday night, disbanded after the show Monday night. Some members of the company quit the show before the play was given here.

The miners of this section were idle last Friday and Saturday awaiting the action of the U. M. W. of A. convention at Altoona on the wage scale, the old agreement between operators and miners having expired the last day of March.

April 23rd will be Easter Sunday next year. That is the latest date since 1888 and will be the latest date until 1916, when Easter falls on April 23rd again. The earliest date for Easter in the next twenty-five years will be March 1, 1929.

Harvey Deter and George White, of this place, will conduct public services at the following places next Sunday: In M. E. church Sandy Valley in the forenoon; in school house at Soldier in the afternoon and in M. E. church at Rathmel in the evening.

Mrs. Ellen Eldred, of New York State, who has been engaged in temperance work for nineteen years, was in Reynoldsville a couple of days last week selling little poems at five cents apiece and talking temperance to men in barrooms and public places.

The Helping Hand Society of the Methodist Episcopal church took in one hundred dollars at the Easter sale and market held in basement of the church last Friday and Saturday. Their expenses amounted to about $15.00, leaving the net receipts $85.00.

Guy Cormmesser, Misses Ruth Cathers, Pearl Barret and Netta Breakey left here Monday for Lock Haven to attend the Central State Normal School at that place. Quite a number of young people from Jefferson county will attend the Normal at Lock Haven this year.

The lecture to be given by Rev. Johnson in the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, Apr. 13, promises to be very interesting. One hundred views of the "Ruins of Pompeii" will be shown by the aid of a fine stereopticon. No one should miss seeing and hearing it. Admission, adults 25c, children 15c.

Harry Hoppel, of Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., Charles Hirst, of State College, State College, Pa., and Miss Edna Milliken, of Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., who were not home when list of students home for Easter vacation was published in THE STAR last week, arrived here Thursday for a few days' vacation.

Easter Sunday. Large congregations attended all the churches Sunday, each church having arranged special Easter services. The music was extra fine in all the churches.

Cathoon-Burkhouse. At the home of the bride's father, Mr. George Burkhouse, near Emerickville, on Monday, March 28th, 1904, John C. Calhoun and Martha Elizabeth Burkhouse were united in marriage, Rev. J. W. Myers, of Reynoldsville, officiating.

Two Delegates. The Democratic county committee met at Brookville on Monday afternoon of this week and elected Terry Gleason, of Beechtree, and Harry Means, of Brookville, as county delegates to attend the Democratic state convention at Harrisburg on April 19th.

For Benefit of Firemen. Thursday evening of this week the ladies of the Women's Relief Corps will serve an excellent supper in Frank's Pavilion for 25 cents. Proceeds for benefit of Hope Fire Co. Supper will be served from 5.00 to 9.00 p. m. Ice cream will be served during the evening.

Large Class. There were sixteen young people in the class examined in the public school building at this place last Saturday for common school diplomas. Misses Julia Kirk, Anne Kunes, Prof. C. V. Smith, E. T. McClure and D. S. Bacon assisted County Supt. Teltrick in the examinations.

Could Not Help Her. Mrs. John Burton, of Beechwoods, was taken to Philadelphia Tuesday of last week for treatment or an operation for a severe pain in her head. Two or three eminent physicians examined Mrs. Burton, but could not do anything to help her. She was brought home Saturday morning.

Want Street Paved. A petition was presented to town council last night, signed by property owners, asking that Main street be paved from iron bridge to Seventh street, the petitioners to pay two-thirds of cost of paving and borough to pay one-third. An ordinance to that effect passed first reading.

Six Old Vets. John J. Davis, John W. Fink, John I. McDonald, Lyman W. Scott, Jacob Henninger and Philip Taylor, six old veterans, congregated in one corner of the postoffice Saturday afternoon and swapped reminiscences of war times while waiting on the belated mail to arrive and be changed.

Handsome Present. F. C. Wilson, a boss finisher at the Reynoldsville Woolen Co.'s mill three years, who moved to Philadelphia last week, he and his wife leaving here Friday morning, was presented with a handsome silver-lined gold smoking set on Thursday morning by employees of the mill. Mr. Wilson appreciated the present very much.

Six Dollars For One Pie. A pie social was held at Deemer's Cross Roads school house one evening last week and a gallant youth bid the price of a pie up to $6.00 and was somewhat disappointed after paying such an enormous price for it to learn that it was not his "girl's" pie, but another fellow's "girl's" pie. He sold the pie to the other fellow for $2.00.

Winslow Twp. Auditors' Report. In this issue of THE STAR will be found the auditors' report of the Winslow township finances for year ending March 14, 1904. Levi Sogugars, one of the auditor's, was sick in bed at the time fixed for the first meeting of auditors, March 14, and they postponed the auditing until March 28 and Mr. Sogugars was still in bed and could not assist in the work.

Fractured Second Time. Henry A. Swab, contractor of this place, who had his left knee cap split last August by a scaffold breaking, and was just beginning to be able to walk around fairly well again, slipped and fell two weeks ago and broke the knee cap again. He was taken to the Adrian Hospital where an operation was performed on the knee, which had not healed up properly after the first injury. Mrs. Swab was at the hospital Sunday to see her husband. He is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Gil Reitz Dead. Mrs. Sara Minerva Reitz, wife of Register and Recorder Gil C. Reitz, died at her home in Brookville Friday afternoon, April 1, 1904, after five years of suffering. She had been confined to bed two years. Funeral services at residence at 2.00 p. m. Monday, conducted by Dr. W. P. Graham, pastor of the Brookville M. E. church, assisted by Rev. Garner, Episcopal minister of Brookville and Rev. Jaquay, M. E. minister of Stanton. Mrs. Reitz was a patient sufferer and a noble christian woman. She is survived by her husband and five children. Mr. Reitz has the sympathy of his many friends in the county.

Body Found in Creek. Charles McHenry, a cook at Zimmerman's camp near Troutville, was found dead in the creek at Sykesville last Sunday morning. McHenry intended going to Stanley on the evening train Saturday and had been at Hotel Sykos waiting for train. The supposition is that he fell off the bridge as he was going to station.

Mothers' Club. The regular monthly meeting of the Mothers' Club for March has been postponed until next Friday, April 8th. This will be an important meeting and it is hoped that all mothers interested in their children's education and the schools of Reynoldsville will show their interest by their presence. The meeting will be held at 3.30.

A Talk About Birds. Hon. S. B. Elliott gave a very interesting and instructive address before the pupils of the public schools last Friday morning. His subject was "Birds and the Service They Render to Us." He made a strong plea for the preservation of the birds and urged the pupils to encourage their presence by putting up houses in which they may build their nests and rear their young.

"David Garrick." The Elks of Reynoldsville have arranged with the eminent romantic actor, Mr. Clifton Mallory, for a production of the beautiful comedy, "David Garrick," assisted by our local talent at the Reynolds opera house, April 21-22, for the benefit of their charity fund. No pains or expense will be spared to make this production worthy the patronage of all. Over 60 people will take part.

Illustrated Lecture. An illustrated and descriptive lecture of "The Battle of Gettysburg" will be given in Centennial hall on Monday evening of next week, April 11, by Prof. J. Warren Gilbert, author, guide and lecturer. The entertainment will be given for benefit of Gen. Phil Kearney Camp No. 36, S. of V., of Reynoldsville. Tickets for sale by members of the Camp. Admission 25 and 35 cents. Reserved seat tickets at Stoke's drug store.

Leap Year Party. The wives, sisters, daughters and "best girls" of members of B. P. O. Elks of Reynoldsville gave a leap year party in the Elks rooms last evening. It was a pleasant social event. About fifty couples present. There were visitors from other towns. The ladies served an elegant supper. Dancing, card playing and other games were the amusements of the evening. This closed a series of social events in the Elks rooms which were carried on once a week for three months.

Pretty Display Window. A number of our merchants had their display windows attractively and tastefully arranged for the Easter tide, but the most unique display window was at Millirens, which was decorated by Irvin Klock. Gates ajar was the design. Wadding and ribbon were used to represent the masonry and mortar in the arch. The gates were covered with white wadding. A white cross appeared in the background on a base of white puffing, entwined with smilax. The foreground was trimmed in white goods, smilax and palms. The window attracted considerable attention.

New Officers. District Deputy Grand Master T. E. Evans installed the following officers in the Reynoldsville I. O. O. F. lodge last Saturday evening: Noble Grand, W. A. Gray; Vice Grand, W. C. Almen; Secretary, M. E. Weed; Warden, W. A. Trudgen; Conductor, R. E. Murray; Outside Guardian, R. W. Miller; Inside Guardian, K. L. Stiles; R. S. to N. G., F. W. Deemer; L. S. to N. G., John Cottle; R. S. to V. G., J. N. Small; L. S. to V. G., John H. Speers; R. S. S., Edward Binney; L. S. S., John Northey; Chaplain, Phillip Keabler; Trustee, L. J. McEntire, 18 months.

Disappointed Excursionists. A big freight wreck near Meredith, three miles west of Reynoldsville, early Sunday morning upset the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's arrangements for a cheap excursion over the Low Grade Division to Pittsburg Sunday. The track was not cleared for trains to get through until 6.30 p. m. Sunday. The excursion train made up east of DuBois over the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg R'y. A large number of people at this place waited until 10.00 a. m. and were then notified that the excursion would not be run from Reynoldsville to Pittsburg. An excursion train was run from Brookville, leaving that place about 10.00 a. m.

Dr. Gibson has been unusually successful in his eye-work. Read his ad.

Fresh ice cream every day at the New Bon Ton.

Boys' suits from 98c to $5.50 at Bing-Stoke Co.

Call at Thompson's bargain store for 5 and 10 cent goods.

Mining Scale Adopted. The joint conference of operators and miners reached an agreement at Altoona last Saturday and the mining scale for No. 2 district has been signed for the year ending April 1, 1905. According to the DuBois Courier the changes made over last year's agreements are as follows:

Pick mining price shall be sixty-two cents per gross ton; machine loading shall be five-ninths of the pick mining rate, plus one half cent a ton; machine cutting and scraping, whether by the day, ton or board, shall be reduced six and six one-hundredths per cent; all other labor inside and outside shall be reduced five and fifty five one hundredths per cent below the present wage scale, with the exceptions of blacksmiths and carpenters receiving less than $2.25 per day, and other outside labor receiving less than $1.85 per day, who shall not be reduced; and providing that blacksmiths and carpenters receiving more than $2.25 shall not be reduced below $2.25 in the application of this reduction. All dead work to be reduced six and six one-hundredths per cent on present rate paid. All monthly men and all those engaged in the manufacture of coke to be reduced five and fifty-five one hundredths per cent on the existing rate.

Indignant Landlady. With a case of beer, a generous supply of whiskey and a phonograph for a "blind" on the landlady, four or five fellows were having a jolly time in a private residence a few Sundays ago. The ruse worked for a while, but finally the lady "smelled a mouse" and she walked into the room before the men had time to remove the bottles of liquor from the table. The woman took in the situation in an instant and also sped a cane within easy reach and quick as a flash she grabbed the cans and with one blow she smashed every bottle on the table, scattering the liquor and broken pieces of glass over the floor. The men were not slow in taking a "sneak."

Commencement Exercises. The commencement exercises of the West Reynoldsville high school will be held in the Reynolds opera house on Tuesday evening, April 26, 1904, beginning at eight o'clock. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached in the Baptist church on Sunday, April 24, at 8.00 p. m., by Dr. John Ballentine, of the Clarion State Normal School. There are seven graduates in the class this year, Harvey Harrison Moyer, June Iva Moore, James Edward Brewer, Dollie Ethel Chittister, Harry Samuel Richards, Sara Caroline Small and Estella May Moyer.

Kindergarten. Miss Janet Snedden, one of the teachers of the first primary grades of our public schools, will conduct a kindergarten after the close of the regular school term. This school will open Monday, May 16, and continue for a period of six weeks. Miss Snedden had a similar school last year and her work was greatly appreciated. Her rate this year will be the same as last, namely, two dollars for the full term of six weeks. The prospects are favorable for a large school this year.

Crushed by Fall of Slate. Angelo Costabla, an Italian, was killed at the DuBois & Butler Brick Co. plant at Falls Creek Monday forenoon by being crushed by a fall of slate. The Courier says Costabla was undermining a ledge of slate rock and the upper edge slid down, burying him beneath a mass of earth and rock, and it took twenty men an hour and a half to recover the body.

Busy Week. District Deputy Thomas E. Evans, of Reynoldsville, installed new officers in the I. O. O. F. lodge at Brookville Monday evening, Falls Creek last night and will install in I. O. O. F. lodge at Lindsay to-night, Punxsutawney Thursday night, Anita Friday night and Elanora Saturday.

Excursion to Pittsburg. On Sunday, April 17, the B., R. & P. R'y will run a cheap excursion from Reynoldsville to Pittsburg and return. Tickets $1.50 for round trip from Reynoldsville. Train leaves here at 7.20 a. m.

Bon Ton Bread. Bon Ton bread will be found fresh every day at the following stores: D. B. & W. B. Stauffer, Star Grocery, Robinson & Mundorf, Jas. A. Tyson, Jefferson Supply Co., Keagles, John Demore.

Trinity Lutheran church, J. W. Myers, pastor. Sunday school 9.30, preaching at 11.00 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Subject of evening's discourse, "Christ's Descent into Hell." Service at Chestnut Grove Lutheran church at 2.30 p. m.

The Cash New York Racket Store will be moved into room of Dr. B. E. Hoover's building now occupied by H. W. Eason & Co.'s store about April 15. Read Dr. Gibson's optical ad.

Curtain poles and fixtures given free with every pair of lace curtains costing $1.00 or more at the Peoples' Bargain Store, A. Katzen, proprietor.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

Arthur Farrell is visiting in Pittsburg.

A. E. Dunn, of Falls Creek, was in town Monday.

Dr. John H. Murray is in Philadelphia this week.

Todd L. Seeley, of DuBois, was in town yesterday.

Charles Young, of Tyler, visited in this place last week.

A. D. Siple spent Sunday with his brother at Croyleland.

John Lowther, jr., of Rimersburg, visited in town this week.

Mrs. N. Chittister is visiting her daughter at St. Marys.

Mrs. C. R. Hall visited her daughter in Brookville Saturday.

Miss Ella Farrell is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. P. Howe, at Arcadia, Pa.

Miss Lucie Blakeslee, of DuBois, was the guest of Miss Dora Reed two days last week.

Miss Emma Roams, of Luthersburg, was the guest of Miss Belle Arnold yesterday.

Frank J. Black, of Bradford, formerly one of our prominent citizens, was in town this week.

G. J. Corwin, who has been at Friendship, N. Y., a few weeks, is in town this week.

Edward Bates, glass cutter employed at Smethport, spent Sunday at his home in this place.

Mr. David Eason, of Brookville, spent Sunday with his son, H. W. Eason, in this place.

Mrs. Price, of DuBois, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Kline, near this place last week.

Lewis Farabaugh, a student in Lehigh University, was a visitor at J. Van Hood's the past week.

Miss Anna Greenhalge, of Venango, Pa., was the guest of Miss Blanch Thornton over Sunday.

James M. Hoffman and wife, of East Brady, visited the former's parents in this place last week.

Mrs. John McDonald, of Falls Creek, visited her sister, Mrs. Richard Taaf, in this place Monday.

J. A. Myers, the harness maker, was at Patton Station and New Bethlehem the first of this week.

Mrs. Samuel Steel, of DuBois, visited her daughter, Mrs. Hildebrand, in this place Saturday.

Miss Mamie Emery, of Brookville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. U. G. Schesafnocker, in this place.

Miss Martha A. Robinson, of Tonawanda, Pa., is visiting her cousin, Miss Lois Robinson, in this place.

Mrs. Frank Kenney, of Pittsburg, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cleer, at this place.

Ex-County Commissioner W. C. Murray and wife and Mrs. John R. Hillis are in Pittsburg this week.

Mrs. John Singer, of St. Marys, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Chittister, in this place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Warner, of Waters, Butler Co., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Tyson last week.

Miss Catherine Baxter, of Baxter, Pa., is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Phalen, in West Reynoldsville.

J. K. Womeldorf, ex-supervisor of Winslow township, went to Buffalo, Ohio, Saturday to visit his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGinness and son, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with the former's parents in this place.

John Winslow was in Bradford Saturday and Sunday, where he joined the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors.

Harold and Miss Nelle Winslow, of DuBois, were visitors with M. H. Still's family in West Reynoldsville last week.

Jonathan Deemer, who has resided in McCalmont township a number of years, moved to Brookville this week.

Rhea Klahr, of Oil City, spent Sunday at home of his uncle and aunt, Burgess and Mrs. L. M. Simmons, on Hill street.

Joseph S. Johnston, editor of the Driftwood Gazette, visited his brother, Jas. K. Johnston, in this place Saturday.

Misses Bertha Brown, Hazel Boyle and Edith Gray, of Punxsutawney, were guests of Miss Maud King over Sunday.

Miss Anna Spear, of Falls Creek, visited her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spear, at this place over Sunday.

Mrs. W. O. Smith, of Punxsutawney, and William Fleming, of Buffalo, N. Y., visited Mr. and Mrs. John S. Smith in this place last Thursday.

George Bowers, Charles Miller, Misses Alice Bowers and Anna Murray, of Big Run, were guests of Dr. J. H. and Miss Olevia Murray Sunday.

Joseph B. Mitchell, of Curwensville, came to Reynoldsville Friday to see his mother, Mrs. Cora Mitchell, who was seriously ill a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Eliza Welsh, of Bradford, who was visiting her brother, Thomas Black, in this place, returned home yesterday.

Charles Dean, of New Kensington visited his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Dean, in Winslow township last week. His mother has been in poor health for several weeks.

M. Geisler, merchant tailor of Stoneboro, Pa., formerly of this place, who has not yet moved his family away from Reynoldsville, spent Sunday and Monday with his family.

John H. Kaucher, Clarence H. Hall and Lawrence J. McEntire attended the regular meeting of Jefferson Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, at Brookville Monday evening.

E. Curt Sensor, who is working his team in McDonald's lumber camp at Laquin, Bradford county, has been at his home in this place the past ten days. He expects to return to camp this week.

Henry B. Clayson, of Kane, spent Sunday at home of his father-in-law, W. F. Marshall, on Hill street. Mrs. Clayson is visiting her parents. She expects to remain here a couple of weeks.

Miss Mary Klahr, student in Oberlin College, Ohio, spent several days of past week with her sister, Miss Anna Klahr, at home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Simmons, on Hill street.

Solomon Shaffer, superintendent of large coal works at Conport, Ky., who still has a lumber office in Reynoldsville, which is in charge of his daughter, Miss Etta Shaffer, was in town several days during the past week.

Mrs. James D. George, who has been at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Siple, in West Reynoldsville several months, went to Blairsville, Pa., yesterday where her husband has employment and where they will reside.

Dr. W. B. Alexander and wife and Miss Fannie Alexander were in Pittsburg for the first of this week. They started for Pittsburg Friday morning but could only get to Red Bank on account of land slides on River Division.

Clarence H. Reynolds, who was at Cresson, Pa., four months, where he had charge of a drug store while the proprietor was in Colorado for benefit of his health, returned to Reynoldsville Monday.

D. W. Atwater, who has been at Altoona and Hollidaysburg for several weeks, spent a couple of days with his family in this place during the past week. Mr. Atwater will institute a Pro-Active Home Circle at Hollidaysburg this week.

Rev. A. D. McKay, of Reynoldsville, preached in the Presbyterian church at this place several evenings this week, assisting Rev. Bradshaw in his services. Rev. McKay is an intelligent and able preacher and gentleman.—Brookwayville Recorder.

J. C. Hutchesin, who has been at the restaurant at Frank's returned Monday from Cambridge Springs, Pa., where he had been six weeks receiving treatment for rheumatism. Mr. Hutchesin says "Squire" M. Davis, who went to Cambridge Springs the first of last week, is gaining strength rapidly.

Flattering Endorsement. Hamburg, March 18, 1904.

"Kuropatkin, Russian Chief General in Far East, late minister war, recognized by three years experience Pittsburg Visible most durable, best machine, ordered Pittsburg exclusively to be used by staff during war in Asia."

This is a very flattering endorsement of the Pittsburg machine when the sharp competition in typewriters is taken into consideration, and the management is to be congratulated. It means that the product of Kittingman workmen will be used in writing all the official correspondence from the Russian army, and is an honor that the typewriter people are justly proud of.

J. H. Stivanson, representative for the Pittsburg Visible in Reynoldsville.

New Bon Ton. Fresh wheat bread, rye bread, Graham bread, entire wheat bread, coffee cakes, cinnamon rolls, doughnuts, buns and a full line of cakes on hand every day at the New Bon Ton.

Prof. J. Warren Gilbert lectured at the opera house Saturday night under auspices of the Midland Fire Company. Quite a good audience was present, and was well pleased with the lecture, which was well delivered. The pictures were excellent.—Midland Press. At Centennial hall Monday evening, April 11, under the auspices of Phil Kearney Camp No. 36, S. of V. Admission 25 and 35 cents.

Clifton Mallory and his big production of "David Garrick" will be seen here soon.

Coats at half price at Millirens.

You cannot mistake in consulting Dr. Gibson if your eyes need care.