

Sykesville.

It has been a long time since the good readers of THE STAR have heard from us, but we are still the same, only proud to say our town is booming greater than any in the county. At present twenty-five new buildings are being constructed. The Cascade Coal and Coke Co. have this week laid out lots for seventy-two double houses. We now have a population of 1,000 people and would have more if there were any room.

V. R. Holman has sold his property to the Cascade C. & C. Co. and is now erecting a very fine residence on west Main street. We are glad to have him with us.

The Rod and Gun Club spent a whole afternoon on Wednesday last to capture one woodchuck. Judd Rupert won the championship in target practice.

"Squire Sykes is six inches taller and fifty pounds heavier and will change his office hours since the arrival of a young Republican at his home.

Mrs. James Hart, of Punxsutawney, and Mrs. Rouben McKinsly, of New Kensington, were visiting friends in this locality during the week.

The Baptist choir has been very much strengthened by the assistance of Harry Judd and John Jones as tenor and W. Loyd, bass.

The M. E. church will observe Children's Day services Sunday evening. A very good programme has been arranged.

Carl Sellar has purchased the interest of his partner in the new pool room and expects to move his family here soon.

Daniel Wise and Bert Long purchased a car load of very fine young cattle and have them on their ranch west of town.

The B., R. & P. have their crews working night and day in order to have their work completed before fall.

V. S. Reed, of St. Marys, has purchased a lot and expects to put up a fine residence and meat market.

We were glad to meet John Buchelt who is home on his vacation from Franklin and Marshall College.

Mr. Bouton has decided to change his position as operator. He expects to go to Big Run.

A large number of people from town took in the excursion to Niagara Falls on Sunday.

Miss Edith Coffman, from Allegheny, is visiting with her brother.

The T. & S. Co. are rapidly pushing their road toward our town.

A number of our merchants are very much afraid that the authorities of Reynoldsville, by having no sales allowed on Sunday, might induce some one to enforce such a law here. This might be too bad.

Harry Null has gone to Adrian hospital for treatment.

Wishaw.

John Welling is excavating a cellar for a new house.

Calvin Diekey spent Sunday with friends in Falls Creek.

Alfred Drauer, of Brookville, called on friends here Sunday.

Samuel Shankle has been at New Bethlehem the past week.

Dr. Cranmer is improving the looks of his house with a coat of paint.

John Hollenbaugh has started in the poultry business. We all wish him success.

We are badly in need of a supervisor around here as the roads are getting very bad.

Miss Pearl Barrett, of Reynoldsville, formerly of this place, was in town on Monday evening.

Rev. J. C. McEntire closed a successful revival meeting at the Bollinger school house Monday evening, being assisted by George White and Harvey Deter, who will preach next Sunday at Paradise and Bollinger school house.

Did you ever think that rents, or rental value was as important an item of value in a building as the materials entering into the construction thereof, and that rents can be insured? We can write you a policy on the rents of your building in the same company and at a lower rate than the building. It would pay you to investigate Rent Insurance.
