L. Loog, of Sykesville, as supervisor to fill the vacancy. The petition will be presented at the August term of court. It is claimed that Mr. Brigham left home about two weeks ago and his whereabouts is unknown.
Walked Home.
Two young men of Reynoldsville drove out into Paradise one evening last week to call on two young ladies who abide under the same roof. The horse was ready to come home before the young men were and it got loose and came home. The young men walked into town, and not finding the horse along the way nor at home, they hired a livery rig and drove back to Paradise looking for their horse and buggy, but failed to find it. They drove to town again and found the rig here.
Eagles Defeated the Elks.
The Eagle and Elk ball teams of this place played a game of ball yesterday afternoon, the second game this season, the Eagles winning both games. The score yesterday was 7-21. Dr. Harry B. King and Joseph Williams were pitchers, and F. O. Sutter catcher for Elks, and William Penelton, of Eleanora, did the pitching for Eagles and David Hill of Rathmel, was catcher. Penelton did good work in the pitcher's box. Two of the Elks' crack players were unable to play, which is the reason given by the Elks for the score being lopsided. According to previous agreement the Elks will have to give the Eagles a banquet.
Force of Habit.
Martin Straitwell and Charles Uplinger, two gentlemen who reside in the neighborhood of Panic, traded horses recently, Mr. Straitwell getting a gray mare in the trade. Mr. Uplinger, who is a regular attendant at church every Sunday, had owned the gray mare sometime and had always driven her to church. Mr. Straitwell tells the following: "The first Sunday morning after I got the mare, about half past nine o'clock, a little after Mr. Uplinger's regular time for church going, I heard a racket in my barn and went out to investigate. I found the mare with the harness on and she was making a desperate effort to get the bridle on, but could not get the bit in her mouth. The mare was getting ready to go to church."
Dr. Neff's Lecture.
Rev. J. Bell Neff, D. D., pastor of the DuBois M. E. church, lectured in the M. E. church at this place Monday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League. "Into the King Row and Crowned" was the subject of his lecture. The evening was warm and the attendance was not as large as it would have been on a cooler evening, but Dr. Neff captivated his audience from beginning of lecture and kept them in such a good humor for an hour and a half that the heat did not annoy them. The lecture was instructive, full of humor, ennobling thoughts and inspiration for a high aim in life. Dr. Neff has the ability to make his illustrations illustrate effectively. It was a good lecture, one of the best delivered in Reynoldsville for some time, and was very much enjoyed by those present.

ANOTHER MOTHER GONE.
Mrs. John Lydon died Sunday—Dropsy Was Cause of Death.
Mrs. John Lydon died at her home in Rathmel at 11:30 a. m. Sunday, July 17, 1904, after three months' illness with dropsy. Her maiden name was Bridget Duffy. She was born in Ireland in December, 1841, and would have been 63 years old next December. She was married to John Lydon in England 42 years ago. About 30 years ago Mr. and Mrs. Lydon came to America. They moved to Reynoldsville 20 years ago and after two years residence in this place, moved to Rathmel, where they have resided 18 years. Mrs. Lydon was a loving wife and mother, a kind neighbor, and faithful Christian. She is survived by her husband, one sister, Mrs. Kelley, of Youngstown, Ohio, two sons and three daughters, as follows: John Jr. and Patrick Lydon, at home, Sister Lucilla, of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. John O'Hare and Miss Kate Lydon, of Reynoldsville.
Funeral service was held in the St. Mary's Catholic church at this place at 9:00 a. m. yesterday. Father Lynch said High Mass. The funeral was largely attended. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery in West Reynoldsville.
F. M. Lucas Dead.
Rathmel, July 18, [Special]—F. M. Lucas, an old citizen of Rathmel, died at his home in Rathmel at 1:30 a. m. Sunday, July 17, 1904. Deceased was born in Centre county, Pa., August 20, 1819, making him almost 85 years old at time of death. He had resided at Rathmel a number of years. Was always the working man's friend. In 1882 he wrote a book entitled "The Working Man's Guide to Home and Happiness." A few years ago he conceived and got a patent on a farm gate, called "Farmer's Friend," that would have been a money maker for the old gentleman had he been successful in getting it properly introduced among farmers.
Mr. Lucas had been a member of the M. E. church for sixty years, and his last words were that he was prepared to go and meet his God in peace.
Deceased is survived by his wife, one brother, Joseph Lucas, of Brookville, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Starr, of Armstrong county, Pa., and Mrs. Smith, of Johnstown, Pa., one daughter, Mrs. Alice Plenner, of Hites, Pa., and five sons, William H. and Robert Lucas, in California, Zachariah Lucas, in Ohio, John and George Lucas, in Rathmel. The community has lost a good citizen, the family a good husband and father. Funeral service was held at his late residence Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. C. McEntire, and interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.
New Park Opened To-Day
The Tom Reynolds orchard, near The Mansion Inn, has been made a park, to be known as Mammoth Park, under the management of John C. Dillman, proprietor of The Mansion Inn. The park will be opened to-day with a basket picnic and dance. A hundred invitations were sent to old citizens of Reynoldsville to attend the opening. Music for dance will be furnished by some of the old time fiddlers of Reynoldsville.
The Sons of Veterans will hold their annual encampment in this park next month.
Trolley Notes.
The Jefferson Traction Company will have the two and one-half mile extension completed from Eleanora to the shaft near Big Run in about two weeks. The work of erecting the new power house at the junction near Prescottville is being pushed along rapidly.
The Jefferson Traction Company will extend its line up Fifth street and down Main street to iron bridge. The track will be laid down Main street before the street is paved.

Card of Thanks.
We hereby express our thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindness and help during the sickness and death of our husband and father.
MRS. F. M. LUCAS AND CHILDREN.

THREE NEW BRICK BUILDINGS.
Penn Land Co., Charles Nelson and John H. Corbett will erect the New Buildings.
The Penn Land Company will buy the old Hotel McConnell site, sixty foot front, on Main street, and erect a two-story brick building this summer to cover the entire front of lot and about 120 feet deep. There will be three store rooms on first floor and the second floor will be fitted up for dwelling rooms. Swartz Bros. will open a large grocery store in the room next to alley.
Charles Nelson, the laundryman, has bought the lot opposite Tappers' livery stable, where two little old wooden buildings now stand, occupied by Sutter's blacksmith shop and a shoe shop. He will tear these old buildings down during the present summer and erect a two-story brick building on that site. The first story will be occupied by Mr. Nelson's laundry, Reynoldsville Steam Laundry, and the second story for dwelling. The building will be 25 x 60 feet.
John H. Corbett has already begun the work on a two-story brick building, 20 x 48 feet, in rear of Centennial hall, facing on Fifth street. The first floor will be occupied by Sam'l Sutter's blacksmith shop and second floor for dwelling.

Mrs. Hettie Myers, wife of James Myers, of this place, while searching for berries on Friday of last week fell and broke her wrist. Mrs. John Warnick, who was with her at the time, thinking it was dislocated, pulled it in place thereby perfectly setting it all but splint and bandages.
Notice.
We have this day sold our stock of hardware and furniture to Messrs. A. P. King, Charles Dinger and August Baldau, to whom we have rented the store room formerly occupied by us for a term of five years. We started in business in Reynoldsville May 5th, 1895. During these nine years we have had a very liberal share of the public patronage. We now take occasion to thank our many friends who have traded with us during these past years both for your patronage and frequent words of encouragement.
We solicit for our successors a liberal share of your patronage. They are all men of integrity, energy and push. We have every reason to believe that you will get as good treatment at their hands as you have in the past when trading with any of the former proprietors of the Reynoldsville Hardware. Again thanking our many friends for all past favors and asking for our successors a continuance of your trade, we remain,
Very truly yours,
F. D. SMITH,
A. T. McCLEURE.
July 19th, 1904.
