Emerickville.

The oats are heavy on the ground. Daniel Dinger has his house finished. Our farmers are doing some plowing. Henry Harriger is in Clarion county this week making hay. Blackberries are plenty in the woods round about Emerickville. Charles Martz and son, John, visited at the home of his parents on Sunday. Some of our people attended the harvest home picnic at Oak Ridge last Thursday. Mrs. Brown and two children, of Marienville, are visiting at the home of I. C. Fleming. William Moore visited his daughter, Mrs. W. A. London, at Sykesville one day last week. It is the intention of P. O. S. of A. to buy the instruments in the near future for a good band. O. F. Haines says he don't know where to put all of his oats. He got four loads off one acre. Mrs. Martin Hoover and Nellie of DuBois, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hoover's sister, Mrs. William Moore. The managers of the ox roast report everything moving along in good shape and all hope for a good day on the 25th. Merl Harriger was in this place several days. Merl is making his home with his uncle Will at Byrne Dale, Elk county. It is a little hard on some of our young men to have to be idle on account of the strike at Fuller. They are waiting patiently for the strike to end. Peter Baum has made quite an improvement of his houses by building a nice porch on it. We understand that Charles Mohny will occupy this house. I don't see why the farmers telephone exchange is not put in at Reynoldsville as the company voted at last meeting to put in an exchange at that place. It seems to me that some one is slack. William Moore and Joseph Zimmerman visited Frederick Ishman on Sunday. Mr. Ishman, who is over eighty years old, is very poorly. He has been a resident of Emerickville for seventy years. The friends of Mrs. W. H. Garnett gave her a surprise party on the 15th instant, that being the twenty-fifth anniversary of her birthday. About eighty of her friends attended the party, carrying well filled baskets. All report having had a good time. Only two weeks until the pastor of the M. E. church, Rev. W. H. Garnett, will go the Erie Annual Conference, which will be held at Titusville, beginning September 7th. Rev. Garnett will preach his last sermon before conference on August 28th. All expect him to return to this place next year.

On Friday of this week James Bracken will leave this place for Chicago, where he will make his home with his sister, Mrs. Cora Riggs. Netta Sherwood thanks the four Reynoldsville boys who gave her twenty-five cents for two sunflowers. Quite a number of people from Sandy Valley attended the Eagle picnic at Highland Park yesterday, Tuesday. We boast of several Eagles here. Homer M. Shtewood, of Westport, Cal., who has been visiting relatives and friends here and in this vicinity for the past three weeks, started on his return journey Thursday of last week. His brother, H. A. What Did the Woggle Bug Say? It's Worth $250 to Know.

Join the Woggle Bug Society and be happy. Men, women and children are eligible to membership. It was organized for the benefit of children only, with the intention of educating and elevating the minds of the young from lessons set down by the merry Woggle Bug and his followers, the Tin Woodman, the Scarecrow and Jack Pumpkinhead. Parents who wished to investigate the society before allowing the children to join, have insisted on becoming members also, and since it was decided to admit all, it is hard to tell who are the most enthusiastic. One thing sure, they all laugh alike and don't have to leave home to do it, either. If you are not ready to join yourself now, see that your children become members, and you will be sure to come in later. No charge for membership fee. For full particulars see the Pittsburg Sunday Dispatch August 28. $250 in prizes.

The Important Thing.

Reynoldsville is getting a new industry now and then that adds much to the prosperity and importance of the town. As a consequence real estate values are advancing rapidly and Reynoldsville is in a fair way to become a manufacturing city of no mean proportions. These industries have been secured by the liberal investment of home capital. It is a matter of faith and courage, without which nothing worth while can be accomplished. If industries will not come you must go after them, if you would have a town. The important thing in the building of a city is to do something to furnish people employment. The rest will be easy. When the working man is looking for a place to locate he naturally selects a community where he can get a job, and the town that can provide jobs for the most people is the best town.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

His Truest Friend.

A man finds his warmest, his most tender, his most unselfish friend in a woman. Possessing no interests that clash with his, she believes in him thoroughly and hopfully, and her great faith in his powers encourages him to be up to her standard of belief. She makes him feel that she truly likes him. Her affection is frank and free, and he appreciates her sympathetic interest, her cheerful looks, her many little womanly ways that make all her surroundings in harmony with herself. If weary, her sensible, quiet talk rests him; if discouraged, she finds a thousand ways to cheer him; if too late, her sound common sense gives him the needed balance. The lamp of friendship burns clear and bright between man and woman—it is by an emotion springing from the best impulses of human nature.—Ridgway Advocate.

The Death Penalty.

Salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25c, at H. Alex Stokes's Drug Store.
