Frank Myers, nephew of Mr. Franke, and son, of Pittsburg, were standing near the open door on barn floor when the lightning struck barn. Both men were knocked down but the elder Myers was so badly shocked that he was unconscious about four hours. The men outside of the barn felt the shock and two of the horses were knocked down. Had the electrical bolt struck the barn two minutes later, all the men and horses would have been in the barn and we would now have to chronicle several

Go to Keystone Hardware Co. for Anchor Brand clover and timothy seed. See the fall blocks in hats at Millirens. Ox Roast

Five or six hundred people attended the ox roast in Schugers' grove, near Emerickville, last Thursday. The attendance would have been larger had it not been for the Punxsutawney fair There was a nice, orderly crowd present and they all seemed to have a pleasant time. One thing sure, they were all busy at noon and a large supply of ox, chicken, roasting ears, &c., disappeared and the supply was not exhausted. The committee of arrangements had provided enough eatables to feed a thousand people. Base ball games and "tripping the light fantastic toe" were the main amusements of the day. Emerickville vs. Reynoldsville ball teams played a game in the forenoon, resulting in a score of 10-8 in favor of Emerickville Another game was played in the after noon resulting in favor of Emerickville score 21-4. Another Reynoldsville club arrived in time to play a five-inning game, beginning about 4.00 p. m. with a picked up nine from Emerickville and other places. The Reynoldsville boys went down in defeat. Score 4-2.

The ox roast was gotten up by the P. O. S. of A. of Emerickville for the purpose of raising money to buy horns to start a brass band at that place They cleared about $75.00. The hard rain about 5.30 p. m. made a scatterment of the crowd and shut off the anticipated receipts in the evening. The rain came on the people so unex pectedly that the starch was taken out of a number of summer dresses.

There are enough bright young men in Emerickville and vicinity to organize a good brass band, and there is no reason why that village should not have a band to be proud of.

Gospel Wagon.

Rev. J. W. Harrison and wife, of New York City, arrived in Reynoldsville yesterday afternoon in a one-horse covered wagon, in which they have traveled from New York to Atlanta Ga., and are now on the return trip The wagon is equipped for light house keeping. Rev. Harrison is a relative of Ex-President Harrison. The wagon was stopped in front of the City Hotel, where it re mained all night. Rev. Harrison gave a talk from rear end of his traveling wagon last eyening. The old couple sell potato pairers to get expense money.

There was a christening at Florence and a large number of Italians were intoxicated. It has not been learned yet who shot Muratta, and probably never will be.

Pickpockets.

A number of people had their pockets picked at the Punxsutawney fair last week, and no doubt the same light fingered chaps will be at Brookville fair this week engaged at the same business, therefore, it is not wise for any person to attend the fair with a fat pocket book. A. J. Sprague, of Henderson township, was among the victims at Punxs'v. He lost $30.00.

It might be of interest to our Methodist readers to know that Rev. H. H. Barr was married a few weeks ago and that Rev. L.S. Todd has accepted a call to Los Angles, Cal., and will move there next month. These two young men assisted Rev. Reno in the success ful revival held in the Reynoldsville M. E. church the early part of this year
