Why we Sell THELMA

BECAUSE WE believe it is the finest perfume we can get. Because everyone who tries it buys it again. Because we are here to sell good things in the drug line and people come here expecting to find the best, whatever it may be. So when they ask us for perfume we show them a good line of choice odors—and Thelma the finest of all. May we show you THELMA?

Fuller announcements concerning this year's lecture course to be conducted by the public schools will soon be made public. There will be five attractions, consisting of music, lectures and readings. Every effort has been put forth to get first class attractions, each number being especially strong in itself, so that the whole course will be not only entertaining, but also highly instructive and edifying.

Emma D. Lemon, a graduate of the Boston School of Elocution and Expression, now superintendent of the Memorial Home at Brookville, will give an entertainment in the Reynolds opera house on Tuesday evening, October 11, under the auspices of the Women's Relief Corps of Reynoldsville. Mrs. Lemon gives humorous and pathetic readings and is highly spoken of. Press notices will be published later.

Nine-month-old daughter of Joel Bliss died in this place Wednesday, September 21st, 1904. The little body was taken to Brookwayville on the noon train Friday for interment. Short funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Kempse at 11:00 a. m., conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno. Mr. Bliss moved his household goods from Brookwayville to West Reynoldsville the day his daughter died and was not present when the child died.

Before leaving Reynoldsville Rev. P. A. Reno very kindly donated to the museum of the public schools a fine collection of Indian arrows and specimens of stalagmite and stalactite taken from the Mammoth Cave and relics found on the Chickamauga and Lookout Mountain battlefields. These specimens and relics will soon be labelled and placed in the museum. The schools are fortunate in receiving this valuable donation from Rev. Reno and the authorities gratefully appreciate his interest in their welfare.

DIED IN ADRIAN HOSPITAL.

James Kempse Died From Burns Received on Evening of Sept. 16.

James F. Kempse, sewing machine agent, whose legs were badly burned when his house was partly destroyed by fire on the evening of September 16, died in the Adrian Hospital at 2:00 p. m. Sunday, September 25, 1904, from tetanus, produced by the burns received. It was first thought that Mr. Kempse was not dangerously burned, but on Monday last week he was taken to the Adrian hospital, where he died, as stated above.

Priestor Bros., undertakers, brought the body from the hospital to their undertaking rooms in this place Sunday night and kept it there until Tuesday when body was taken to Mrs. Kempse's residence, where funeral service will be held this afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. A. Parsons. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery.

James Kempse was born at Landsport, Pa., January 19, 1841, and was 63 years, 8 months and 6 days old. He came to Reynoldsville about twenty-five years ago. Was married to Mrs. Catherine Z. Kline February 18, 1882. Mrs. Kempse and one son, James, survive the deceased.

Will be Married To-Day.

Distilling Company.

A company has been organized, to be known as the Reynoldsville Distilling Co., with George Hughes as president, to start a distillery in this place. The old creamery property on Fourth street has been bought for the distillery plant. The building will be raised one story higher and the first story will be built of brick. A notice for an application for a charter appears in this issue of THE STAR.

Democratic Candidates.

At a Democratic congressional conference held in Kittanning on Wednesday of last week A. C. Smith, of Sigel, Jefferson county, was nominated as candidate for congress in this district, and at a senatorial conference held in Puxsuttawney on Thursday of last week Lawyer J. H. Hill, of Indiana, was given the nomination for state senator in this district.

Moved Into Arnold Block.

Rev. J. A. Parsons, new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, has moved into one of the flats in the Arnold block, where he will reside a few months. The parsonage will have to be moved from its present site to make room for the new church the Methodists propose to erect and the trustees decided to move the parsonage, build an addition to it, put in a bath room and make it a very comfortable house before Rev. Parsons moved into it, and for that reason he moved into the Arnold block.

Surprise Party.

Joseph Mitchell, of Rathmel, who returned on the 17th inst. from a three month's visit with kinsfolk in England, the land of his nativity, was given a surprise party on Thursday evening, 22nd inst. There were 75 friends present, a number of whom were from Reynoldsville. It was a very agreeable surprise for Mr. Mitchell and a very pleasant social event for those present. Mr. Mitchell was presented with a handsome rocking chair. Refreshments were served. The Reynoldsville people did not get home until about 2:00 a. m. Friday.

"Wildcat" Reunion.

The various committees that have been appointed to make arrangements for the reunion of the 105th regiment to be held in Reynoldsville Thursday, October 20, are taking an active part in the matter and things look very favorable for the surviving members of the "Wildcat" regiment to have one of the best reunions they have ever had. The town will be decorated, good speakers have been engaged, the Keystone band will furnish music, the members of the 105th will be given a free dinner, in fact everything possible will be done to give the old soldiers a pleasant day.

False Fire Alarm.

A false fire alarm was sent in from the silk mill about ten minutes after six last evening to see what quick time could be made in getting to a fire with the new hose wagon. A team of horses had just been unhitched from a cab at Burns' livery stable and had harness on yet when alarm was given and the team was hitched into hose wagon and started for the fire. Mr. Dawson, superintendent of silk mill, says it was just four minutes from time alarm was given until the firemen had the hose attached and water turned on at silk mill. Only a couple of the firemen and Mr. Dawson knew that the speed of the fire company was to be tested. Bert Burns, who drove the team, did not know anything about the arrangements and he drove like Jehu. It certainly required very quick work to hitch a team to wagon, drive to silk mill, attach hose to plug and have water turned on in four minutes.

GRANDMOTHER COLEMAN DEAD.

Died Suddenly While Visiting A Sister in Clarion County.

Mrs. Catherine A. Coleman, mother of M. C. Coleman and mother-in-law of Dr. J. C. King, of this place, who has been making her home at Dr. King's for several years, died at 1:00 a. m. Sunday, September 25, 1904, at the home of a sister, Mrs. Jacob Blittenbender, near Cursville, Clarion Co., with whom she was visiting. Heart trouble was cause of her death. Mrs. Coleman had been visiting in Clarion county three weeks and had been enjoying comparatively good health and the announcement of her death was a great shock to her relatives and friends in Reynoldsville. M. C. Coleman and wife went to Cursville Sunday afternoon. Dr. J. C. King, Dr. Harry B. King, Dr. DeVere King, Charles, Frank, Craig and Miss Katherine King and Miss Elva Coleman went to Cursville Tuesday to attend the funeral, which was held in the German Reform church at Salem at 10:00 p. m. yesterday and interment took place at the cemetery near church beside the body of her husband.

Mrs. Catherine Brinker was born in Clarion county, Pa., May 11, 1826, and was 78 years old last May. June 30, 1848, she was married to Jonathan Coleman, who died June 30, 1893. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Coleman five sons and three daughters were born, the three daughters and one son preceeding the mother into the Eternal Land. Mrs. D. M. Sample, who died in Reynoldsville about twenty-three years ago, and Mrs. Dr. J. C. King, who died in this place in June of last year, were daughters of the deceased. The four sons that survive their mother are: M. C. Coleman, Reynoldsville, J. I. Coleman, of Ray, Arizona, Dr. J. W. Coleman, of Jerome, Arizona, and B. F. Coleman, of Kingsville, Clarion Co., Pa. Mrs. Coleman had been a faithful member of the German Reform church from early in life. She was a noble christian woman; had lovable disposition and had the faculty of making warm friends of all who become acquainted with her. She was ready for the summons from this life.

"Dandy" Hose Wagon.

Hope Fire Company's new hose wagon is now here and it is a "dandy." It is the latest improved hose cart or wagon. It cost almost five hundred dollars. It is made to be drawn by one or two horses, but the fire company expect to buy one large horse for exclusive use of hauling the cart, providing the borough will pay the expense of keeping the horse. At present the cart is at Burns' livery stable as there is no other place to keep it. Hose house No. 1 is not large enough for the new hose wagon, the hook and ladder wagon and the old hose carts.

The borough cannot get along without a fire company and our firemen do not get paid for their service, therefore, the borough should encourage the fire companies by providing suitable buildings for hose houses and should pay the expense of keeping a horse for hauling the hose cart to and from fires. No doubt our councilmen will provide for these things.

Night School.

Evening sessions will be held in the Reynoldsville Business College beginning October 3 and ending April 3. Instruction will be given in bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, the common branches, elocution, physical culture and music. The plan of instruction will be purely individual, enabling all who wish to enter, regardless of previous education. Sessions will be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings of each week. Hours 7:30 to 9:30. Students in the evening sessions will receive the same instruction as that given to day students.

Expenses.—Bookkeeping, 6 months' course, $18. Shorthand, 6 months' course, $18. Common branches, 6 months' course, $18. Supplies for bookkeeping, shorthand and the common branches furnished free of charge. Music, 20 lessons, $10. Elocution, 24 lessons, $10. Physical culture, 25 lessons, $10.

MURDER AT SYKESVILLE.

Pasquale Pellegrino Murdered for His Money—Murderer in Jail.

Sunday morning the dead body of Pasquale Pellegrino, Italian, was found lying alongside the railroad track near Sykesville with three or four bullet holes in the body. It was evident that the man had been murdered for his money, as he had been carrying something like one hundred dollars in cash and check in his pants leg, and his pants had been ripped open and the money was gone.

Francesco Cefali, an Italian who had been seen with Pellegrino Saturday evening, was suspected of the crime and was arrested in DuBois Sunday night. When arrested he was in company of Giovanni Cefali. Francesco was searched but did not have any money about his clothing. Giovanni was searched and a roll of money was found on him which Francesco had given him at noon Sunday. The men were taken to Sykesville and given a hearing before Squire Sykes. At the hearing it was proven that the roll of money—$20.00 gold piece, with special mark on it, $20.00 bill, and two $5.00 bills and a check for $43.00, were the property of the murdered man. After hearing the evidence and verdict of the coroner's jury, Francesco Cefali was committed to the county jail at Brookville on the charge of murder. Giovanni was taken to jail so that he could be found without reference when wanted as a witness. Constable C. M. Leach took the two men to jail Monday afternoon.

Pasquale Pellegrino was about 45 years old. He leaves a wife and two children in Italy. Francesco Cefali is about 21 years old.

The body of Pellegrino was buried in the Catholic cemetery at this place yesterday afternoon. Undertaker J. H. Hughes had charge of the funeral.

REPUBLICAN RALLY!

Ox Roast, Clam Bake, Torch Light Procession, Political Speeches.

Friday afternoon and evening of next week, October 7, there will be a big Republican rally, ox roast and clam bake at Reynoldsville. The ox roast and clam bake will be held in the Mammoth Park under the auspices of Fire Company No. 2, afternoon and evening. There will be a torch light procession in the evening and speeches in Centennial hall after the parade. Gen. Thomas Stewart and Col. Ned Arden Flood are two of the speakers already booked. There will be other speakers present, including an Italian speaker from Pittsburg. If the weather is favorable there will be large delegations from Brookville, DuBois, Falls Creek, Puxsuttawney, Sykesville, Soldier and Rathmel. It is expected this will be the largest Republican rally ever held in the county.

Hon. John P. Elkin and other prominent Republicans will attend the rally. A marching club was organized Monday evening with W. W. Wiley as president, Dr. J. C. Sayers vice-president, L. L. Gourley secretary and Daniel Brewer treasurer.

Persons wanting to join the Republican marching club will find the enrollment paper at Kirchartz's cigar store.

The officers of the organization that has charge of the rally are: President, U. G. Scheafnocker; vice-presidents, Herbert E. Burns and A. W. Sykes; secretary, Charles S. Kirchartz; treasurer, Daniel Brewer.

Postmaster Edward C. Burns was elected chief marshal for the rally at this place.

Reception Last Night.

Rev. J. A. Parsons, new pastor of the M. E. church, and family were given a reception in the lecture room of the church under the auspices of the Epworth League. Arthur Tysoe presided. S. S. Robinson made the opening prayer. There was a large crowd present. The address of welcome was given by Harvey Deter, followed by everybody shaking hands with Rev. Parsons and family. After an intermission of a few minutes Mr. Tysoe called the people to order and a short program was given, consisting of song by a quartette, Messrs. John Reddick and Will Trudgen and Misses Lizzie and Flora Northey; solo, Miss Grace Beck; duet, Mrs. J. W. Gillespie and Mrs. H. Alex Stoke; address by pastor; another selection by quartette; hymn and benediction.

Rev. and Mrs. Parsons have two sons and one daughter, Percy, Harold and Mary.
