This beautiful custom was inaugurated by the League four or five years ago and the attendance of old folks is generally large and all denominations of town are represented in the congregation on "old folks' day." Those that are not able to walk to and from the church are provided with carriages. A committee of young people meet the old folks in the vestibule of the church, give them s hearty welcome, pin a beautiful flower on their bosom and then turn them over to another com-

AROUSED MUCH INTEREST.

Large Crowds Present at Two Hardware Stores Saturday when Two Stoves were Given Away.

The Keystone flardware Company and the Reventdsville Hardware Company appropried that they would give free tickets for a chance on a hot blast stove that would be given away at their respective stores last Saturday afternoon and for the purpose of having a crowd present it was stated on the tickets that unless the person holding the lucky ticket would present the same in twenty minutes after the winning number was announced that another Miss L. Grace Beard has completed ground. A large crowd witnessed the drawing would be made. The Keystone Hardware Co. set 3 00 p. m. Saturday as the time for giving away the stove at their store and the Reynoldsville Hardware Hardware Co.'s hour was 3.30. At three o'clock between three and four hundred people were anxiously awaiting in front of the Keystone Hardware Co. store, each one hoping that they held the lucky number that would give them a $17.00 stove for nothing. Lawyer Clement Flynn made a short and spley address in which he sounded the praises of the Cole's Hot Blast to be given away by the Keystone Hardware Co. Prof. D. S. Bacon had charge of the drawing and John Scheafnocker, who was blindfolded, drew the tickets out of the box. The seventy-seventh ticket taken out of box was to draw the stove. It required three drawings to get the stove, as no one in the crowd presented the first two numbers drawn within the time limit. The first number was 25,182, second number 24.184 and third number, beld by Charles Robertson, who was present and got the stove, was 24,952. There were over 2,000 tickets given out.

After the first drawing at Keyston the crowd moved up to the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store where a Peninsular Hot Blast stove was to be given away on the same conditions as the stove at Keystone Hardware Co. store. Charles S. Kirchartz had charge of the drawing at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store. Aileen Nolan, who was blindfolded, drew out the tickets and the twenty-seventh one was to be the winning ticket. Thomas Sharp held the lucky number, 1,781, and got the Peninsular Hot Blast, There were about 2,400 tickets out at this store.

Postoffice Robbed.

The postoffice at Sykesville was robbed about two o'clock last Thursday morning and the bold robbers got over $300,00 worth of stamps and a small amount of money. They dynamited the safe and the explosion awakened John Jones, who sleeps over the postoffice and whose life was saved by the robbers locking him in his room before the safe was blown open, for had Mr. Jones ran down stairs, as he attempted to do and found the door locked, he certainly would have been murdered by the quartette engaged in the robbery. Mr Jones shot at the robbers from second story window as they started away from the postoffice and they promptly returned the compliment. Postmaster S. B. Long was aroused by the racket and got out in time to fire a few shots at the robbers and to have them fire a few shots at him. The robbers escaped in the darkness.

Mr. Long came to Reynoldsville P. A. Cashman ; left end, Frances Me. Thursday morning to get enough Pittsburg, editor of La Trinacria, at Donald : quarter back, Jos. Williams : stamps to do business in the postoffice until Uncle Sam sends a new supply of stamps.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

LARGE CROWD, RED FIRE, BRASS BANDS, TORCHLIGHT PARADE.

Hon. John P. Elkin and Several Other Prominent Politicians Were

Present. The largest Republican rally bold in Jefferson county for some years was the one at Reynoldsville last Friday evening. The town was nicely decorated for the occasion, the weather was fine, and a good natured and enthusiastic crowd swarmed on the streets in the evening. U. G. Sheafnocker, chairman, and other members of the committees who had charge of the rally can congratulate themselves on the fact that the rally was a success

Hon, John P. Elkin, Senator John S. risher, Congressman W. O. Smith, Gen. Thomas J. Stewart, Col. Ned Arden Flood, and a number of prominent Republican politicians of Jefferson county came into town on the 2.00 p. m. car over the Jefferson Traction Co. line, were met at the trolley station by the Keystone band and members of the reception committee and were excerted to the Mammoth Park where an afternoon meeting was to be held. The growd was not large at the park and after a short speech by Senator Fisher and a few remarks by Mariano Cancelliere the meeting adjourned and most all present went to the ball ground to see the game of football between the "Indians" of Reynoldsville and a Du Bols team.

Early in the evening people began coming into town and by the time the last excursion train over B. R. & P. from DuBois and Falls Creek arrived a little after eight o'clock there was an immense crowd on the streets. Immedlately after the arrival of train from DuBois the torchlight procession was formed in line and the large parade started up Main street. Horsemen. three brass bands, drum corps, march ing clubs from DuBois, Falls Creek, Punxsutawney, Reynoldsville, and a number of men from Brookville, Rathmel, Soldier and other nearby towns were in the parade. The Falls Creek and Punxsutawney brass bands accompanied the marching clubs from those places. The Falls Creek club, in their natty suits, made the best appearance of any club in the parade. Captain Leahy rode proudly ahead of the Falls Creek club. All evening red fire, tin horns, cowbells, &c., were in evidence. After the torchlight procession a meeting was held in Centennial hall. County Chairman W. T. Darr, of Brookville, called the meeting to order and introduced Lawyer Lex N. Mitchell. of Punxsutawney, who presided. About twenty-five vice-presidents were appointed and newspaper representative of the county were appointed as secretaries. After a song by the Roose velt Glee Club of DuBols, Col. Ned Ar den Flood, of Meadville, was introduced. He delivered an enthusiastic address. Col. Flood is a fluent and elequent talker. Gen. Thomas J. Stewart, of Montgomery county, was the second speaker introduced and his speech was heartily received. After Gen. Stewart concluded his speech a cry went up for Elkin to speak and he responded. He gave the andience more of a neighborly talk than a political speech. The last speaker was Mariano Cancelliere, of Italian newspaper.

About eleven o'clock the excursion trains left for Brookville, Falls Creek, DuBois and Punxsutawney.

Good Entertainment. The entertainment given in the opera house last evening by Mrs. Emma D. Lemon, elocutionist, under the aus pices of the Women's Relief Corps of Revnoldsville, was a refined and firstclass entertainment, highly enjoyed by those present. The program consisted of humorous and pathetic selection and Mrs. Lemon mastered the selections thoroughly. "Searching for the Slain" was rendered so life-like and realistic that some of the audience was moved to tears. Mrs. J. W. Gillesple sang two solos and Charles Wisor gave a recita-
