

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1904.

"IF IT'S WORTH HAVING, WE'RE THE FIRST TO HAVE IT."

Huyler's Chocolates and Bon-Bons.

Cailler's Genuine Swiss Milk Chocolate.

Mary Elizabeth's Nut Taffy.

Chicklets.

Golden Rod Chocolates, and

Mixed Candies at

Stoke's Pharmacy.

A Little of Everything.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Connelly October 24, 1904, a ten pound son. Walter B. Reynolds went to Philadelphia last night on a pleasure trip. The Reynoldsville Hardware Co. has opened a branch store at Sykesville. The Daughters of Rebekah held a social in their lodge rooms last evening. A man who was too drunk to walk was taken to the lock-up on a wheelbarrow Saturday afternoon. Miss Maude Jennings entertained a number of young friends on Wednesday evening of last week. The Utopia Society will hold a social at the home of Burgess L. M. Simmons on Friday evening of this week. A. J. Postlethwait, who moved from Reynoldsville to Rostraver a couple of months ago, has typhoid fever. Nelson Goodhile, who has been an employe at the silk mill three years, has accepted a position at Erie, Pa. James Tapper and wife, of Logan's Ferry, Pa., are visiting the former's brother, Thomas Tapper and family. The drum corps and a few Republicans from this place attended the Republican meeting at Rathmel last evening. A meeting of the Mothers' Club will be held in the library of the public school building at 3.30 p. m. next Friday, October 28. The members of Hope Fire Company who attended Wm. Degnan's funeral yesterday wore their new uniforms. They are very pretty uniforms. W. J. Morrison, who bought James Catbourn's property on Jackson street, has moved into it. Mr. Morrison's last residence was Independence, Oregon. S. Taylor North, of Punxsutawney, Republican candidate for Assembly, called at THE STAR office last Thursday while attending the old soldiers' reunion. Mr. and Mrs. James Warnock, of Alvy, West Va., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Fisher on Hill street the past week. Mr. Warnock is a brother of Mrs. Fisher. John Heemer brought a half bushel of the finest potatoes to THE STAR office Saturday we have seen this year. All large potatoes, called "Bug Proof" potato. Mr. Heemer has our thanks for the potatoes.

E. P. Johnston and wife, of Corsica, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnston, in West Reynoldsville. Mrs. Kansas Cooper and daughter, Ida, of Brockwayville, were the guests of Mrs. J. K. Johnston on Grant street a day last week. Reynoldsville and Desire foot ball teams played a game on the Reynoldsville grounds last Thursday afternoon. Score 21-0 in favor of the Reynoldsville team. Henry A. Bonnett, of Soldier, and Nora Wallace, of Connellsville, were married by Squire E. Neff at his office on Main street at high noon on Thursday, October 20, 1904. It was Rev. J. W. Crawford, of Sykesville, who exchanged pulpits with Dr. Meek last Sunday. It was stated in THE STAR last week that Rev. Williams would exchange pulpits with Dr. Meek. The Reynoldsville Steam Laundry has been moved into the new brick building opposite the postoffice, built especially for the laundry. The building has not been completed yet, but the laundry is running any how. Mrs. A. P. King went to Lock Haven last week to visit relatives and Monday morning Mr. King received a message calling him to Lock Haven on account of the serious illness of his wife, who had been taken to the hospital. Prof. Clarence Hines will give a "Happy Hooligan Ball" at Frank's Pavilion next Monday night, October 31st. "Happy Hooligan Balls" are making a hit in other towns. Dancing school and ball every Monday evening. J. H. Crawford, superintendent of the Prudential Life Insurance Co. work at this place, lost a pocket book last Thursday in which was $130.00 in cash and checks. An advertisement will be found in THE STAR want and lost column. William Copping, who has been in the grocery business opposite the Burns House sixteen years, has sold his store and building to John DaMore, who takes charge the 22nd of next month. Mr. Copping has not decided yet just what he will do. Eliza, pretty and bright daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lorenz, aged 8 years, 3 months and 13 days, died Wednesday, October 19th, 1904, at 9.30 p. m., from diphtheritic croup. Interment took place in Catholic cemetery Thursday afternoon. Two other children of Mr. Lorenz have diphtheria. On account of three cases of diphtheria developing among pupils of the primary department of the parochial school in two weeks, the primary room of that school was closed last Thursday noon and will not be opened again until the first of next week. The room will be well fumigated before it is opened again. An excursion train will be run from Reynoldsville to DuBois over the R. & F. C. R'y Saturday evening to accommodate the people who want to attend the Republican rally at that place. Train leaves Reynoldsville at 7.00 p. m. and returning will leave DuBois about 11.00 p. m. Round trip tickets 40 cents. Rev. A. D. McKay is at Worthington, Pa., this week assisting the pastor of the Presbyterian church at that place in special service and will not be home for Sunday service. Rev. D. L. Dickey will preach in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church Sunday morning and there will be no preaching in the church in the evening. A freight wreck occurred on the P. R. R. near Bonnezette Saturday evening. Nine cars were piled up. A broken flange caused the wreck. Passengers were transferred. Another freight wreck occurred near Heathville Sunday afternoon, delaying the train due here at 9.50 p. m. one hour and a half. No person injured in either wreck. The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh R'y will run their annual fall excursion to Pittsburgh Sunday, Nov. 6th, affording an opportunity for a pleasant day's outing in the "Iron City" and ample time to visit the grand chrysanthemum display in Phipps' Conservatory, also Carnegie Library and Art Gallery. Special train will leave Falls Creek 7.50 a. m. Cyrus Thomas, aged 82 years, of Scotch Hill, Pa., Adam Potter, aged 88 years, Wm. Terwillinger, Mrs. Clara Wing, Mrs. Ada Dougherty and daughter, Miss Maud, all of Fisher, Pa., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Reynolds on Grant street the past week. The two old gentlemen were members of the 105th regiment and came here to attend the reunion on the 20th last. Mrs. P. J. Heller, of Brookville, sister of C. F. and J. J. Hoffman, of this place, died at her home Friday morning, October 22nd, 1904. Typhoid fever was cause of death. Mr. Heller and one son are down with the fever. Seven children are left motherless, the youngest 24 years old and the oldest 15 years. Funeral was held at Brookville Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hoffman and three sons, James J. Hoffman, Misses Maggie Hoffman and Anna Martin, of this place, attended the funeral.

WILLIAM DEGNAN DIED SUNDAY. John M. Hays, who was elected assessor in this borough at the February election has resigned and William Copping wants to be appointed to fill the vacancy. He already has a long list of names on a petition for the appointment. Working Without Snappers. The glass plant was started at this place Sunday night with a full force of men with the exception of snappers, who refuse to work for a reduction from last year's price. The plants at Brookville and several other places are also working without snappers. Halloween Parade. There will be a halloween parade in Reynoldsville next Monday evening. Parade will form on Fourth street, near Main st., at 8.30. Everybody who can, is invited to put on a mask and join in the parade. A prize will be given to the person having on the most unique mask. Public Meeting. A public meeting will be held in Centennial hall on Friday evening of this week, October 28, at 7.45, to arrange for starting a Y. M. C. A. in Reynoldsville. Everybody, especially the young men and business men, are invited to attend this meeting. Secretary from DuBois Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the meeting. Lewis-McGiffin. Herbert G. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lewis, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Mayme Belle McGiffin, of Brookville, were married at the home of the bride's parents in Brookville Wednesday evening, October 19, 1904, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Rev. J. T. Adams, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, officiated. Herbert's many friends in Reynoldsville extend congratulations and best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will reside in Brookville. Scott-Morton Nuptials. A quiet wedding took place at the Baptist parsonage yesterday, Oct. 25, 1904, at about 3.30 p. m., at which time William Andrew Scott, of Prescotville, and Miss Minnie Morton, of Soldier, were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Effie Earley, of Reynoldsville, and John Laverick, of Soldier. The happy young people have the best wishes of their many friends who wish them a pleasant journey through life. New Commandery. Bethany Commandery No. 83, Knight Templars, will be instituted at DuBois to-day. About twenty Knight Templars of Reynoldsville, who were members of Ridgway and other Commanderies, have withdrawn their membership and will join Bethany Commandery. Dr. John H. Murray, of Reynoldsville, has been selected as Sir Captain General for first term and will be installed with the other officers to-day. The Knight Templars of Reynoldsville will take their ladies with them to attend the big banquet to-night. Barn Burned. The large barn of Harry Craven, on the old Peter Cox farm near Pardus, was burned Monday afternoon. The barn was full of the summer crops. Nothing saved. Mr. Craven was away from home at time of fire. It is supposed to have been set on fire, as a strange man was seen at the barn a short time before the fire was discovered. The barn was built by Peter Cox in 1808. The roof was made of hand-shaved shingles, the handwork of W. T. Cox, of Reynoldsville, and was yet in good condition after standing the storms of thirty-six years. Fulton Henry Dead. J. Fulton Henry, an old citizen of Rathmel and father of Mrs. L. G. Lidle, of Reynoldsville, died at his home on the Henry farm at noon Saturday, October 22, 1904. Stomach trouble was cause of his death. He had been in poor health several years, but was confined to the house two months before he died. Funeral service was held at the residence at 2.30 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. J. E. Dean. Interment was made in Prospect cemetery. Deceased is survived by five sons and five daughters. He was almost 71 years old. His second wife died about five years ago. "Hello" Girls Meet. Saturday afternoon eleven young ladies who are employed as operators in the central offices of Summerville Telephone Company met at Reynoldsville to have a social time together. They all took supper at Hotel Imperial. Following are the names of the fair maidens: Edith Hight, Harriet Leshner, Pearl Harris, of DuBois, Frances Delaney, of Falls Creek, Mayme McDowell, Clara Hawthorne, Anna Truman, of Brookville, Pearl Calkitt, Mary Morgan, of Punxsutawney, Unita Farrell and Lena Black, of Reynoldsville. Some person reported to a DuBois paper that the girls had met here for the purpose of organizing a union, and even gave the names of the officers elected, but it was a false report. The girls were simply out for a good time. No intention of organizing a union.

WILD CATS' REUNION MANY OLD VETERANS PRESENT AND HAD A GOOD TIME. A Large Parade was the Feature of the Day.—Officers Elected and Punxsutawney Chosen for Reunion in 1905. The seventeenth annual reunion of the 105th Pennsylvania Volunteers, known as the "Wild Cat" regiment, held at Reynoldsville last Thursday, October 20, was, according to statements made by a number of old veterans, the most enjoyable reunion the 105th ever held. The weather was fine, a beautiful autumn day, the town was elaborately decorated and the citizens gave the old soldiers a hearty and cordial welcome. The old heroes registered at C. C. Gibson's store and the members of the 105th were given beautiful souvenir badges. All old soldiers were given badges by F. A. McConnell. There were 207 soldiers registered, 125 members of the 105th and 82 from other regiments. At noon the soldiers formed in line in front of Hotel Imperial and, headed by a drum corps, marched to the Reynolds Park where a free and good dinner was given to the old soldiers and their wives. Three hundred dinners were given away. Five hundred dinners were served. The Women's Relief Corps had charge of the dinner. At 2.00 p. m. the old veterans and Sons of Veterans formed in line on Fourth street, between Main and Grant streets. When the line was formed it was made up of Keystone band, one hundred and fifty old veterans, two drum corps and three Sons of Veterans Camps, DuBois, Punxsutawney and Reynoldsville, a tally-ho and several carriages in the rear with old soldiers not able to stand the march. L. J. McEntire was chief marshal and George W. Stoko, jr., assistant. These gentlemen rode on horseback. It was a nice looking parade. Conspicuous in the parade was the bullet riddled flag of the 105th that had been in many hard fought battles. The soldiers marched up Main street to Seventh, up Seventh to Grant and up Grant to public school house where the soldiers halted and the school children marched out of the building with flags in their hands. The school children sang, "Star Spangled Banner." It was a happy thought to have the old veterans and school children meet in that manner and was very much appreciated by the veterans. The paraders returned over the same route and disbanded at corner of Main and Fourth streets. A business meeting was held in Centennial hall immediately after the parade. The following officers were elected for ensuing year: President, Col. Levi Bird Duff, of Pittsburg; vice-president, Thomas K. Hastings, of Punxsutawney; recording secretary, Captain S. A. Craig, of Brookville; secretary, Mr. Neale, of Punxsutawney. The eighteenth reunion will be held in Punxsutawney in October 1905. A large crowd attended and enjoyed the camp fire in Centennial hall in the evening, which was presided over by Col. Levi Bird Duff. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Reynoldsville Baptist church, and responded to by Col. Duff on behalf of the veterans. Captain S. A. Craig, of Brookville, and Lawyer W. M. Fairman, advertised speakers, were present and performed the duty assigned them. After these gentlemen had acquitted themselves creditably Col. Goheen, of New Bethlehem, and several other colonels and captains tried to outdo each other in telling "fibbs." The Keystone band was present and entertained the audience with four or five selections. All things considered this was a successful and delightful reunion, for which the committees in charge of it deserve credit. Republican Rally at DuBois. There will be a Republican rally at DuBois next Saturday evening, October 29. Good speakers have been secured and a large demonstration is expected. A special train will be run from here to DuBois, starting at 7.00 p. m. Forty cents the round trip. Bull Dog Boots. We are sole selling agents for the Bull Dog gum boots; best boot on the market to-day. Prices no higher than the common kinds. Bing-Stoke Co. New fall suits at Millirens. Selz footwear outwear elsewhere everywhere. Sold at Harmon's shoe store. School caps at Millirens. Retort Penicular hot blast stove is now in big demand. It's a hummer. For sale by the Reynoldsville Hardware Company. Children's Wooltex garments at Millirens. We are offering some big bargains in china. Come and see them. C. E. Hoffman. New fall neckwear at Millirens. Lost—Silver belt pin; between Evans' store and Hotel Imperial. See the new outing flannels at Millirens.

Hays Resigned. John M. Hays, who was elected assessor in this borough at the February election has resigned and William Copping wants to be appointed to fill the vacancy. He already has a long list of names on a petition for the appointment. Working Without Snappers. The glass plant was started at this place Sunday night with a full force of men with the exception of snappers, who refuse to work for a reduction from last year's price. The plants at Brookville and several other places are also working without snappers. Halloween Parade. There will be a halloween parade in Reynoldsville next Monday evening. Parade will form on Fourth street, near Main st., at 8.30. Everybody who can, is invited to put on a mask and join in the parade. A prize will be given to the person having on the most unique mask. Public Meeting. A public meeting will be held in Centennial hall on Friday evening of this week, October 28, at 7.45, to arrange for starting a Y. M. C. A. in Reynoldsville. Everybody, especially the young men and business men, are invited to attend this meeting. Secretary from DuBois Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the meeting. Lewis-McGiffin. Herbert G. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lewis, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Mayme Belle McGiffin, of Brookville, were married at the home of the bride's parents in Brookville Wednesday evening, October 19, 1904, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Rev. J. T. Adams, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, officiated. Herbert's many friends in Reynoldsville extend congratulations and best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will reside in Brookville. Scott-Morton Nuptials. A quiet wedding took place at the Baptist parsonage yesterday, Oct. 25, 1904, at about 3.30 p. m., at which time William Andrew Scott, of Prescotville, and Miss Minnie Morton, of Soldier, were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Effie Earley, of Reynoldsville, and John Laverick, of Soldier. The happy young people have the best wishes of their many friends who wish them a pleasant journey through life. New Commandery. Bethany Commandery No. 83, Knight Templars, will be instituted at DuBois to-day. About twenty Knight Templars of Reynoldsville, who were members of Ridgway and other Commanderies, have withdrawn their membership and will join Bethany Commandery. Dr. John H. Murray, of Reynoldsville, has been selected as Sir Captain General for first term and will be installed with the other officers to-day. The Knight Templars of Reynoldsville will take their ladies with them to attend the big banquet to-night. Barn Burned. The large barn of Harry Craven, on the old Peter Cox farm near Pardus, was burned Monday afternoon. The barn was full of the summer crops. Nothing saved. Mr. Craven was away from home at time of fire. It is supposed to have been set on fire, as a strange man was seen at the barn a short time before the fire was discovered. The barn was built by Peter Cox in 1808. The roof was made of hand-shaved shingles, the handwork of W. T. Cox, of Reynoldsville, and was yet in good condition after standing the storms of thirty-six years. Fulton Henry Dead. J. Fulton Henry, an old citizen of Rathmel and father of Mrs. L. G. Lidle, of Reynoldsville, died at his home on the Henry farm at noon Saturday, October 22, 1904. Stomach trouble was cause of his death. He had been in poor health several years, but was confined to the house two months before he died. Funeral service was held at the residence at 2.30 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. J. E. Dean. Interment was made in Prospect cemetery. Deceased is survived by five sons and five daughters. He was almost 71 years old. His second wife died about five years ago. "Hello" Girls Meet. Saturday afternoon eleven young ladies who are employed as operators in the central offices of Summerville Telephone Company met at Reynoldsville to have a social time together. They all took supper at Hotel Imperial. Following are the names of the fair maidens: Edith Hight, Harriet Leshner, Pearl Harris, of DuBois, Frances Delaney, of Falls Creek, Mayme McDowell, Clara Hawthorne, Anna Truman, of Brookville, Pearl Calkitt, Mary Morgan, of Punxsutawney, Unita Farrell and Lena Black, of Reynoldsville. Some person reported to a DuBois paper that the girls had met here for the purpose of organizing a union, and even gave the names of the officers elected, but it was a false report. The girls were simply out for a good time. No intention of organizing a union.

W. A. Leech was in Pittsburg this week. M. C. Coleman is in Clarion Co. this week. Mrs. G. M. McDonald is visiting in DuBois. Mrs. Frank Bates visited in DuBois last week. Miss Mary Ennis, of Sykesville, was in town to-day. A. E. Dunn, of Falls Creek, was in town yesterday. J. E. Boyle, of Rimersburg, visited in town last week. Perry B. Love is at Summerville and Roseville this week. Mrs. J. R. Milliren is visiting her parents at Winslow. G. F. Reiter, of Big Run, is visiting relatives at Monterey. Mrs. Todd Seelye, of DuBois, visited in this place last week. Mrs. W. W. Fetter visited her mother at Ringgold last week. Miss Laura Brady, of Brookville, visited in town this week. Mrs. Andy Denny, of Driftwood, visited in town Saturday. Mrs. Dr. S. Reynolds visited in Brookville several days last week. Mrs. Cora Mitchell visited Mrs. Wm. Mabon at Marion Centre this week. Tilton H. Reynolds, of Frampton, Clarion Co., visited in town last week. Miss Bertha Thomas returned last week from a four weeks' visit at Pansy. D. W. Atwater is at Tyrone, Pa., this week installing a new circle of P. H. C. Mrs. John M. Stephenson and son, Robert, of Gares, visited in town last week. Mrs. L. C. McGaw, of Punxsutawney, visited her parents in this place last week. Father Edward M. Driscoll, of New Bethlehem, was a visitor in town this week. Miss Adaline Holland, of DuBois, was the guest of Miss Malissa Sensor over Sunday. W. S. Weaver, editor of the Brookville Republican, was in town Monday evening. Mrs. J. W. Campbell visited her parents at Lawsonham a couple of days last week. Mrs. M. M. Meredith, of Harrisburg, was the guest of Mrs. Cora Mitchell last week. Mrs. J. C. Kelso, of Punxsutawney, is visiting Mrs. George W. Warnick in this place. Miss Laura Denny, of Driftwood, was the guest of Miss Unita Farrell over Sunday. Lyman W. Scott went over in the neighborhood of Bennezette Monday to hunt big game. J. M. King, of Falls Creek, was in town yesterday attending the funeral of Will Degnan. Perry Smith and wife, of Richardsville, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Williams last week. Eugene Black, who is working in Indiana Co., visited his parents in this place the past week. Miss Ella Farrell has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. P. Howe, at Arcadia the past week. Irven Deemer left here Monday morning for California where he will remain for sometime. Miss Dorothy Sutter visited her sister, Miss Nello Sutter, in New Bethlehem last week. Miss Winetta Liber, of Canton, Ohio, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. T. Guthrie, in West Reynoldsville. Thomas Black was called to Bradford last Thursday to attend the funeral of a brother, Charles Black. Mrs. Edith Flanner, who was visiting her parents in this place, returned to Johansburg Saturday. John D. Lowther, of Rimersburg, was in town over Sunday. Mr. Lowther came up to buy three mules. P. W. Yeany, who is working at New Maysville, spent several days last week with his family in this place. Mrs. Thomas Bolam, of New Bethlehem, visited her sister, Mrs. Robert Bone, jr., at Soldier last week. Miss Jessie Barclay, trained nurse, was called to Phillipsburg Saturday to nurse Mrs. John C. Dunsmore. Mrs. John McCormick, of Spangler, Pa., was the guest of Mrs. James Carroll a couple of days last week. Andrew Wheeler was at Rimersburg the first of this week. He took three mules down for a coal company. Mr. and Mrs. Louis O'Neill, of Chicago, Ill., are visiting their brother-in-law and niece, George Mellinger and Mrs. Ira Smith, in this place. Mrs. Elizabeth Hill and daughter, Miss Mattie, of Knox, Pa., visited the former's niece, Mrs. A. D. McKay, at the Presbyterian parsonage the past week.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO. Miss Lydia Mellinger, a kindergarten teacher in Pittsburg, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in this place. Mrs. John H. Kaucher and daughter, Miss Laura, are visiting the former's son, Dr. Clifford L. Kaucher, at Ashtola, Pa. Charles M. Feicht and wife, of Punxsutawney, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Feicht, on Hill street this week. Mrs. Harriet Owen and Miss Lucie Lattimer, of Clearfield, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. W. A. Thompson, in this place. Mrs. W. F. Gardner, of Bellwood known in Reynoldsville as Mrs. O. H. Brown, one time a resident here, was in town last Thursday. Mrs. A. C. Scott and daughter, Miss Helen, of Hudson, Mass., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson, on Fourth street. Mrs. M. Mowrey, of Emerlockville, and Mrs. Perry Beitton, of Millstone, Pa., are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. W. W. Fales, and other friends in West Reynoldsville. Mrs. A. H. McKellip, of East Brady, has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. D. H. Young and Mrs. Samuel Resler, in this place the past week. Joseph McKernan and wife have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Albert Worden, at Ashtola, Pa., and relatives at Johnstown since Saturday. Dr. R. De Vere King and wife, Joseph T. Guthrie and wife, George White and William Burge, jr., took in the exposition at Pittsburg last week. Trip Around the World. Three hundred tickets were sold by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church for the trip around the world last evening. The evening was not pleasant for journeying, but as most of the trip was made on water a little rain didn't keep many people at home. The houses representing the different countries were illuminated on outside and appropriately decorated on inside and two or three representatives from each country waited on the tourists. It was all nicely arranged and well executed. The Baptist church—New York—was the starting point and the first stop was made at San Francisco, Dr. J. C. King's residence. Here the tourists were served with punch. The next stop was Germany, D. R. Coehran's residence, where sauerkraut, wieners and rye bread were served. China and Japan, Dr. A. H. Bower's residence, was the third stop. Here the tourists ate rice with chop sticks drank tea and each one was given a rat to eat or take home with them. Scotland was the next stop, Dr. A. J. Meek's residence. Here scones, cheese and tea were served. England, H. E. Phillips' residence, was next country visited. Bread and butter, fruit, cake and tea were served. Washington, D. C., residence of Mrs. Prudence Sprague, landed the tourists back in the United States again. Ice cream, cake, sandwiches and coffee were served here but were not included in price of ticket—25 cents—and were charged extra for. Flash Light Picture. Some or five weeks ago Will Degnan, the young man who was buried yesterday, two other young men and three young ladies were spending an evening together and had several flash light pictures taken, which were shown to the editor of this paper yesterday, and among the pictures was one they called the operation picture. In this picture Will Degnan is lying on a lounge, his head propped up with pillows, right arm bare up to elbow lying on top of a stand, one of the young men has one hand on Degnan's arm and is holding a saw in other hand. The other young man is standing nearby as an assistant and the young ladies are holding handkerchieves over their eyes as if weeping. Little did these young people think that a more horrible picture than that revealed by the flash light would so soon be seen by them and bring deep grief to their hearts. "Block Light." Not an expense but an absolute economy. Exceeds in brilliancy electricity three hundred candle power. One Block Light will brilliantly illuminate a room twenty five feet square. Come in and see them. Bing-Stoke Co. Free. Every purchaser of Cole's Hot Blast pattern Nos. 122, 152, 182 and 196 will get a dustless ash cover, shovel and poker free. Permits removal of ashes without dust or dirt, and having this device, the Cole's Hot Blast utilizes the space taken by the ash pan in other stoves. This gives the stove its full base heating qualities and makes great saving in fuel. Use the dustless cover and ordinary coal hod. See Cole's Hot Blast at Keystone Hardware Co. store. If you want an up-to-date hot blast stove, buy the Retort Penicular, the celebrator smoke consumer and fuel saver. Sold only by the Reynoldsville Hardware Company.