The Teachers' Institute.

The high standard set for the annual teachers' institute in this county will be more than maintained by the strong and popular array of talent secured for the coming session, which will be held in the Belvidere opera house, in Reynoldsville, beginning at 1.30 p. m., Monday, December 19, 1904. The foremost men in educational work have been secured as day instructors, and their presence is a pleasing guarantee of a feast of wisdom and culture. The evening entertainments give promise of surpassing anything yet presented.—Brookville Republican.

The day instructors are: Hon. Henry Houck, of Harrisburg; Dr. S. D. Fess, of University of Chicago; Dr. M. G. Brumbaugh, of the University of Pennsylvania and ex-Commissioner of Education to Porto Rico; Supt. Samuel Hamilton, of Allegheny county; Prof. J. George Becht, principal of the Clarion Normal School; Dr. A. A. Willis, of Spring Lake, N. J.; lecture Tuesday afternoon on "Sunshine," Miss Florence Fisher, of Punxsutawney, dramatic reader; Prof. Jerry March, of Philadelphia, musical director; Miss Jennie Jenks, of Brookville, pianist.

Evening entertainers: Monday evening, concert by the Chicago Lady Entertainers; Tuesday evening, lecture by Rev. Frank Dixon, subject, "The Threat of Socialism;" Wednesday evening, concert by the Cleveland Ladies' Orchestra; Thursday evening, lecture by Hon. George R. Wendling, subject, "The Man of Galilee."

Coming To-Morrow.

Cora Lawton Mitchell and the Record Stock Co. will appear at Reynolds opera house three nights, beginning Thursday night, Dec. 8. Miss Mitchell and her own clever company will produce on Thursday night the beautiful drama, "A Woman's Revolt." This company comes well recommended by the press and managers in all the large cities as being a first class repertoire company. Miss Mitchell has engaged a lot of clever specialty artists, headed by Millie Marie Sousa. This wonderful lady is a great magician, being as clever as "Herminia the Great." Frank P. Haven, the Prince of Irish comedies, Fred Barkers, wonderful moving pictures, Miss Mildred Von Fleet in her sensational electric dance, Miss Mitchell and Mr. Clinton singing illustrated songs. These specialties will be introduced between the acts. Don't fail to see Cora Lawton Mitchell and the Record Stock Co. in "A Woman's Revolt." Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Get seats early at usual place. At Reynolds opera house three nights only starting Dec. 8.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions were adopted Dec. 1, 1904, by P. O. S. of A. Camp No. 268, of Reynoldsville:

WHEREAS, The great Ruler of the universe has, in His infinite wisdom, removed from our midst our worthy and esteemed brother, Earl Cearing Garvin, and

WHEREAS, The intimate relation held in life by him with the members of our order makes it fitting that we record our appreciation of him; therefore

Resolved, That the cheerful and earnest service which he gave in the work of our order will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That his removal from our midst makes a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by our order and its friends.

Resolved, That, with deep sympathy with the afflicted relatives and friends of the deceased, we express our earnest hope that even so great a bereavement may be overruled for their highest good.

Resolved, That our charter be draped for a period of 30 days; that a copy of these resolutions be given the family that they be published in local paper, also recorded on our minutes.

In Buying Groceries

the careful housekeeper makes every cent count. But she can't make the pennies count by trading at every store in town, spending half her time looking for the cent-cheaper article. She can save money only by searching out a reliable grocer and sticking to him. The money is saved by trading with the groceryman who sells dependable goods. Dependable goods are not to be obtained in every store. Goodness and cheapness appeal to every condition of humanity. There are no fancy prices here and everybody is treated alike. Our goods are cheap because they're good—it's not the price that makes them cheap. Goods that are bought so cheaply that they have to be thrown away on account of poor quality are the most dearly bought goods. Better pay a fair price in the first place and get the dependable kinds. You can't buy any other kinds here. We don't keep them.

SHICK & WAGNER

—THE BIG STORE—

A Few Money-Saving Offerings Before Xmas.

At this time of the year, after having cut into dress goods and piece goods of all kinds very heavily, we find many short pieces—2 yards or 3½ yards or 5 yards of a piece. We have also a few odd garments, Coats, Skirts, etc., to clean up and make room for new merchandise. We are offering this week some great bargains. These odds and ends you will find on tables in middle aisle. Don't you think this a very good time to take advantage of these offerings. You do not have to wait until the season is over, but get them right now when the season is just nicely opening. We might add that

On all these Offerings you get the Double Green Trading Stamps.

We will not take the time to enumerate all these and quote prices, but to show you a few of the things included we make the following quotations:

A few short ends in Dress Goods, including Broadcloths, Venetians, etc., reduced 25 per cent.

Ladies' Coats, which you saw in window latter part of week, a $15.00 coat at $5.00.

Two or three Children's Coats, a $3.50 coat at $1.98.

A few cheap Skirts, regular price $1.50, reduced to 50 cents.

A few SILK WAISTS reduced 50 per cent.

A few Mohair Waists reduced 50 per cent.

This does not constitute all we are offering at these prices. They are merely a sample to show you what we have. Don't fail to see them displayed on tables in middle aisle. Don't fail to get them while we are giving the double Green Trading Stamp.

While in the store don't fail to see our Christmas Goods.

Some of the best presents are being sold. Don't wait too long.
