The Kind of Presents that are Useful the Year 'Round.

SUGGESTIONS FROM THE

Furniture Department

It is quite customary to give furniture at Christmas from one member of a family to another. Such a present, well chosen, produces lasting satisfaction. For our part we are selling a great deal of popular priced furniture to this end. More than ever before people who step into our furniture department to look around, generally come back to buy. We have an exceedingly large stock of Rockers this year.

Honey!

The nectarine of flowers—sweet product of the busy bee.

Wouldn't it surprise you to know that the annual production of honey almost equals the rice crop in value.

'Tis true nevertheless—because Uncle Sam's statisticians tell the truth.

PURE HONEY is not only the most wholesome of all sweets, but the most delicious.

OUR HONEY is procured from one of the best apiaries in the country—it comes to us in the comb—you can be sure it's not adulterated.
