

SYKESVILLE IN GRIEF

CLYDE McCLAREN AND LOREN LYONS KILLED

By a Fall of Rock in Stanley Mines and at their Funeral Friday a Large Number of People Viewed Remains.

The funeral of Loren Lyons and Clyde McClaren, the two young men who were killed in R. & P. C. & I. Co.'s mines at Stanley on the 22d of February, took place on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The funeral was a double one and services were held in the M. E. church, conducted by Rev. D. J. Frum and J. W. Crawford. There was a large attendance. Every business place was closed during the afternoon. The young men had a host of friends and the entire village attended the services. After the preaching of the sermon nearly an hour was consumed in viewing the remains, when six hundred persons passed slowly by the biers and gazed for the last time on the faces of the two young men who but a few days since were in the vigor of life. They were interred in the Sykesville cemetery. Lyons was a member of the P. O. S. of A. and that organization turned out according to their custom, and at the close of the services paid their last sad rites to their deceased brother. The flowers on each of the caskets were identical the same and were procured by the citizens of the town, and were the finest ever seen at any funeral in our town. Undertaker J. H. Hughes had charge of the interment.

On Friday afternoon as Harry E. Judd, chief engineer for the B. & S. Coal Co., assisted by several others, were engaged in placing slights in the main headings of the company works he was caught by a fall of rock which came very near proving fatal. Had Mr. Judd not heeded a slight warning and immediately stepped to one side he would have been instantly killed, as it was he sustained a broken limb and a few cuts and bruises about the head and face. He was removed to his boarding house and afterwards taken to the Adrian hospital where he is getting along nicely.

The school children of No. 1 and 2 rooms assisted by their teachers, Miss Gertrude Clouser and Miss Maud Philippi, gave an entertainment in Smith's hall on Friday evening. The children did exceedingly well both in their recitations and drills. They had a well filled house which netted them about $30.00. The proceeds to be applied on the purchase of an organ for the school. Our defeated candidates are still trying to figure out how it happened. There's just one way to figure. The other fellow had the most votes.

W. H. Deemer, who has been sick with la grippe for some time, is recovering.

G. W. Sykes, of Reynoldsville, had business in town last week.

Mrs. S. T. Reed is on the sick list.

Deemers Cross Roads.

Mrs. Sarah Baum visited the home of J. P. Snyder Tuesday of last week. The social at Hornstown Grange hall Saturday evening was well attended, considering the condition of the weather.

Mrs. Amos Deemer and Mrs. J. P. Snyder visited the latter's daughter, Mrs. O. V. Stewart, at Emerickville last Friday.

Thomas McGaroy, of Stanton, made a business trip through this place last week looking after the interests of the Farmers' Telephone Company.

Josiah Deemer, of Salina, Westmoreland Co., who was called to Sykesville on account of the death of his father, has been spending a few days in this place.

George White, of Reynoldsville, filled Rev. Garnett's appointment at this place Sunday evening, Rev. Garnett being at Reynoldsville filling the pulpit of Rev. Parsons.

About thirty of the Hornstown Grangers, visited the Paradise Grange last Friday night. All reported a good time. They think Paradise has one of the liveliest and best Granges they have ever visited.

Paradise.
Miss Anna Ennis spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Sykesville.

Rev. D. J. Frum, of Sykesville, made some pastoral calls in Paradise last week but on account of a sudden attack of la grippe he was obliged to return to his home without having made very many calls. Mr. Frum is always a welcome visitor and his friends, young and old, are very sorry that he could not remain with them longer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dougherty went to Polk township Monday to attend the funeral of the latter's brother-in-law, Jacob Wingert, who died Sunday. Cancer was the cause of Mr. Wingert's death.

About thirty-five of the Hornstown Grangers visited the Paradise Grange Friday night and it is needless to say that the visit was very highly appreciated by our patrons. After refreshments had been served the visitors, who consisted of young folks and their papas and mammas, started back to Hornstown.

Miss Nellie Deemer, of Deemer's Cross Roads, visited her friend, Miss Susie Dougherty, Friday night and Saturday.

Tom Catthers and his sister, Miss Marguerite, visited their cousin, Mrs. Sample, of this place, last Friday.

EMERICKVILLE ALIVE

THERE IS "SOMETHING DOING" ALL THE TIME

In the Village on the Pike and Our Correspondent Writes it up in an Interesting Way.

Emerickville is still alive and booming on account of so much going on. Lots of "doins" and not much money coming in. The band meets every Monday evening in P. O. S. of A. hall for practice. This week the Grangers meet Tuesday evening to re-organize; Wednesday evening the ladies of the M. E. church hold a "shadow social" for benefit of the janitor. Thursday night the Red Men meet, Friday night all rest if we are not running around some where else, and on Saturday night the P. O. S. of A. meet. So there is no use of people complaining of not having any place for entertainment.

Rev. J. C. McEntire, of Reynoldsville, came very near having a runaway and being injured while here Sunday. He was turning his horse and sleigh in the deep snow at the M. E. church and was upset. He held on to the lines and the horse started in a circle and would have tramped on Rev. McEntire, who was lying in the snow bundled up so as to be helpless, but Mrs. Levi Schugers caught the horse in time to prevent injury to Rev. McEntire.

There was an excellent entertainment in the P. O. S. of A. hall Washington's Birthday, February 22nd. There was a large attendance. Four of our public schools took part. These entertainments have been given every year since the P. O. S. of A. erected their own hall. The entertainment was better this year than ever before. We have a good corps of teachers in and around Emerickville.

Our miners are still out on a strike. They have things down pretty fine about working. They dare not work more than one day a week now. Before they used to do all they could get to do. Well, it just suits some of them. As farmers they can work all they please and nobody has anything to say.

Rev. W. H. Garnett preached in the M. E. church in Reynoldsville Sunday. Rev. J. C. McEntire filled his pulpit in the M. E. church at this place. We are always glad to hear Rev. McEntire and we like to hear our own preacher too. We think Rev. Garnett is a fine man.

Hiram Deemer made a trip last week from here to Punxsutawney, then to Big Run, from there to Sykesville, then to Reynoldsville and home again.

Mrs. Wm. Wetzel and son went to Mayaville last Saturday to visit her father, Jacob Shick.

Had Met Before.
"Ever alive in Reynoldsville, Pa.?"
"Yes," said Representative W. O. Smith, of Punxsutawney, as he arose from a table in the House restaurant. The question put by Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, sitting at an adjoining table, surprised him.
"Ever play in 'Jim' Tawney's band?"
"Yes, sir," responded the Punxsutawney statesman, and forthwith there was a reunion.

Although Mr. Smith has been in congress almost two years, he had not before recognized his old band leader, and neither had the former band leader recognized his former pupil.

The Reynoldsville band, under "Jim" Tawney's leadership, was quite as wonderful an institution as such country bands usually are. Tawney was something of an expert on the cornet according to the Reynoldsville standard of musical criticism. He could really play three or four pieces fairly well. Smith looked on a baritone horn, but his repertoire was much more restricted. In fact Smith felt very proud of being able to keep up with the rest of the band when it rendered its favorite, known as "No. 13."

Tawney, in those days, worked in the Reynoldsville machine shop. Smith was a typo.—Washington Post.
