A HEALTHY OLD AGE OFTENTHE BESTPART OF LIFE Help for Chauge of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Mrs. MaryKoehne

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth. When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in any-thing, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydin E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an Illustration. Mrs. Mary L. Koehne, 271

Garfield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have used Lydin E. Pinkham's Vegetable "I have used Lydin E. Finknum's vegetable Compound for years in my family and it never disappoints; so when I felt that I was nearing the change of life I commenced treat-ment with it. I took in all about six bottles and it did me a great deal of good. It stopped my dizzy spells, pains in my back and the headaches with which I had suffered for mostle headaches tables the Compound. and the headaches with which I had suffered for months before taking the Compound. I feel that if it had not been for this great med-lefne for women that I should not have been alive to-day. It is spiendid for women, old or young, and will surely cure all female disor-ders."

The "Mud Tax." The second secon MOK, RULY we can say agricul-

If any tax upon this important industry can be lifted without an impairment of governmental revenues it certainly should be done, and if continuons lines of improved interstate highways, as alleged, will reduce the "mud tax" and the cost of transportation of farm products from the farm to the market one-half or one-third, then surely such improved roads ought to be given the agricultural interest without argument or delay.

We have no fault to find with vast appropriations for pensions, irrigation schemes, waterways and railroads, but It is a crying shame that agriculture, the monarch industry, has scarcely been noticed, and when it demands of the National Government what the individual communities are not able to give-continuous lines of improved highways-its request should be answered by large appropriations for such continuous lines of improved interstate roads.

This Nation claims to lead in everything, and I think it does, for we have the biggest rivers, the biggest trusts and the poorest roads on earth.

Surely the National Government should always do those things that make for the National welfare, and how could the National welfare be better promoted than by the National aid for continuous lines of improved interstate highways?

Be such blohways not only will transportation of farm products be greatly facilitated, but such roads will make for a better education, more social and religious privileges, and in every way tend to elevate the character of our rural population, on whom we, as a Nation, so largely depend.

How absurd it seems when we are told that the National Government can spend $250,000,000 to build one canal in Panama, and New York State another $100,000,000 for canal purposes, but that no money can be appropriated to aid the great industry-agricultureupon which the prosperity of the entire country and these special interests infal.

Were it not for the agricultural in terests, canals, rivers, harbors and railronds would be practically useless, for without the products of agriculture there would be little or nothing for them to transport.

The National Government has expended $400,000,000 in improving waterways, while in capital and interest it has mided railways to the extent of $135,000,000, and in addition to encourage railroad building, has given 196,0000,000 acres of the public hand, making a grand total value given for these objects of not less than $1,500, 000,000, besides appropriating for irrigation schemes that the descrt may blossom as the rose.

All these appropriations were made from the people's money. We find no fault because such appropriations have been made, for we approve of them all, but we do find fault because the common road, the most important factor among them all, which makes for

Now abideth waterways, railways and highways, but the greatest o these is highways.

Some would-be bright minds assum to say that Congress has not the power to authorize outlays for road improvement, because the Constitution does not allow such appropriations.

In answer to that statement all we have to say is that Congress and the Constitution were created by the people and for the people, and that both Congress and the Constitution are simply instruments to do the work and bidding of the people.
