What you call the cut of a garment is really the design. The cutting is mechanical, but the designing is high art. The designer is the architect and it is he who is responsible for the style, the "hang"—the shape of the collar—the finish inside and out.

The Clothcraft designer has made style his life's study and receives a very large salary—so why shouldn't Clothcraft Clothes excel in style?

The cutting must be quick and accurate—that's all. On some goods the Clothcrafters use an electric machine with rapidly revolving steel discs—cutting many thicknesses of cloth at once. That is one of the ways in which Clothcraft Clothes are made possible at the price.

There are no other clothes as good as Clothcraft Clothes—at the price, and few at any price can equal them in fit and stylish finish, or in wear.

A potent reason for this is the fact that all Clothcraft Clothes are made in the Clothcraft factory under direct supervision. That is the direct road to economy and good work. Also it makes possible the use of special machines and special devices which save labor, reduce cost, and improve quality. You'd better examine Clothcraft Clothes.

Citizens First.
Pennsylvania Patrons of Husbandry are first citizens and then farmers. They recognize the fact that a man's first duty is to the state. To preserve its existences the state will take not only his property but even his life and none count the claim unreasonable. This claim of the state being admitted the first concern of all should be for the general good. None have more confidence in the good intentions and intelligence of the great majority of the people of the country than the members of the Grange. They are satisfied that the interests of the farmers will not suffer when fully made known to the public. The unequal burden of taxation upon real estate and the unjust discriminations against farmers were not laid upon them by the will and intention of the majority. They will accept government of the people, by the people through the Initiative and Referendum without any misgivings.—J. T. Altman.

Important Business Change.
The American Hotel, in this place, changed hands on Tuesday of this week, Messrs. P. E. and S. A. Hunter disposing of the property and their interest and good will in the business to David G. Buffington and Frank L. Verstine for a consideration of $60,000. The American is one of the best known and most popular hotels in Western Pennsylvania, and enjoys a patronage that makes it a good bargain, even at the big price paid for the same. Mr. Buffington was a former half-owner of this hotel, being associated with the late A. D. Long and then with L. A. Brady in its management. He disposed of his interest in the same to Hunter Brothers less than two years ago. He is popular with the traveling public, who will be glad to greet him at his old post of duty. The change of management will take place as soon as license can be legally transferred.—Brookville Republican.

After "Dead Beats."
The newspapers of Clarion county have an organization which has been christened the Clarion County Publishers' and Printers' Association. It was recently organized. One of the objects of the Association is to get after the "dead beat" who subscribes for a paper and will not pay for it. We understand that if a subscriber owes one of the Clarion county papers three years' subscription his name will be dropped from the list, all the other newspapers in the county will be notified, and the delinquent subscriber cannot get one of the other county papers sent to his address—even though he offers to pay in advance—until he pays all arrearage to the paper to which he is indebted for three years' subscription.

The Colonel's Waterloo.
Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and, although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold, and guaranteed to cure, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Kidney Disease, by H. Alex. Incredible Brutality.
It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.

Don't Get Your Back Up.
Parents, when your boy gets a licking at school don't get your back up and howl about it, but do your christian duty by giving him one yourself. Have him to understand that he will have no protection for his bad conduct and it will make a good man out of him some day. The jails and penitentiaries are full of men whose parents kicked whenever they received punishment at school. Never let your boy realize that you sympathize with him and you will have no trouble with him at school, but the moment he finds he has protection at home for deviltry, then he is almost sure to provoke his teacher and make trouble. Solomon said, whip the way out of them when necessary, and they would be good boys, and when they get old they would do their own likewise.—Brookwayville Record.

CELEERY KING

NATURE'S CURE

It Makes Restful Sleep.

Sleeplessness almost invariably accompanies constipation and its manifold attendant evils—nervous disorders, indigestion, headache, loss of appetite, etc. To attempt to induce sleep by opiates is a serious mistake, for the brain is only benumbed and the body suffers. Celery King removes the cause of wakefulness by its soothing effect on the nerves and on the stomach and bowels.

Celery King cures Constipation and Nervous Stomach, Liver and Kidney Diseases.

Sold by H. Alex. Stoke.

THE GRAY WOLF.
His Cunning is Marvelous, and He is Difficult to Catch.
The cunning of the gray wolf is marvelous, and it is most difficult to catch napping. He somehow seems to know that iron is associated with man. A piece of iron anywhere will keep him at a distance. If you shoot an antelope, for instance, and just put your spur on the carcass you may leave it as long as you like and no wolf will touch it. A pocket handkerchief will do as well.

Lobo, a great gray wolf who was the king of the pack at Curumpaw, a vast cattle range in New Mexico, was a thinker as well as a ruler. His pack ate nothing but what they had killed themselves, and thus poison was no good. At last a thousand dollars was set upon his head. This brought a noted wolf hunter from Texas, with his pack of great wolfhounds. But again there was failure. Then two other hunters came with subtly devised poisons to work his undoing. Then I came on the scene. First I tried poison, and there was no combination of strychnine, arsenic and prussic acid which I did not use. I put the poisons in cheese melted together with kidney fat, and during the whole process I wore gloves steeped in hot blood. And I scattered the bait all over the ranch. The next morning I went out and found Lobo's tracks, with the bait gone. I was delighted. I followed the track and found another bait gone and yet another. Then I found the three baits piled upon another one and covered with filth. Lobo had evidently carried the first three in his mouth and had taken this means of expressing his utter contempt for my devices.

But Lobo's downfall came about through a big white she wolf who was always with him. I managed to catch her in a trap. Then I knew we should soon have Lobo. Night after night he came around the homestead and mourned his mate in long, plaintive howls. I knew he would try to find her body. I set 150 strong steel wolf traps, and in one of these I caught him—a martyr to constancy. And that was the end of Lobo.—Interview With Ernest Thompson Seton.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.
The easier people make money the easier they want to make it.
Among the many mysteries of childhood is why grown people cry when they are glad.

There are some people who think they have discharged their full duty to you by praying for you.
What do you use most during the day? Do you use the little white lie almost as much as your shoes?
When a man makes one mistake he usually follows it up with three or four before he recovers his balance.
Don't be conceited; get any map of the United States, and do you find any mark on it to show that you are on earth?

Every one admits that rich people are not happier than the poor, or as happy, yet every one is striving to become one of the miserable rich.—Arlinson Globe.

Charity.
She—I'm glad we went. It was an excellent performance—and for such a charitable purpose. Her Husband—Yes, indeed! We all feel a thrill of satisfaction when we do something for charity and get the worth of our money at the same time.—London Tit-Bit
Posterity's Revenge.
Foreign Visitor (in the year 2050)—You don't seem to have any family trees in this country. Native American—No; our ancestors destroyed the last of our forests more than a hundred years ago.—Exchange.
