Russian Retreat Hastened by Continuous Rear Guard Action-Russians Resisting Stubbornly.

Dispatches from the front briefly announce that Gen. Linevitch has assumed command, and that Gen. Kuropatkin departed for St. Peters-Gen. Linevitch will have a considerable accession of fresh troops in a day or two the Fourth European corps being now at Harbin and departing southward.

Military officials here declare there are now 268,000 men at Gen. Linevitch's disposal in Manchuria, and it is believed this force will be sufficent to cause the Japanese to exercise greater caution in their pursuit. Prince Hilkoff, who will leave St. Petersburg soon to prepare the Siberian railway for forwarding the new levies which have been determined upon, said yesterday there had been breakdown as yet, and he hoped as soon as navigation opened to transport one-fourth of the outgoing soldiers by the rivers and relieve the railroad to that extent.

Last Stronghold Lost.

With the evacuation of Tie Pass Wednesday night the Russian army abandoned the last stronghold in Southern Manchuria and definitely turned over to the section to the Japanese for the campaign of 1905. At least no other strategy is possible for General Kouropatkin, in view of his scanty supplies of ammunition and stores the shattered condition of his army the wide enveloping movements most without a stop since the Russian James H. Peabody won his contest for the office of Governor of Coloraafter he had given his pledge to resign and surrender the chair to Lieutenant Governor Jesse F. Mc-Donald, Republican. Governor Peabody took over the office of Governor from Adams this evening.

The vote in joint convention of the General Assembly, by which Governor Alva Adams, Democrat, was ousted, Governor Peabody, Republican, installed, was 51 to 41. Ten Republicans voted with the Democratic members of Adams.

While the Republican majority on joint ballot is 35, it was found impossible to gain for Peabody enough votes to reinstate him Governor for the term ending in January, 1907. Finally the leaders of the opposing Republican factions arranged a commonths ended December 31 last, promise by which Peabody would be vindicated by being declared elected, and McDonald would be made Governor.
