

Along with the coming of the beautiful spring comes the demand for Spring Sewing.

If in your case this calls for a new machine, look the line over at Hoffman's, from $15.00 up. THE WHITE is King.

C. F. HOFFMAN, The Jeweler.

A Little of Everything.

April 23rd is Easter Sunday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Austin, April 7, 1905, a son. The new I. O. O. F. hall at this place will be dedicated sometime in May. Miss Inez Brown entertained 'The Smart Set' at her home Friday evening. I. M. Swartz has tendered his resignation as tax collector in this borough. P. T. Walsh moved to Butler yesterday, where he will embark in business. The Bell Telephone Company will soon open night service in Reynoldsville. The Reynoldsville Candy Works has put in both the Summersville and Bell telephones. There was a fair sized crowd at the public sale of A. M. Woodward's livery stock yesterday. The Reynoldsville high school has two walking clubs—male and female. They take an early morning walk. The Women's Relief Corps will hold a market in L. G. Liddle's hardware store Saturday afternoon, April 15th. Trout fishing season opens Saturday. It might not be out of place to add here that it is unlawful to fish on Sunday. A little granddaughter of Mathias Whittaker died Friday and was buried in Beulah cemetery Sunday afternoon. The M. E. church at Kane was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning. Loss $30,000 with about $15,000 insurance. One hundred and thirteen tickets were sold at Reynoldsville for the excursion to Pittsburg over the P. R. R. John H. Murray will build a fine residence on his two lots opposite S. Reynolds' residence on Main street this summer. The officers and directors of The Peoples National Bank are highly elated over the showing made by the bank since it was opened. Edgar Clawson, thirteen-year-old son of Mrs. Sarah Clawson, was kicked on right leg Saturday by a horse. Leg badly bruised but no bones broken. About two hundred tickets were sold at Reynoldsville Monday morning for Brookville. The passengers were packed into two coaches and one baggage car. A game of foot ball will be played at Soldier next Saturday afternoon between the Eleanora Phisties and Big Soldier Rangers. Game will begin at five o'clock. J. N. Kelly, candidate for county commissioner, subject to action of the Republican voters of Jefferson county at the primary election in June, was in town Thursday. Mrs. Elizabeth Craig died at her home in Brookville Wednesday, April 5th, aged 79 years. She had resided in Brookville 74 years. Deceased was the widow of Andrew Craig, who died in 1891. Harvey D. Haugh, one of our present county commissioners, who will be a candidate for nomination for second term at the Republican primary election in June, was in Reynoldsville yesterday on business for the county. Civil Engineer John C. Hirst, Notary Public Albert Reynolds and Dr. J. W. Foust, of this place, drove to Port Barnett Friday and reviewed a public road from Port Barnett to the Brookville glass plant. They did not grant the road. Mrs. James Tapper died at her home Barking Station, Pa., on Saturday, April 8, 1905. Funeral took place yesterday forenoon. George Tapper and wife, Philip Tapper and wife and Mrs. Thomas Tapper attended the funeral. Among the political announcements in THE STAR this week will be found the name of Judge John W. Reed, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed himself as president judge in Jefferson county. Judge Reed has made a good record during the ten years he has presided over the courts in this county. Mrs. Sarah Walker, mother of Mrs. James A. McCreight, of this place, died at her home in Indiana, Pa., at 7.20 p. m. Saturday, April 8, 1905. Mrs. McCreight was at her mother's bedside several weeks before she expired. Funeral at Indiana yesterday afternoon. The Methodist prayer meeting will not be held this evening. After this week the prayer meeting will be held in Centennial hall. Rev. J. A. Parsons, pastor, suggests that the members of his congregation attend either the Baptist or Presbyterian prayer meeting to-night. Chief-of-Police Adelsperger, of Reynoldsville, was in the city a few hours yesterday afternoon. Mr. Adelsperger is one of the best known officers in this section of the state and the evil doers of the land have come to think that it is wise policy to stay out of his territory. —DuBois Journal. Prof. William M. Brown, of Brookville, candidate for superintendent of the Jefferson county schools, was in town last Friday. Prof. Brown is looking carefully after his interest in this matter. He has been principal of Snyder township schools six successive terms and is a good instructor. Will F. Marshall, of this place, who was secretary and manager of the Alcola Coal Company at Oak Ridge, Pa., resigned that position to accept a position with the Dunham Coal Co. of Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Marshall will do office work and also be traveling salesman for the Dunham Coal Co. It is not settled yet who will take Mr. Marshall's place with the Alcola Coal Co. N. A. Headley, one of our hustling young men, who has had considerable experience in the store business, has bought A. L. Keagle's cash store and has moved it from the King & Coleman building, East Main street, into the McCracken building at corner of Main and Tenth streets. Mr. Headley will handle a full line of general merchandise. Headley's Cash store is the name of the store. To meet the demand for summer instruction the Reynoldsville Summer Normal, started last season, will again be opened for the patronage of those desiring to review subjects before teachers' examinations and for those wishing to continue regular school work. Competent instructors will have charge of each department. The Normal will open May 15th and continue six weeks. Address Prof. D. S. Bacon for particulars. The Emerson Lyceum of Room 13, borough public schools, will hold a Literary Contest in Assembly hall Monday afternoon, May 1st. McEntire, and interment will take place in the Smith cemetery. Josiah Shoemaker was born in Columbia county, Pa., November 8, 1836, making him 68 years, 5 months and 2 days old at time of death. He came to Jefferson county 52 years ago. Was married to Fannie McConnell, of Beechwoods, who, with one son, survives the deceased. Mr. Shoemaker was an old soldier. He enlisted in 1862 and served until the end of the war. He was an excellent man. True as steel. ANOTHER MAD DOG KILLED. Dogs Must be Muzzled if Allowed to Run on the Streets. Lawyer Clement Flynn's dog, which was bitten by the mad dog that was running the streets on the morning of April 1st, showed a bad case of hydrophobia yesterday and was shot. Mr. Flynn tied his dog in his barn the morning it was bitten by the mad dog and the dog was not let loose after that. Some people have entirely ignored the notice sent out by the board of health April 1st to muzzle all dogs, and the board of health has hired John Howlett to "gather in" all the dogs found on the streets without a muzzle on. John picked up eighteen dogs Monday and Tuesday. There are nine dogs yet in custody and if they are not claimed soon and a fine paid the dogs will be killed. The fine is $1.00 a dog, which includes a muzzle. Congregational Meeting. The April term of court in Jefferson county opened at 10.00 a. m. Monday of this week with Judge John W. Reed presiding. Thomas J. Evans, of Young township, was appointed foreman of the grand jury with Constable I. B. McLaughlin, of Summersville, in charge of the grand jury. Tipstaves, S. S. Miller, of Warsaw township, S. G. Pysber, of Rose township, and George Schultze, of Union township. This was the year for election of constables and thirty-four of them took the oath of office Monday forenoon. Some of the constables were re-elected, but a large percent of them took the oath of constable for first time Monday. Architecture. D. H. Young, of Reynoldsville, Pa., makes the announcement that he has completed a four years' course of study in architecture, is now prepared to make plans and specifications for all classes of buildings. Years of experience as practical mechanic and builder adds value to his services in supervising work to recognize and remedy faulty construction. Your patronage solicited.

WILL VISIT REYNOLDSVILLE. Merchants' & Manufacturers' Association of Pittsburg Seeking Trade. The third annual excursion of the Merchants' & Manufacturers' Association of Pittsburg will begin its itinerary Monday, May 1, and after visiting other towns on the way, will arrive at Reynoldsville Thursday, May 4, at 11.00 a. m. The train will consist of six Pullman sleeping cars, two dining cars and one baggage car. It will run on a special schedule of five days, going over the Pittsburg & Lake Erie, Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg and Pennsylvania railroads. The organization expects to present Pittsburg to 28 cities and towns, reaching a population of more than 200,000 direct and through these about 250,000 of adjacent territory, all of which is natural trade territory of the Pittsburg market. During the tour the excursionists, by an arrangement with the Bell Telephone Company, will have telephone service throughout the train and direct connections with Pittsburg at every town where a stop of an hour or more is made. These excursions though not unmixed with pleasure, are made annually for the purpose of enabling the business men of the Smoky City to meet their old customers, make new ones, get acquainted with the business situations in the towns having trade relations with them, and otherwise make a study of the subjects which may be of mutual concern to the excursionists and their customers. The excursionists will only remain in Reynoldsville one hour, but a representative body of men will meet the visitors at the railroad and give them a cordial welcome to our town. COMMITTEE SAW GEN. MILLER. The Franklin & Clearfield Railroad Will be Built Through Reynoldsville—Will Run Vestibule Trains. Messrs. George Mellinger, Charles McSherry and Lawyer Clement W. Flynn, the committee appointed by the Business Men's Association of this place to go to Franklin, Pa., to see General Miller, president of the Franklin & Clearfield railroad, a new line that is to be constructed this year, and to present the advantages of running the new railroad through Reynoldsville, if the company had any intentions of taking some other route, as it had been reported here that the company had a survey which cut Reynoldsville out entirely. The committee were given a cordial reception by General Miller and were informed that it had been settled several months ago that the new railroad would run through Reynoldsville. The Franklin & Clearfield will be built through to Brookville this year and temporarily the Pennsylvania line will be used from Brookville to Falls Creek, but that will only be for a short time to get the road in operation as soon as possible. The road will be built through to Clearfield to connect with the Beech Creek and give a through line to the sea coast. General Miller stated to the committee that it was the intention of the company to run first-class vestibule trains, sleepers and parlor cars, as soon as the road is completed to Brookville. Two Weddings. April 5, 1905, at 8.00 p. m., Frank P. Foley and Miss Josephine Frantz, both of Reynoldsville, were married by 'Squire E. Neff at his office on Main street.
