

Answering Assessor.
 Mr. DANIEL WISE, Assessor,
 Dear Sir, Greetings:—Your answer to my letter in THE STAR a few weeks ago was very satisfactory, seemingly, to yourself, but I cannot see it that way. In glancing over the adjusted valuation I see so many things I don't understand that I am forced once more to inquire for information. Why is there so much difference in the following assessments on horses: Levi Schugars four horses $160.00, L. E. Cochran two horses $200.00, John Strouse two horses $140.00, Israel Snyder two horses $50.00, John Cable two horses $160.00, Allen Cathers two horses $95.00, Wm. Borer three horses $100.00, J. K. Womeldurf two horses $140.00, Robert Smith seven horses $150.00, C. O. Sprague three horses $125.00, John Smith three horses $100.00, Fred Walker two horses $50.00, J. B. Sykes four horses $150.00, A. L. Strouse two horses $50.00, A. W. Sykes four horses $170.00, Joel Snyder two horses $90.00?
 I find on the adjusted valuation fifty-eight double assessments, four triple assessments, fifteen dead men still assessed for taxes and one hundred and forty-two persons that have gone out of our township assessed with personal property and also occupation taxes. Now this kind of an assessment builds up a false valuation of our township and causes a great lot of inconvenience to our supervisors, school directors and tax collectors, and the auditors cannot understand why there are so many exemptions asked for at the settlements. I remain
 Very truly yours,
 J. K. WOMELDURF.

REMARKABLE PAINTING PRACTICALLY GIVEN AWAY.
 "The Three Most Beautiful Roses" by Paul de Longpre.
 At the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without doubt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June. Although this cover is an accurate reproduction of a painting worth hundreds of dollars, yet the June number, which has this exquisite cover, may be obtained at any first-class newsstand or direct from the publishers for the trivial sum of one cent.
 Mr. Paul de Longpre has justly styled the "King of Flower Painters." He not only paints roses, but every flower that grows, and is the highest authority on flowers. His paintings are found in the most select homes. Some have sold for as much as seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500.00).

THE GAME LAWS.
 Privileges to Hunters are Curtailed by New Law.
 The new Pennsylvania game laws which have been approved by the governor curtails the privileges heretofore enjoyed by the hunter. The following are the new innovations. Hares and rabbits can only be killed during the month of November.
 Pheasants from Oct. 15 to November 30. One hunter is limited to five birds per day, 20 per week and 50 for the season.
 The limit for turkey for one hunter is one per day and four for the season, which opens October 15 and ends November 29.
 The deer season, which in the previous law included the month of November, now opens on November 15, and ends November 30. One deer a season is the limit. Hunters must not use a dog in the woods, only a rifle emitting a single bullet at each discharge. This does away with buckshot, the load much used in deer hunting.
 Quail can be legally killed in November, and the law makes it a misdemeanor to shoot at them when they are bunched on the ground.
 Dogs following deer in the woods are declared to be a public nuisance and can be killed by any assistance game warden or other state officer. The owner or owners of such dogs are liable for a penalty of $25 for every deer chased, and $50 for every deer so killed.
