A Little of Everything.

Tuesday, June 14th, is flag day. Mrs. Emma Donahue is moving to Oil City this week. "Trip to Palestine" in the Presbyterian church to night. The funeral of Reed E. Kline last Thursday afternoon was largely attended. Rev. J. C. McEntire delivered an address for the P. O. S. of A. at Hazen yesterday. Dr. B. E. Hoover bought a property on Hill street last Friday from Rev. John Walte. A number of our citizens attended the Decoration Day ceremonies in Beechwoods yesterday. A family quarrel on Jackson street last evening raised a commotion and attracted a large crowd. Service in the Lutheran church next Sunday at 11.00 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday school at 9.45 a. m. C. E. Hoffman, of Rathmel, was slightly injured in the Maplewood mine Tuesday afternoon of last week. The Utopia Society will hold a social at home of F. K. Alexander on Grant street Thursday evening of this week. Amos Strouse, agent for the International Harvesting Co., received a car load of farming machines last week. There will be a meeting of the Winslow township officers at Frank's Tavern on Saturday of this week, June 3rd. Ruth Doubles, of East Main street, entertained twelve girl friends Sunday in honor of her thirteenth birthday. An Italian who died in the Adrian Hospital was buried in the Catholic cemetery at this place yesterday forenoon. A picked up club from this place played the Emrickville base ball club yesterday. Score 26-2 in favor of the Emrickville boys. Juvenile teams from Reynoldsville and West Reynoldsville played a game of base ball Saturday. Score Reynoldsville 23; West Reynoldsville 9. James Clark and Miss Maggie Steel, of Elmora, were married in this place Thursday, May 25, 1905, by Squire E. Neff at his office on Main street. The annual convention of the Jefferson County Sunday School Association will be held in the Beechwoods Presbyterian church next week, June 7th and 8th. A ball club from this place played a game with the DuBois club yesterday on the DuBois grounds and were badly defeated. Score 26-4 in favor of DuBois club. The Irene Jevons Stock Company has leased Albert Reynolds' vacant lot near Young's planing mill for a week's engagement under canvas, beginning June 5th. A. F. Reitz, Republican candidate for the nomination for county commissioner, was in town the first of this week. He called at THE STAR office and requested to say that the report circulated by some person that he was a Democrat, but had "hopped" to get the Republican nomination, is false. Mr. Reitz has been a life-long Republican and a party worker for many years. Sunday evening Rev. J. C. McEntire, of this place, preached a memorial sermon in the M. E. church at Rathmel for the P. O. S. of A. camp at that place. Mrs. E. Kocher, of Rathmel, was taken to the Adrian Hospital in Funxutawney on Friday of last week and Monday of this week was operated on. George Hunter, who bought the meat market near the Burns House four months ago, sold out to Frank Smith the first of this week. Mr. Smith will run the market. Anna P. Myers, a graduate of music, of Maryland College, will open a studio for instruction in instrumental music, after June 15th, at the home of her father, Rev. Myers. Miss Amy Elizabeth Reno, of Sharon, Pa., daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Perry A. Reno, formerly of Reynoldsville, graduates from the Woman's College of Baltimore, Md., June 6th. Thirty-four members of the Knights of Golden Eagle of Funxutawney visited the K. G. E. Castle in this place on Tuesday evening of last week. Lunch was served after initiation. Rev. J. F. Scherer, of Nickleville, will give an illustrated lecture in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church this evening on "His Travels in Palestine." A small admission will be charged. W. H. Karns, train dispatcher on River Division of P. R. R., was here in a special coach several days the past week giving engineers, conductors and flagmen a special examination in rules, etc. M. J. Farrell, James J. Hoffman, Ed. Hardman and C. F. Hoffman were in DuBois yesterday afternoon attending a meeting of the Knights of Columbus. Mrs. C. F. Hoffman accompanied her husband to DuBois. Notary Public Albert Reynolds issued his first marriage license last Saturday and the party making application for the license did not forget that Mr. Reynolds had promised to issue the first marriage license free. Over at Elmora yesterday a large procession formed and marched to the cemetery where appropriate memorial ceremonies were conducted. The Sunday schools, I. O. O. F. and Knights of Golden Eagles were in procession. Richard Taafe and wife, Mrs. A. M. Woodward, Miss Zoe Woodward and Miss Kate Feicht were at Brookville Saturday forenoon attending the funeral of Mrs. Michael Murphy, who died at her home in Brookville Thursday, May 25th. There will be a citizens' meeting in the chapel of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening of next week, June 6th. Every person, men and women, interested in the good morals of the town, are cordially invited to attend this meeting. J. S. Cooper, of Brockwayville, candidate for the Republican nomination for county commissioner, was in town Monday. Mr. Cooper is very much encouraged with the outlook for being one of the nominees at the primary election on 17th of June. He would fill the office very creditably. The "Red Caps," a juvenile base ball club of this place, played a juvenile club at Emrickville yesterday. Score 12-15 in favor of "Red Caps." Howard Watson and Walter Shutt did battery work for "Red Caps" and Roy Henry and Jimmy Schugers were battery for Emrickville. The third quarterly conference of the M. E. church was held in Centennial hall Monday evening after the sermon by Rev. McDonald. Presiding Elder Rich was present. The quarterly meeting service Sunday will begin with love feast at 10.30 a. m., followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Dr. Rich will not be present Sunday. T. J. Newcome, manager of the Wishaw Park, has cleared underbrush away, enlarged and cleaned up the park so that it will be more pleasant and convenient for picnics this season than it was in the past seasons, which is saying considerable. Wishaw is the nearest park for Reynoldsville people and will likely be a very popular resort this summer. The special evangelistic meetings in Centennial hall, which began Thursday evening of last week, will close to-night. Rev. J. C. McDonald, of New Castle, who was assisting Rev. Parsons and who preached every evening, left here this morning. Rev. Parsons is trying to arrange to have some one come to preach to-night, but if not successful he will preach. Prof. S. C. Hepler, editor of the New Bethelton Leader, stopped in Reynoldsville four or five hours Friday on his return trip from Harrisburg, where he had been attending the Democratic state convention. Bro. Hepler made THE STAR office a pleasant call while in town. He not only publishes a good paper, but he can deliver a good speech, political or otherwise. Children Scalded. Two little daughters of J. J. Corle, of West Reynoldsville, aged two and four years, were badly scalded Monday afternoon about five o'clock by pulling a pan of hot water from a table. Walker Withdraws. O. P. Walker, of Funxutawney, who announced his name as a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff, has withdrawn from the contest, leaving only two candidates in the field, Grant Scheafnocker, of this place, and W. A. Sutter, of Clayville. Japs Victory Complete. A great naval battle has taken place between the Japanese and Russian fleets and every one of the magnificent vessels of the Russian command were either sunk or captured by the Japanese. Full particulars of the battle have not been ascertained yet. Crawford-Pierce Nuptials. James Crawford and Margaret A. Pierce were united in marriage at the home of the bride's father, John Pierce, at Prospect, at 4.30 p. m. Tuesday, May 30, 1905, by Rev. J. C. McEntire, of Reynoldsville, in the presence of a few immediate relatives. An excellent wedding supper was served. New Officers. The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church elected the following officers last Wednesday afternoon for ensuing year: President, Mrs. A. T. Bing; 1st vice-president, Mrs. A. O'Donnell, jr.; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. A. B. Weed; secretary, Mrs. J. M. Cathers; treasurer, Mrs. Albert Reynolds. Taken to Jail. A man named Love, who claims Lindsey as his home, was arrested yesterday afternoon on charge of taking $10.00 out of another man's pocket. Love was bound over to court and not being able to procure the required amount of bail—$500.00—was taken to Brookville jail on the eight o'clock train last evening by Constable Wagerman. Memorial Sunday. Members of the Grand Army Post, Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans attended memorial services in Centennial hall at 11.00 a. m. Sunday, each one wearing a beautiful carnation. Rev. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the M. E. church, preached an excellent sermon. His text was selected from Joshua 4:6, "What Mean Ye by these Stones." There was a large congregation present. Will Clean Main Street. N. T. Rhodes, for a stipulated sum, is to keep Main street clean from Presbyterian church to iron bridge. The business men and property owners along the street have subscribed a certain amount per week to pay the expense of keeping the street clean. It makes a decided improvement on the appearance of the street and it prevents the wind from filling the stores with dust. Buried Thursday. Helen Ewing, daughter of Ed. E. and Minnie C. Anderson, of 1015 Hill avenue, Wishaw, died at 6 p. m., Tuesday, May 23, 1905, aged 3 months and 12 days. Funeral services will be held tonight at 7.30 o'clock Rev. J. C. Horner, officiating. Interment will take place at Reynoldsville, Pa., tomorrow—East End Herald, Pittsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson arrived here Thursday noon and buried their baby that afternoon. Mrs. Anderson remained here to visit a few days with her brother, John H. Ewing. Decoration Day in Beechwoods. A large crowd of people attended the Decoration Day exercises in Beechwoods yesterday, notwithstanding the fact the indications were not favorable for a pleasant day. Had it not been for the threatening clouds there would have been the largest crowd in Beechwoods that has ever assembled there. The principal address of the day was delivered by Rev. C. W. Miner, of Funxutawney. Judge John W. Reed, Edward A. Carmalt, Esq., and several others made short addresses. Prof. Dalley, the noted singer, was present and sang. Horse Got Frightened. Sunday evening about 7.30 Walter B. Reynolds was driving a spirited horse down Cole alley and just above the Baptist church the horse stepped on a stick, which flew up and struck the horse, frightening the animal and it jumped and started to run and before Walter got control of the horse the buggy struck another buggy, tearing a wheel off Walter's buggy and throwing him out. He hung onto the lines and was dragged some distance before he let go. The horse ran down Cole alley to Jackson street where the buggy struck a tree. The buggy was hardly worth picking up. Knights of Pythias Day. Flags, banners and bunting for decorating your homes and places of business for K. of P. day, June 8th. Bing-Stoke Co. Free Samples. The Reynolds Drug Co. are offering free samples of "Spiro" powder. Call for one. New neck wear at Millirens.

DECORATION DAY EXERCISES. Many Persons Marched to Beulah Cemetery to Decorate the Graves of Honored Veterans. Decoration Day did not pass by unobserved by the loyal and patriotic citizens of Reynoldsville. About nine o'clock a large line was formed on Main street, consisting of members from Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist Sunday schools, Keystone Band, P. O. S. of A., Improved Order of Red Men, Sons of Veteran drum corps, Sons of Veterans, members of Grand Army Post and a number of carriages. A large number of people followed on the sidewalk. It was the largest Decoration Day Parade seen here for several years. At Beulah cemetery gate the Sunday school scholars and members of the orders halted, opened ranks for the old veterans and Sons of Veterans to enter the cemetery first. The usual Grand Army ceremonies were conducted in the cemetery and the graves of the departed veterans were bedecked with beautiful flowers. After the ceremonies at cemetery the procession was formed again and marched down to the iron bridge that spans the Sandy Lick creek between this borough and West Reynoldsville, where the Woman's Relief Corps conducted a ceremony in honor of the sailor or dead and cast beautiful flowers on the bosom of the Sandy Lick creek. Mrs. W. C. Gibson had charge of the exercises on the bridge. A firing squad from the Sons of Veteran Camp visited all the cemeteries in this immediate vicinity. Death of Elijah Saxton. Elijah Saxton died at the home of his son-in-law, Isaac Johnson, of Pleasant Avenue, on Thursday morning, May 25, 1905, at 7.30. He was taken sick at Wishaw on Tuesday, where he had gone to transact some business. He returned home in the evening and after suffering for a few hours he was relieved by death. He was born Sept. 2, 1829, in Millerstown, Clarion Co., Pa. He, with his wife, came to Reynoldsville about June 1st, 1859, and made his home here until called away. His wife died September 20, 1903. Three sons and two daughters are left to mourn his departure, viz: Thomas, of Horton, Pa., Mrs. Araminta Johnson, at whose home he died, E. M. Saxton, of Carnegie, Pa., Mrs. Arazonia Thom, of Clearfield, and C. E. Saxton, of Reynoldsville. Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson on Saturday morning at ten o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, after which his remains were laid at rest in Syphrit cemetery. A Deadbeat. When a newspaper man lets a paper run without sending a dun each year, he shows he has confidence in the subscriber's intention to pay, and the obligations rests upon the man getting the paper to treat the newspaper man as well by paying promptly. It's a mighty mean man who will move away without first paying his newspaper bill, and any man who will willfully beat the publisher out of a year's subscription or more, is a dead-beat of the deepest dye. There are a few of this particular stripe in every community and the sooner they die off or move away the better it will be for honest people.—Brookwayville Record. G. A. R. Encampment. For the benefit of those desiring to attend the Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Pennsylvania, at Reading, June 5 to 10, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Reading from all stations on its line in the State of Pennsylvania, on June 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, good to return until June 12, inclusive, at reduced rates. For specific rates, apply to local ticket agents. John S. Barr, of Brookville, one of the best known of the old veterans of the county, was in town the fore part of this week informing the people that he is a candidate on the Republican ticket for the nomination for county commissioner at the coming primaries. Mr. Barr has a number of friends throughout the county who would like to see him elected. He was formerly sheriff of this county and also served one term as register and recorder.—Brookwayville Record. Muslim Underwear. Double Gold Trading Stamps for next 10 days on muslim underwear skirts, 49c to $4.98; gowns 49c to $3.98; drawers 25c to $1.98; corset covers 10c to $1.50.
