Meredeth-Breakley Wedding.

A beautiful home wedding was celebrated at Stanton June 7, when Miss Maggie Breakley was united in marriage to Nell Meredith, of Kersey, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tolford McGaughey, who reside on the old homestead where the bride had spent her childhood and youth. It was a beautiful afternoon and the lawn in front of the residence had been tastefully arranged for the ceremony, and when the clock struck the hour of 4:00, the bridal party appeared to the strains of a wedding march played by Mrs. French, of Brookville, and took their places under a large evergreen arch trimmed with ferns and potted plants. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mattie Breakley, and the groom by his brother, Will Meredith. The bride wore a beautiful white costume of "hands down" and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom was dressed in the usual regulation black suit. In a very beautiful ceremony the Rev. J. T. Adams, of Brookville, pronounced them man and wife in the presence of a large assemblage of guests. After congratulations all sat down to an elegant wedding dinner. Each plate had placed beside it a souvenir of wedding cake folded in a Japanese napkin and tied with white ribbon. Dinner having been finished the party was again arranged upon the lawn where a picture was taken. The bride received many handsome and useful presents in linen, silverware, &c. One worthy of special mention was a sovereign bed spread from the father and mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Meredith. This spread had wrought in fancy needle work upon it the names of 840 of the bride's relatives and friends and was valued by the originators of it at $102. The usual serenade followed in the evening and after the serenaders had been invited into the house and treated to refreshments they departed with best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Meredith attended the K. of P. reunion in this place on the 8th and left on the 5:27 train for a wedding trip to the west, after which they will reside in Centerville, Elk Co., where Mr. Meredith is in the employ of the U. S. mail service. Guests were present from Brookville, DuBois, Kersey, Ellettsburg, Springdale, Cool Spring and Reynoldsville. The bride was well known in this place having stayed with her brother, D. H. Breakley, during the summer of 1903. A GUEST.

GRANT SCHEAFNOCKER

Possesses Necessary Requirements and Represents a Worthy Community.

Grant Scheafnocker, of Winslow township, spent several days of last week in this section in the interest of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for sheriff, and we are glad to see him so kindly received by the Republicans at the county seat. Mr. Scheafnocker is a loyal Republican, one who has never found it a hardship to pull off his coat in the interest of other members of the party, and now when he is asking help for himself we feel like giving him our assistance. If any interested citizens to make an investigation they will find that the community back of Mr. Scheafnocker's candidacy furnishes about one-sixth of the Republican vote of the county, and the only recognition it has in the distribution of the county offices is one Jury Commissioner. That he is competent to perform the duties of the office is admitted on every hand, and if nominated his election by a large majority is assured, and there will be no need of apologizing for his administration. With such an acceptable candidate before them, would it not be wise for the Republicans of the county to recognize the claims of this strongly Republican community by giving Grant Scheafnocker the nomination for sheriff on the 17th inst. "REPUBLICAN."
 Brookville, Pa., June 6, 1905.

A HOME ENDORSEMENT.

Neighbors of R. F. Morrison Recommend Him for County Commissioner.

As his neighbors, it is only natural that we should be well acquainted with the personal life and business career of Robert F. Morrison. As a neighbor he has always been kind and helpful, and this letter would demonstrate that he commands the confidence and respect of us, his neighbors. As a business man he has been successful. In his different business engagements he has been a great stickler for system. As a farmer, we note that some years ago, when he purchased the farm on which he now lives, it was known as the "brier patch." To-day it is one of the neatest and best kept farms between Brookwayville and Brookville. He has farmed with method and system, has been a hard student of scientific farming, and has done much to raise the farming interests of this community to a higher level. He has always been a clean, straight Republican and a leader in his voting precinct. His public record has been flawless, he having held many township offices in which he has given the best of satisfaction to all. In his private life at his home he has always been a genial entertainer. The latch string is always out at Morrison's, and it is a common saying that "it is a good place to go." He is in every way worthy to be commissioner of Jefferson county, and as his neighbors, we would extend you to aid us by helping to elect him to that office. We well know that if elected he will not only do the work of the office in a systematic way and with good judgment, but will give you a full measure of attention and appreciation. NEIGHBORS.
