Mrs. William Gayley, formerly of Nebraska, Forest Co., Pa., visited her sister, Mrs. W. A. Leech, in West Reynoldsville, the past week. Mr. Gayley has moved to West Va., and Mrs. Gayley stopped off here to see her sister on the way to her new home.

Sixty members of the Protected Home Circle of Reynoldsville visited the Sykesville Circle last Friday evening, going and returning from Sykesville on special trolley cars. The Reynoldsville degree team conferred a degree on eight candidates. Lunch was served before the visitors started for home, which was midnight.

The annual meeting of the Clearfield Baptist Association will be held in the Bethel Baptist church at Sykesville to-day and to-morrow, June 14 and 15. Three sessions each day. The first session begins at 10:00 a. m. to-day. This evening service will be devoted to the B. Y. P. U. At 8:20 Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., of Reynoldsville, will preach a sermon on "Soul Winning."

Ex-Postmaster E. T. McGaw received a telegram Sunday from State College, Pa., that his son, Jay McGaw, student in State College, was very ill. Mr. McGaw started for State College on first train Monday morning and returned yesterday morning bringing Jay with him on a large rocking chair. Jay had not been well for several days, but was able to attend college and be around until Sunday morning when he became seriously ill.

Mr. Vincent Gerald Reynolds is one of the best-equipped and all-around most popular of the younger drug clerks in Johnstown. Recent dispatches from Harrisburg have told of his being passed for registered pharmacist with flying colors. Mr. Reynolds, whose home is in Reynoldsville, has made a host of friends since coming to Johnstown. His position as in charge of Mayor Young's drug store, brings him in touch with all kinds and classes of people and on all of them this young man has made the uniform impression of unfailing courtesy and industry.—Johnstown Cor. to Grit.

Married at Buffalo.
Miss Vera May Burns, of Reynoldsville, and Fred Nollen, of DuBois, were married in Buffalo, N. Y., on Thursday, June 8th, 1905.

Moore-Strang.
Walter Moore, son of M. M. Moore, of Washington township, and Miss Eliza Mabel Strang, daughter of Squire A. T. Strang, of Rockdale, were married at the Presbyterian parsonage in Beechwoods on Wednesday afternoon, June 7, 1905, by Rev. G. H. Hill. Both young people are popular and highly esteemed in the Beechwoods, where they are well known.

Died in Coal Mine.
George Tovey, a coal miner of Anita, formerly of Reynoldsville, died suddenly in the mines yesterday from heart trouble. Mr. Tovey was about 70 years old. He was married to a sister of J. P. Haskins, of this place. Funeral service will be held at Anita Friday afternoon and interment will be made in Baulah cemetery at this place.

For President Judge.
In this issue of THE STAR will be found the announcement of W. L. McCracken, Esq., of Brookville, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president judge of Jefferson county. Mr. McCracken is well known to the people of Jefferson county, having practiced at the Jefferson county bar a number of years and was district attorney one term.

Good Game of Ball.
A large crowd witnessed the game of base ball at this place last Thursday afternoon between Brookville and Reynoldsville clubs. It was a fine exhibition of base ball skill and there was no jangling to mar the pleasure of the game. The Brookville boys were very gentlemanly. It was generally pronounced an excellent game from start to finish. Cummings and McClain, of Ridgway, did the battery work for Reynoldsville and that is what won the victory for Reynoldsville.

Home Candidate.
The only candidate from this section of Jefferson county that is seeking nomination at the Republican primary election to be held on Saturday of this week, is Grant Scheffner for sheriff, and for this reason Grant should get the nomination, and, no doubt, will get it. Grant has the ability to fill the office creditably and the voters will not make a mistake in nominating him. Grant should get a large vote in Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville and Winslow township, being a home candidate.

Co-Operative Manufacturing Co.
Reynoldsville is to have a new industry to be known as the Co-Operative Manufacturing Co. Dr. J. C. King is president, James A. McCreeght vice-president, C. H. Moore treasurer, M. C. Coleman secretary and Hon. Jacob Truby manager. They have leased the building on Railroad street formerly occupied by the Reynoldsville Milling Co., which will be used for a manufacturing plant for the present. The company offices are in rooms 4, 5 and 6 in the Syndicate building, Main street. One of the patented articles to be manufactured by the Co-Operative Co. is the Extension Steel End Gate, claimed to be the best end gate on the market to-day.

Large Black Snake.
Thursday morning of last week Homer Sherwood, four-year-old son of H. A. Sherwood, who resides on the Coax farm near this place, ran into the house with his mamma with the words, "Mamma, a big garter snake out at the swing." Mrs. Sherwood hastened to the door and was horrified to see a large snake lying where her children had been playing but a few moments before. With the aid of a small boy, Charlie Barry, she succeeded in killing the reptile, which proved to be a black snake and measured five feet five inches in length. The snake was hung by the road where it attracted much attention from numerous passers-by who were on their way to attend the K. of P. reunion at Reynoldsville.

At the Gates of Death.
Albert Reynolds, one of our well known and highly esteemed citizens, who has been hovering near the gates of death the past four or five days, is still living when we go to press this morning, but the doctors have given up all hopes of his recovery. He will not live many hours. Weak heart is the trouble.

Mr. Reynolds called a doctor in to see him one week ago last Monday. He continued to grow worse and four or five town doctors were called in for consultation on Thursday and they all agreed that his illness was caused by some obstruction in the intestines and an operation was the only hope of saving his life. Friday morning a telegram was sent to Dr. Stewart of Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg. He arrived here on the 6:15 p. m. train and the operation was performed about 9:30 that night. A gall stone about the size of a bantam hen egg was found in the small part of intestine, plugging the intestine tightly.

Meeting of Town Council.
The regular monthly meeting of town council was held on Tuesday evening of last week with all the members present. They had a long session and adjourned about midnight until Friday evening and adjourned again until Saturday morning. At the Tuesday night meeting they heard reports from committees, considered several petitions for opening street extensions, &c. Among the reports of amount of money received was one for $108.00 from the Summersville Telephone Company for three years' taxes on telephone poles.

One of the wise things done by the "boro dads" was to order a large safe to keep the borough records in. If a fire should occur and destroy the records it would be an irreparable loss to the borough, and for that reason it does seem that a big risk has been run all these years without a fire proof safe to keep the records in.

Council has accepted the petition for paving Jackson street, from Seventh street to Bradford, or Ninth street. An ordinance for paving the street has been passed by council and will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The street is to be paved with repressed brick, same as Fourth street is paved with.

Wedding Bells.
Monday evening, June 12, 1905, Harry L. McEntire, P. D., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McEntire, of this place, and Miss Vada de Maris Hatten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hatten, of DuBois, were united in marriage by the groom's grandfather, Rev. J. C. McEntire, at home of the reverend gentleman in West Reynoldsville. Two or three members of Rev. McEntire's family were the only persons who witnessed the marriage ceremony.

Dr. McEntire, who graduated last month from the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, has accepted a good position in Philadelphia. He is a bright young man with a promising future before him. The bride is one of DuBois' handsome young ladies. THE STAR joins with their friends in extending congratulations and best wishes. Announcement cards will be issued to-day.

Ben Hur Friday Night.
Miss Mildred Gillum last night at the Chenango at M. E. church gave a recital of Ben Hur in monologue. The audience was thoroughly appreciative and all enjoyed the evening. Miss Gillum is an elocutionist of rare merit and her work came up to the expectations of all who had heard the words of praise of her. Her recital covers the whole book and is very realistic. Her work was especially fine in the scene describing the fight of the Roman vessels with the pirate ships and the rescue of the Roman centurion by Ben Hur. The chariot scene was also very strongly given. Miss Gillum received words of praise for her fine work.—Binghamton, N. Y.

Miss Gillum will be at the Baptist church Friday evening, June 16. Seats on sale at the Boyle-Woodward Drug Co. store.

Teachers Elected.
Last Wednesday evening the Reynoldsville school board elected the following corps of teachers for next term of school: Principal, Prof. Clifford Scott, assistant principal, Norman Bish, Catherine D. Dewey, Anna Kunes, Julia Kirk, Lulu Black, Blanche Thornton, Margaret Butler, Ollie Ross, Susie Schultz, Edna Lewis, Elizabeth Baughman, Edith Clark, Janet Snedden.

Two additional rooms will be opened next term and Misses Baughman and Clark, of this place, are the new teachers for the new rooms. Prof. Scott and Miss Dewey come from Meadville and Prof. Bish from Butler.

For the Convenience of the Public.
The Pennsylvania fast train from Pittsburgh is due at Falls Creek at 1:05 p. m. and the B. & P. "flyer" from Pittsburgh is due at Falls Creek at the same time, but if people from this section want to go north on B. & P. "flyer" they have to leave here on the 11:42 a. m. train to run no risks in catching the B. & P. train. If the Pennsylvania would make its train a couple of minutes earlier, or the B. & P. would make its train a couple of minutes later, it would make it much pleasanter and more convenient for people from New Bethlehem, Brookville and Reynoldsville who want to go north over the B. & P.

Practical Plumber.
M. J. Evers, formerly of Ridgway, a member of the Union Plumbing Co. of Reynoldsville, has come to town to devote his time to the interest of this new plumbing company. Mr. Evers is a practical plumber and steam fitter, having been employed in that line of work the past four years with Hyde, Murphy & Co., big contractors of Ridgway. Mr. Evers and his partner, Ralph D. Albright, who is also a practical plumber, are prepared to do all kinds of work in their line.

Parochial School Closed.
The parochial school closed last Friday with a special program in the afternoon consisting of songs and recitations. The closing exercises were very good.

THE K. OF P. REUNION

WELL ATTENDED AND ENJOYABLE EVENT.
Parade Was a Mile Long and Half a Dozen Bands Made the Welkin Ring. At DuBois Next Year.

The twelfth annual reunion of the First Reunion District of the Knights of Pythias of Pennsylvania, held in Reynoldsville on Thursday of last week, was one of the most successful and pleasant K. of P. reunion ever held in this district, and it brought to Reynoldsville one of the largest and most orderly crowds that ever visited our town. The day was an ideal one for just such an occasion, the town was nicely decorated, our townpeople extended the visitors a cordial welcome and everything was favorable for a day of pleasure for the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisterhood, and judging from their actions and the happy expression that was continuously conspicuous on the face of most every one as they passed up and down the streets, they had an enjoyable time. It is estimated that there were about five thousand and strangers in town that day.

The early morning trains brought in a number of Pythians and friends and the trolley cars on both Punksutawney and Sykesville branches were well filled every trip during the forenoon. At 10:45 a. m. a special train of nine coaches came in over the R. & F. C. R'y bringing a large number of Knights of Pythias and friends from Clearfield, Curwensville, DuBois, Falls Creek, Johnsonburg, Ridgway and intermediate stations. The 11:42 a. m. train on R. R. brought in a large delegation from Brookville. There were six bands in town and from 9:00 a. m. until late in the evening the welkin rang continuously with band music.

The delegates reported at K. of P. hall during the forenoon and at 1:30 p. m. the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisterhood formed in line for the parade, which moved up Main street about 2:00 p. m. It was a large and nice looking parade, about a mile long. They marched up Main to Seventh, up Seventh to Grant, down Grant to Fourth, out Fourth to Main, down Main to Frank's Tavern, where the Keystone band, which headed parade, opened ranks, allowing the following lodge to pass through and fall in behind and open ranks for next lodge, and so on until the rear end of parade had to walk over P. R. R. in West Reynoldsville to get through the open ranks.

Postmaster E. C. Burns was chief marshal and J. W. Gillespie and C. M. Murray assistant marshals. After the parade there was a band tournament in the park, in which the DuBois band won first prize, $30.00, and Johnsonburg band second prize, $15.00. Later in the day the following prizes were awarded to lodges participating in the parade:

Lodge having largest percentage of members in line, Sykesville lodge, District Banner. This is the third time this lodge has won the banner and will keep it now.
Lodge having largest number of members in line, Brady Lodge, $15.00.
Lodge bringing most members longest distance, Chestnut Ridge lodge, $10.00.
Lodge of Pythian Sisterhood having largest percentage of membership in line, Rathmel, $10.00.
Lodge Pythian Sisterhood having largest number of members in line, DuBois, $10.00.
Best marching by Pythian Sisterhood, Punksutawney, $15.00.
Uniformed Raak, K. of P. having largest number of members in line, DuBois, $20.00.

The DuBois Degree team conferred the Third Rank on several Esquires. The next annual reunion will be held in DuBois the second Thursday in June, 1905.

The committee having charge of the reunion and the other members of Valiant Lodge, are very thankful to the merchants and citizens of Reynoldsville for decorating for the occasion and helping in other ways to make the reunion a success.

Mass Meeting.
Friday evening of this week a mass meeting in the interest of Judge John W. Reed's candidacy will be held in Frank's Park at this place. Addresses will be made by Bernard Rice, of DuBois, C. Z. Gordon, C. C. Benscoter, of Brookville, M. M. Davis, Hon. S. B. Elliott, of Reynoldsville, and Judge Reed, Congressman Burke or Congressman Dalzell, of Pittsburg, are expected to be present. The Keystone band will furnish music, and there will likely be one or two other bands here. Special trains will be run from Brookville and Falls Creek.

Still a Candidate.
Some person or persons have circulated the report that I have withdrawn as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff. I want to say to my friends that the report is false. I have not withdrawn and have no intention of doing so. I am still a candidate.
F. P. ADELSPERGER.

"It Is Up to You."
If you wish a day of rare enjoyment it is up to you to go on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg R'y excursion to Buffalo and Niagara Falls Sunday, June 18th. Special train will leave Falls Creek at 6:35 a. m. and the round trip fare will be only $2.50. Tickets will also be good returning from Buffalo on regular trains Monday, June 19th.

Mrs. Harriet Atchison and daughter, Miss Viola, of Curving, Kan., Jacob Hopkins and wife, of Knoxia, John Geist and wife, of Brookville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Haugh, near this place, last week. Mrs. Atchison is a sister of Mr. Haugh and this was the first time they had seen each other for thirty-three years. Because he was told of some of his tricks of boyhood days, Mr. Haugh thinks some people of Kansas have pretty good memories.

Mrs. Perry A. Reno and daughter, Miss Amy, of Sharon, visited in Reynoldsville several days the past week. They were returning from Baltimore, Md., where Miss Amy graduated from the Women's College. Rev. Reno also attended the commencement at the Women's College, but had to go to Sharon Saturday to fill his pulpit Sunday and could not stop at Reynoldsville. After the commencement Rev. and Mrs. Reno and Miss Amy spent a few days in Washington, D. C., Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

Fence in Ball Ground.
There is material in Reynoldsville for a good base ball club and we have good ground to play ball on, but the ground is not fenced in and a ball club cannot raise enough money by collection to pay the necessary expense to keep up a club and pay the expense of having other clubs come here to play ball, but if the ground was fenced in so that an admission could be charged then Reynoldsville can have a base ball team. The ground can be leased for a small sum per year and it would not require a great outlay of money to build a high fence around it. There is some talk of organizing a stock company to lease the ground and fence it in.

Board Re-organized—Teachers Elected.
The West Reynoldsville school board re-organized last week with W. A. Leech as president, O. H. Johnston secretary and Charles A. Hoppel treasurer.

The following teachers were elected: Principal, J. H. Wilson, Misses Anna A. Fleming, Mary E. Cowan and Maude Meek. Miss Wilson, who taught last year, did not make application. The millage laid was 6 mills school and 2 mills school building.
