A Gigantic Sale for Men, Boys and Children.

A MIGHTY PURCHASE

SCOTT McCLELLAND'S entire $19,000.00 stock of Tailor-made Clothing, Furnishing Goods and Hats has been purchased by The Great Western Salvage Co., of Chicago, Ill., and the world's greatest clothing sale began Monday, July 24th, 9.00 o'clock a. m. at Scott McClelland's stand, Main street, Reynoldsville, Penn'a, for 12 days only.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC.

The Great Western Salvage Co. is a company of capitalists incorporated under the laws of Illinois and is the largest institution of its kind in the world, operating 48 stores and large warehouses in Chicago, and whose special aim is to buy entire stocks for spot cash, at less than the cost of raw material to manufacture, as they have done in this instance. This sale commenced on Monday, July 24th, at 9.00 a. m. for 12 days. This immense stock consists of Men's, Boys', Children's Clothing, Hats, Furnishing Goods and 10,000 other articles. We cannot mention here all under the roof to be sold in 12 days at 33c on the dollar.

Do not confound this bona fide sale with other so-called "Clearance Sales" that are or have been in progress in Reynoldsville. How unsatisfactory the English language becomes when one is enthusiastic and honest in his belief. How cold and calculating the words hang upon the reader's lips when they simply show the truth in its most barefaced manner. Such is the condition that will exist at this sale. It is very, very easy to say things, but to back them up as we will do is unusual. But there is a reason for it which is appreciated by good honest economical people who know the power of value and the weight of a reputation that stands back of every purchase which leaves this store. It is natural for you to have a slight doubt about it at first. We know that. But when you learn the real truth of the matter then all doubt is vanished.

Scott McClelland, former proprietor of the Bell Clothing Store, who has been in business and one of Reynoldsville's most trustworthy and honorable associates, for a number of years, could have sold his stock to a much better advantage, but preferred placing the same in the hands of a well known and reliable concern who would deal liberally with the people and on the same honorable basis that has marked his many years career in business in Reynoldsville.
