An Early Benediction. For several weeks past the Baptist congregation in this place has been greatly inconvenienced at their evening services by the trouble with the electric lights. Sunday evening there was no electric light and they had but two gas jets at the sides of the organ to illuminate their church. Semi-darkness may add a little to the solemnity of a religious service, but it is almost impossible to preach effectively when the minister and his audience can scarcely see each other. After the usual opening services of singing and prayer the pastor, Dr. Meek, quietly but firmly remarking that he would borrow no more lamps and preach no more sermons in the dark, pronounced the benediction.

Quiet Morning Wedding. A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis, on Jackson street, Reynoldsville, Thursday morning, August 10th, 1905, at 6:00 o'clock. The REV. J. W. MYERS, Pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church.

MRS. ELLEN EVANS

Died at Her Home on East Main Street Friday Morning.

Mrs. Ellen Evans, widow of George Evans, died at her late home on East Main street, Reynoldsville, Pa., on Friday morning at 8:00 o'clock, August 11, 1905, after a lingering illness of months. She was born in Warsaw township, Jefferson county, Pa., February 26, 1852. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bullers and was married September 16, 1869. She was the mother of eight children, seven of whom are still living, viz: four sons and three daughters. She, with her husband, came to Reynoldsville about thirty-one years ago. Her husband died October 22, 1891, and as a mother she bravely fought the battle of life and always kept a home for her children. She made a profession of religion when about fourteen years old and has since endeavored to live for her master and to do his will. She was a faithful member of the Reynoldsville Baptist church and died trusting in Jesus as her Savior and Lord. She was conscious that the time of her departure from earth drew near and was resigned to the Master's will. Funeral services were held at her late residence on Sunday, August 13, at 3:30 p. m. by her pastor, Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. The services were largely attended. Many neighbors and friends followed her remains to the Baptist cemetery where she was laid to rest at the side of loved ones who had gone before. Besides her children she is survived by her aged father, six brothers and two sisters, her mother having died March 3, 1892. She was an excellent neighbor and highly respected by all whom she met. The family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sorrow.

THE LUTHERANS WILL BUY A PARSONAGE.

An Effort Now Being Made to Raise Necessary Funds.—Church in Good Condition.

The members of Trinity Lutheran church are now making an effort to raise sufficient funds to purchase a parsonage in Reynoldsville. The local membership of this congregation is comparatively small and the contemplated purchase of a parsonage is a heavy undertaking for them, but by their combined efforts and whatever the public in general may extend to them, they have good prospects of success. There is possibly no church in Reynoldsville more deserving of help and support from the people than the Trinity Lutheran. The Reynoldsville charge is composed of three congregations, Reynoldsville, Emerickville and Chestnut Grove, and to keep in close touch with the people and preach regularly at some, and frequently at all, points, requires long and ceaseless work on the part of the pastor. That the present pastor, Rev. J. W. Myers, has been doing this successfully is apparent by the gratifying growth of both church and Sunday schools and the revived interest of the old members of the congregations. The church has never had a minister more earnest in his labor, or more eloquent in the pulpit, nor one who has stood higher in the estimation of the public than its present incumbent. Under these favorable conditions the appeal for money from members and the public should meet with a prompt response.

Surprise Party.

Mrs. N. T. Rhodes, of West Reynoldsville, was given a "berry party" last Friday evening which proved to be a very pleasant affair. When some of her friends asked her the date of her birthday she had laughingly refused to tell and said it came about blackberry time. Taking that as a guide about twenty-three of her neighbors and friends attempted to guess the date and surprise her, and they succeeded admirably for they missed the right date by five days, but the affair was none the less enjoyable for that. Refreshments and fruit were served and the evening very pleasantly whiled away. The guests were as follows: Mrs. Joseph McKernan, Mrs. W. A. Leach, Mrs. S. M. Siple, Mrs. R. S. Williams, Miss Clara Siple, Miss Emma Minnewasser Mrs. G. R. Yuengert, Mrs. C. G. O'Donnel, Mrs. R. A. Fergus, Mrs. O. H. Johnston, Mrs. W. F. Woodring, Mrs. W. W. Drake, Mrs. J. M. Stephenson Mrs. Barbara Dunkle, Mrs. N. Anderson, Mrs. C. Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fales, M. Albert Warden. Mrs. J. Cooper, Mrs. A. Cable, Miss Katie Snyder, Mrs. Nora Wayland, Mrs. W. Z. Burris.

Picnicers.

Two big four-seated back loads of ladies drove out to Amos Deemer's, at Deemer's Cross Roads, yesterday morning, all taking well-filled baskets, and in spite of occasional showers had a jolly good time picnicing on the farm. The ladies were as follows: Mrs. A. H. Bower, Mrs. A. J. Meek, Mrs. J. A. Parsons, Mrs. John Wagner, Mrs. J. E. Mitchell, Mrs. L. Lloyd Gourley, Mrs. C. R. Hall, Mrs. A. Keith, Mrs. Mary Strong, Mrs. T. C. Shields, Mrs. Annie Winslow, Mrs. J. W. Dawson, Mrs. B. E. Hoover, Mrs. M. E. Weed, Mrs. C. P. Koerner and friends, Mrs. Henry Herpel, Mrs. Charles Herpel, Mrs. H. W. McGarrab, Mrs. Hodson, Mrs. Myers, Miss Myrtle Boyle, Mrs. Isaac Swartz, Mrs. M. G. Swartz, Mrs. Walter R. Reed, Mrs. Harry Peters, and Mrs. Warren Deible, who arranged the affair.

Emerickville Ox-Roast.

Six acres of ground have been cleared in Peter Baum's grove at Emerickville in preparation for the ox-roast Thursday of this week. The Emerickville band, under whose auspices the affair will be held, expects to furnish a first-class day of pleasure for the visitors. Two games of ball will be played, Brookville vs. Emerickville in the morning and Reynoldsville vs. Emerickville in the afternoon. There will also be plenty of other sport and an abundance of things for eating and refreshment.
