Death From Tuberculosis.

Catherine Shugrou, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Shugrou, died at home of her parents on Jackson street at 10.30 a. m., Friday, August 18, 1905. Her death was caused by tuberculosis. She had been confined closely to her home since Easter of this year. Funeral services took place in the Catholic church at 9.00 a. m. Monday. Requiem Mass said by Father Lynch. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery at this place.

Catherine Shugrou was born in Williamsport, Pa., August 9, 1883, and was 22 years and 9 days old at time of death. Her parents moved to Reynoldsville fifteen years ago and during those years Catherine made many warm friends in Reynoldsville on account of her cheerful disposition. She was a good soprano singer and was a member of the Catholic choir a number of years.

Catherine was a member of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin and about forty members of that society attended the funeral in a body.

The floral tribute was as follows: Pillow, with words "at rest," from members of B. P. O. Elks, spray of roses Statia Burchard, bouquet Fred Foley, wreath Bohren and Wildauer brothers, bouquet James Degnan and sisters, bouquet Emma and Eveline Fissette, bouquet Susie and Hattie Schultze, Kathryn Kerr, Althea Sutter, Rose Flannery, Clara Geisler, bouquet roses Kate and Lydia Phalen, Mary Burgoon, bouquet Ada and Margaret Martin, Julia and Margaret Stoke, bouquet Mrs. M. The following out of town people attended the funeral: P. A. Shugrou and wife, of Konecverte, W. Va., Mrs. Patrick Hannon, Thomas Hannon, C. D. Shugrou, Mrs. Thomas Shugrou, of Williamsport, Misses Josephine and Susie Burgoon, of Buffalo, N. Y., Misses Emma and Eveline Fissette, of Kittanning.

One Reason Why Franchise Not Granted.

Saturday, August 12, the supervisors and other officials of Winslow township met at Frank's Tavern in Reynoldsville to consider an application from the DuBois Traction Company for right of way for a trolley line along the public road from Jefferson county line to Sykesville, but the right of way was not granted at that meeting. One of the reasons for not granting the franchise on 12th inst. was the fact that there was no time specified in the application as to when the traction company would begin to build the trolley line nor when it would be completed. Failure to state limit of time for beginning and completing the work may have been an oversight by the person who made out the application, but the officials acted wisely in not granting the franchise on that proposition. No company should be granted a franchise without a reasonable limitation for beginning and completing the work.

Struck a Good "Berry Patch."

GONE TO HER REWARD.

Mrs. Solomon Berkhouse Departed This Life August 16—Was An Excellent Woman.

At 3.45 p. m. on Wednesday, August 16, 1905, Mrs. Solomon Berkhouse peacefully departed this life after over two months of intense suffering. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Klepfer. She was born at Shannondale, Clarion county, Pa., January 3, 1841, making her 64 years, 7 months and 13 days old at time of death. She was united in marriage to Solomon Berkhouse Aug. 31, 1865, forty years ago this month. Unto the five children were born, two of whom preceded the mother into the Eternal Land. Three sons, with the husband, survive the deceased. The sons are: C. D. Berkhouse, farmer in Beechwoods, C. A. Berkhouse, merchant, Brookville, M. A. Berkhouse, resident of West Reynoldsville.

Early in life Mrs. Berkhouse united with the Evangelical church at Shannondale and continued a faithful and consistent member of that church until she moved to Emerickville eighteen or twenty years ago, when she joined the Methodist Episcopal church. She lived an exemplary christian life and when the Angel Messenger summoned her to cross the river of death she was ready and willing to go. Mrs. Berkhouse was confined to her bed two months and ten days and while her suffering was intense she bore it graciously, never complained. She was conscious up to the very last moments of life and although unable to speak above a whisper she tried to join with others in singing "Sweet Rest in Heaven" just a few minutes before her eyes closed in death.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkhouse moved to West Reynoldsville one year ago last spring and she was not very well known in Reynoldsville, but she was a kind hearted, whole souled, christian woman, good wife, good mother and a very kind neighbor. During her illness her neighbors and friends sent in many bouquets which were greatly appreciated and enjoyed by her. Mrs. Berkhouse was the last member of her family, her father, mother, brothers and sisters all having preceded her from time to eternity.

Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Emerickville at 10.30 a. m. Saturday, conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church, assisted by Rev. W. H. Garnett, pastor of the Emerickville M. E. church. Interment was made in the Emerickville cemetery.

The floral tribute was as follows: Pillow, from sons of deceased, pillow, from nieces, two large bouquets, Women's Relief Corps, wreath, Mrs. Charles Berkhouse, wreath, Mrs. Thomas Williams, wreath, Mrs. Jeff Baughman, bouquets from Mrs. P. J. Ward, Mrs. R. D. Albright, Mrs. Fred J. Austin, Mrs. Joseph Tyler, Mrs. Joseph L. Cable, Mrs. Charles Woodward, Misses Mary and Esther Klepfer, Mrs. Lewis Williams, Mrs. N. Chittester, Mrs. W. W. Fales, Mrs. M. Brennan.

Glass Manufacturers' Convention.

At a window glass meeting held in Columbus, Ohio, last week it was decided by a unanimous vote to endorse the new selling price list and uphold the action of the wage committee in signing the Cedar Point Scale. The decision was not made hastily. Both Faulkner and Burns were present and were requested to address the assembled manufacturers, which they did. Both officials explained the position of their organization. It is claimed that this was the largest personal representation that ever before attended a window glass meeting.
