Cheer Up.

Cheer up! The world is taking your photograph. Look pleasant. Of course you have your troubles—troubles you can not tell the policeman. A whole lot of things bother you, of course. Business worries, or domestic sorrows, it may be, or what not. You find life a rugged road, whose stones hurt your feet. Nevertheless, cheer up!
It may be your real disease is selfishness—ingrown selfishness. Your life is too self-centered. You imagine your tribulations are worse than others bear. You feel sorry for yourself—the meanest sort of pity. It is a pathetic illusion. Rid yourself of that, and cheer up!
What right have you to carry a picture of your webogenic face and funeral ways about among your fellows, who have troubles of their own? If you must whine, or sulk, or scowl, take a car, and go the woods, or to the unfrequented lanes.
Cheer up! Your ills are largely imaginary. If you were really on the brink of bankruptcy, or if there were no thoroughfare through your sorrows, you would clear your brows, set your teeth, and make the best of it.
Cheer up! You are making a hypothetical case out of your troubles, and suffering from a self-inflicted verdict. You are borrowing troubles, and paying a high rate of interest.
Cheer up! Why, man alive, in a ten-minute walk you may see a score of people worse off than you. And here you are digging your own grave, and playing pall-bearer into the bargain. Man alive, you must do your work! Smile, even though it be through your tears, which speedily dry. And cheer up!—Young Folks.
