In speaking of the parade the DuBois fournal said : "The drilling team of the Reynoldsville lodge received hearty applause all along the line."

The P.O.S. of A. state convention will be held at Allentown in 1906.

Reckless Driving Caused Mishap.

Monday night, shortly after twelve clock, a couple from DuBois met with a mishap on Main street in this place. The young man started his horse up Main street at an ordinance breaking speed and kept urging the animal on by applying the whip and when they came to where Nolan's new residence is being erected and some stone are lying at side of street the front wheel of buggy struck one of the stone and there was a spill. The young lady escaped with a few bruises, but the young man's face was badly injured. Four or five spokes were broken out of buggy wheel. Fast and reckless driving was the cause of accident.

Child Burned to Death.

Friday evening Frederick, two year old son of Frank Fox, of Sandy Valley, and another little boy were playing in the yard and in some way Frederick's clothing caught on fire and the little fellow was so badly burned that on the following evening, Saturday, August 26, 1905, at eight o'clock he died. It is supposed that the children had a match and in lighting it Frederick's clothing caught fire. Funeral service was held yesterday afternoon conducted by Rev J. C. McEntire, of Reynoldsville. Interment was made in the Sandy Valley cemetery. Undertaker J. H. Hughes of Reynoldsville, had charge of the funeral.

MRS. CHARLES M. DINGER DIED THURSDAY MORNING.

Had been Ill Many Months-The Funeral was held Sunday Afternoon at Emerville and was Very Large.

Mrs. Sallie Dinger, wife of Charles M. Dinger, a member of the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. of this place, died at the home of her father, E. Weiser, at Emerickville at 1.30 a. m. Thursday August 24, 1905, after a long illness from cancer. Mrs. Dinger had been in New York City and Philadelphia a couple of times consulting and receiving treatment from eminent physicians, but they were powerless to stay the dread disease. Not until the Sunday before she died did Mrs. Dinger give up hope of being restored to health, and when she did give up her lamp of life soon went out. Her suffering was not intense until the last two days. She talked to her husband about dying and said she was ready to depart this life. The last words she uttered ten minutes before she died were : "It is after mid night; we will go to sleep and sleep good." She did go to sleep never to awaken to earthly scenes again.

Sallie Dinger was born at Emerickville October 22, 1868, and would have been 37 years old next October. She clerked in her father's store at Emerick ville for some time and was well known and well liked in that neighborhood. September 23, 1891, Charles M. Dinger and Sallie Weiser were united in marriage at Emerickville. Three children, two sons and one daughter, were born unto them, two of whom pre eeded the mother to the Eternal Shores Deceased is survived by her husband and two year old son, Charles, her father and two sisters, Mrs. Lavina Baum, of Reynoldsville, and Mrs. O. F. Haines, of Emerickville. Husband, father and two sisters were at the bedside when Mrs. Dinger died

Mrs. Dinger was a member of the Lutheran church at Emerickville a very conspicuous in the big parade number of years, but after Mr. and Mrs. Thursday afternoon, winning the fifty Dinger moved to Reynoldsville five Red Bank Telephone Co. lines cover dollar prize for the best marching Camp | years ago, they both joined the Presbyterian church in this place. On account of poor health Mrs. Dinger was not able to attend church very often the past two or three years.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Emerickville at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Reynolds ville Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. J. W. Myers, of Reynoldsville pastor of Lutheran church. It was one of the largest funerals probably ever held at Emerickville, the church being crowded and fully enough on the out side to refill it twice more. This was largely due to the large acquaintance Mrs. Dinger had and the fact that she clerked in her father's store from a little girl until a few years ago, and the kind way and word she had for everybody. The Sons of Veterans, of Reynoldsville, of which Mr. Dinger is a member, attended the funeral in a body. Interment was made in the Emerickville cemetery.

Floral tribute: Standing wreath, from husband; pillow, father and sisters; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Scheafnocker; pillow, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. King; bouquets, Mrs. A. M. Applegate, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Sayers, Mrs. Wm. Beninger, Mrs. John Hatton, Mrs. A. G. Dinger, Mrs. A. J. Emery, Mrs. J. R. Keys, and others whose names we were unable to get.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were : Mrs. John and Miss Lizzie Weiser, Miamisburg, Ohio, Miss Sallie Weiser, of Sunbury, Pa., Mr. G. A. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. George Barclay, East Pittsburg.

MURDER AT COOL SPRING.

Wesley Enterline Shot His Step-father George Geist, Friday Morning.

Last Friday morning Wesley Enterline, aged 24 years, deliberately shot his step-father, George Geist, in the abdomen with a shot gun, which resulted in the death of Mr. Gelst Friday evening. The shooting occurred at Cool Spring, Jefferson county. Two Punxsutawney doctors were summoned and they moved Mr. Geist immediatley to Dr. Grube's hespital in Punxsutawney and at 6.00 p. m. the old man died. Geist was 63 years old. It is claimed that Enterline is demented at times and that the crime was committed during one of his spells of temporary insanity. After shooting his step-father Enterline shouldered the shot gun and went to the woods, but in a short time he returned to a neighbor's house and gave himself up. He was taken to Brookville jail and has since been moved to the insane department at the ounty home.

Telephone Lines Consolidating.

It was stated in THE STAR sometime ago that the stock of the Knoxdale and Reynoldsville Division of the Farmers' Telephone Company was to be transferred to the Red Bank Telephone Company and become a part of that company. Saturday afternoon W. M. Sowers, of Brookville, general superin tendent of the Red Bank Telephone Company, and stockholders of the Knoxdale and Reynoldsville division held a meeting in Frank's Park, Revnoldsville, to complete arrangements for the consolidation of the two lines.

Some of the farmers in the neighborhood of Hormtown have a branch telephone line and L. M. Hetrick and several other influential citizens from that section attended the meeting Saturday to get the Red Bank Telephone Com pany to take their line under its wide and continuously broadening wings. We understand that the Paradise Telephone Company line is to consolidate other counties, and it is destined to become a great factor in the telephone business in this section of the country in the near future.

Reunion Well Attended.

It is estimated that between six and even hundred people attended the fourth annual Pifer reunion at Wishaw on Wednesday of last week, August 23rd. Addresses were made by Rev. Himes, Rev. Powell, W. K. Pifer, Hop. Henry I. Wilson and Hon. P. S. Weber The addresses were interspersed with music by orchestra. There was a game of base ball in the afternoon. The young people danced in the evening. The next reunion will be held August 23. 1906, unless changed by order of committee, H. K. Pifer, John P. Pifer and W. T. Pifer, Jr., before July 1, 1906.

To-morrow, (Thursday) evening, the Keystone band will hold a dance in Reynolds Park Pavilion which will be the last band dance until October 5th. Every body turn out and make this the "big" dance of the season. Teli all your friends in and out of town to attend. It takes money to keep a band in existence and these dances are held for the purpose of enriching the Keystone band treasury for its support. We all should be proud of our band and lend a helping hand.

Prof. Clarence Hines has arranged for a trolley car to leave Punxsutawney for Reynoldsville at 12.30 to-morrow, Thursday, night after the dance.

The Keystone Band,

One of the best musical organizations in this part of the state is the old Keyband of Reynoldsville. Many years this band has been a competitor for first prize with the Volunteer and the old Excelsion, of DuBols. It was one of the bands in the parade yesterday and last evening favored DuBois people with concerts at both Edgemont Park and on the streets. W. W. Wiley is manager.-DuBois Courier August 25.

The Keystone band of Reynoldsville gave a splendid concert under the are light at Brady street and Long Avenue on Thursday evening to the great delight of a thousand people or more The programme consisted of standard overtures handled in a masterful manner, reflecting great credit upon the organization, Director Ramsey and Manager W. W. Wiley. The Keystone band is always warmly welcomed to Du-Bols and frequent exchanges of cour tesies between this band and our popular Volunteer band would be enjoyed .-DuBois Correspondent to Penn'a Grit.

Grange Picnic.

The grangers of this section held a picnic at Wishaw Park last Thursday. About two hundred people attended and had a very pleasant time. At 11.45 a. m. a meeting was held in the pavil ion with J. M. Norris as chairman and Thomas Cathers secretary. Address of welcome was given by Rev. Dr. A. J Meek, of Reynoldsville, and J. N. Kelley, of Brookville, was called on to respond to address of welcome, after which meeting adjourned until 1.30 p m. to give the hungry people an opportunity to do justice to the good things that had been prepared for the plenic occasion. At 1.30 Chairman Norris called the people to order and Rev. Dr. H. G. Teagarden, of Punxsutawney, delivered a very able and excellent address. Judge John W. Reed and Stewart H. Whitehill, Esq., both of Brookville, were called on for The Strauss orchestra furnished music and there was some dancing during the afternoon and evening.

Sunday evening Rev. Dr. J. A Parsons, pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church, preached at Deemer's Cross Roads and administered the Sacrament of the Lord's supper, and Rev. W. H. Garnett, paster of the Emerickville M. E. church, filled Dr Parsons' pulpit in this place. Rev Garnett preached an illustrated and excellent sermon. He used a jar of water and chemicals to illustrate how sir plackens the life and that church nembership, baptism and good resolu tions would not remove the blackness out of the life, that only the blood of fesus Christ would clarify the life and make it pure again. The sermon would certainly make a lasting impression on the people who heard it. Rev. Garnnett's text was : "The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all

Party Monday Evening.

A party was held at home of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Kirk, on Main street, Monday evening that answered a two-fold reception and farewell party It was first intended to give a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Herpel, who were married on 16th inst., but as Ralph Kirk was going away from home to enter into businesss, it was decided to issue invitations to some of Ralph's friends and combine reception and farewell party. It was a very pleasant and enjoyable affair, not marred in the least by the combination.

Mr. and Mrs. Herpel will go to house keeping in Punxsutawney next week, where Mr. Herpel has a position in office of the J. & C. C. & I. Co.

Postoffice Ruling.

The postoffice department has made a new ruling on mail- matter addressed to patrons on rural routes which will be of great benefit in this country when the reorganization of the system goes into effect this fall. Under the new ruling postmasters are allowed to forward papers as well as mail matter from one office to another where the person addressed is on a rural route. In the many changes from one postoffice to another that will result when the new routes are established it will require several months for the patrons to have their mail properly addressed, and while there will necessarily be delays, mail of every character will finally reach the party to whom it was addressed .- Brockwayville Record.
