The stone work on the new Methodist Episcopal church was completed last Saturday. The building will be under roof before many weeks.

Miss Edith Herpel entertained a quarter of a hundred young people at her home Monday evening. Fine refreshments were served.

Miss Ella E. Seeley's painting class pupils and friends held a picnic at Wislaw Park last Friday evening. It was a very delightful event.

The hard and continuous rain Sunday night and Monday forenoon made sufficient flood in the Sandy Lick creek to clean out the bed of the stream.

A number of the members of the Women's Relief Corps and some friends will attend the annual picnic at the Memorial Home at Brookville to-day.

Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek will preach at Rathmel on Sunday at 3:30 p. m. at which time a free will offering will be taken for the repairs of the Church of God.

Men are now at work on the extension of the DuBois trolley line to Sykesville. We understand the new line will take in Helvetia, Stanley and Erie shaft at West Liberty.

Rev. D. A. Platt, former pastor of Brookville M. E. church, was appointed presiding elder of the Franklin district by the Erie annual conference held in Ridgway.

The property opposite the Lutheran church on Jackson street has been bought for Lutheran parsonage. The house will be enlarged before Rev. Myers moves into it.

Evangelist J. E. Kirkwood, who recently returned home from the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, preached an excellent sermon on Sunday morning in the Baptist church at this place.

A small blaze in a barn on alley near corner of Third and Mable streets last Thursday forenoon called out Hope Fire Company, but the fire was extinguished with a few buckets of water.

Two boys, George Smith and William Shutt, killed a black snake measuring four feet Friday evening on the road between the Enterprise Silk mill and West Reynoldsville. The snake was killed on the road when they were driving home.

Mrs. Margaret Little, of Punsutawney, relict of Captain Ed. Little, and sister of Mrs. Amelia Murray, of Reynoldsville, died at her home in Punsutawney Saturday morning, September 9, 1905. Funeral took place Tuesday afternoon.

A copy of the Industrial Directory of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, containing classified list of Merchants and Manufacturers and their location, was left at THE STAR office yesterday afternoon by M. J. Farrell, agent for P. R. R. Co. at this place.

There was an explosion of gas and dry dust in Stanley Shaft last Saturday morning. There were six men in the shaft at the time, but only one was injured and that was J. G. King, who was badly burned on left side of face and neck. Mr. King was in Reynoldsville last evening.

Ninian Cooper returned yesterday from a visit at Warsaw and in the Beechwoods. Mr. Cooper says if there is no frost the next ten days the corn crop will be the best ever seen in this section of the country. Early in the season the general prediction was that the corn would be a failure. The ears are large and full.

The P. R. R. Co. hauled about five hundred people from Reynoldsville to Brookville Thursday to attend the county fair. The 8:08 a. m. train Thursday was composed of eleven coaches and two engines, and the coaches were all full when the train pulled out from this place. Beside the crowd that went on trains a number of persons drove to Brookville that day.

The regular monthly meeting of the Law and Order League was held in Centennial hall Monday evening, in the absence of the president, Rev. J. A. Parsons, Vice-President A. T. McClure presided. The routine of business was carried out. The resignation of Chief Burgess L. L. Gourley as treasurer was accepted and John H. Corbett was elected to fill the vacancy. The next meeting will be held in Centennial hall on first Monday evening of October.

The new sheep law now in force has a number of provisions which differ from the one formerly in operation. Heretofore, when dogs killed a farmer's sheep two of his neighbors appraised the value, but according to the new law this value is found by the Township Auditors. Another new feature is the fact that the farmer is allowed fifteen cents per head for burying the carcasses, which must be done within three days or he cannot recover anything for his loss.

The Jefferson county W. C. T. U. convention is to be held in Brookville on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, September 19th and 20th, in the M. E. church. Business sessions during both days, and a public meeting both evenings, to be addressed by Mrs. Cora E. Seberry, national lecturer and organizer, who is described by the "Governor Herpel," N. Y., as "A lady of rare ability; a story teller, lecturer, and elocutionist that no one can listen to without being pleased, entertained, and highly instructed."—Brookville Democrat.

A newspaper publisher in Ohio, recently brought suit against forty-five men who would not pay their subscription and obtained judgment in each case for the amount of each claim. Of these, twenty-eight made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allowed, thus preventing attachment. Then under decision of supreme court they were arrested for petit larceny and bound over in the sum of $3000 each. All but six gave bond, while the six went to jail. The new postal law makes it larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.—Exchange.

Rev. W. P. Murray, pastor of the M. E. church at Titusville, preached for the M. E. congregation in Centennial hall Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Murray was pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church one year—Sept. 1891 to Sept. 1892. It had been announced that there would be no preaching in Centennial hall Sunday on account of Erie Annual conference being held at Ridgway, and it was not known here until late Friday evening that Rev. Murray, who was attending conference, would come over to Reynoldsville and preach. Consequently, it was not generally known that there would be preaching in Centennial hall Sunday, however, fair sized congregations were present at both services. Rev. Murray is an able preacher and he gave the Reynoldsville people two excellent sermons.

DR. PARSONS ANOTHER YEAR.

Reception Will be Held in Centennial Hall Next Monday Evening.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Parsons, who was pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church one year, has been returned by the Erie annual conference to Reynoldsville for another year. Dr. Parsons and wife, who are in Canada, will return to Reynoldsville the latter part of this week and Dr. Parsons will fill his pulpit next Sunday, morning and evening.

A reception will be held in Centennial hall next Monday evening for Dr. Parsons and family. The Epworth League has charge of the reception. A short program is being arranged. All members of the church and friends are invited to attend the reception and give Dr. Parsons a cordial and hearty welcome.

L. W. PERRIN DEAD.

Was Injured By Accident July 12—Former Citizen West Reynoldsville.

L. W. Perrin, a farmer of Washington township, a former citizen of West Reynoldsville, died at his home at 3:00 a. m. Thursday, September 7, 1905. His death was the result of an injury received July 12 while hauling logs. He was double teaming on a large log and the log struck a stump in the road breaking a tug and the single-tree flew back and hit Mr. Perrin across the stomach, injuring him so badly that he died from the effects of it two months after accident. He suffered intensely.

L. W. Perrin was born in Warsaw township, Jefferson Co., Pa., in September, 1866, and was 39 years, 5 months and a few days old at time of death. He was married to Anna Calhoun, daughter of W. J. Calhoun. Deceased is survived by his widow and six sons. Funeral service was held in the Presbyterian church at Hazen Saturday forenoon, conducted by Rev. Geo. H. Hill, and interment was made in the Temple cemetery. As an evidence of how highly Mr. Perrin was esteemed, the funeral was an unusually large one, over sixty rigs being in the funeral procession.

Wink Dillman Injured.

Wink Dillman, an employe of the St. James hotel, was found on the Boulevard Monday night about 11:30 with one of his ankles broken. Assistant Chief Logan had the man taken to the St. James and a physician was summoned. It is alleged that the man was put off a street car and later was found in his injured condition.—DuBois Courier.

Mr. Dillman was formerly a resident of Reynoldsville.

Had Ankle Broken.

Tom O'Hare, the well known Reynoldsville boy who was playing ball with the Erie team, met with a serious accident in the second game between DuBois and Erie at the latter place on Saturday. In speaking of the accident the Erie Dispatch says: Mulcahey hit the ball to left field fence and O'Hare caught the ball after a magnificent run. He was running at such a speed, however, that he could not stop and he crashed into the fence breaking his ankle. He turned and throw the ball to an infielder in an attempt to prevent the advance of a base runner and then sank to the ground. He would be laid up for some time.—DuBois Courier.

Sold Practice at Soldier.

Dr. John H. Murray, one of our prominent and successful physicians, who has had the miners practice at Soldier for eight years and devoted most of his time there, giving them good service, sold his practice at that place on Monday to Dr. Free, of DuBois, and hereafter Dr. Murray will devote his entire time to practicing in Reynoldsville and vicinity. A large number of people in this place will be glad to hear that Doctor will practice here and that they can call him when they need him. There is no doubt but that he will soon work up a large practice in Reynoldsville. Doctor's new brick residence on Main street, near iron bridge, in which his office rooms will be located, will soon be ready for occupancy. He will have a fine office when he moves into his new building.

The Daughters of Rebekah will hold a "slave" social in the I. O. O. F. hall on Wednesday evening of next week, Sept. 20.

CONFERENCE APPOINTMENTS.

Dr. Parsons Returns to Reynoldsville—Brookville, Emerickville and Sykesville Get New Preachers.

The Erie annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which was held in Ridgway, closed at four o'clock on Monday afternoon of this week. Bishop J. N. Fitzgerald, of St. Louis, Mo., presided. As The Story Goes.

A Sunday or two ago a couple of agriculturists, of Henderson township, had been imbibing of the "flowing bowl," the bowl this time containing hard cider, and were having a good, old, jolly Sunday of it, and after they got to feeling at their best, they decided to put rings into the noses of some hogs.

They cut some great capers in cornering the hogs and got about as dirty as the hogs and rooted up about as much mud. They succeeded in "rounding up" a hog of no small size as the story goes, gave the two men the tussle of their life, and before the struggle was over, it resulted in the breaking of an arm of one of the men.

We cannot say as to whether or not they landed the ring in the hog's nose.—Sykesville Post-Dispatch.

Get-rich-quick Schemes.

Get-rich-quick schemes are many but results shady and doubtful. More people stay broke looking for a scheme of this sort than ever find them and materialize on their expectations. The old reliable way is to stay by conservative methods. A little work thrown in occasionally would not be amiss. The world is too full of people who are looking for an easy way to make their living. The condition now exists that so many are looking for the easy way that it is harder to find that way than it is to get out and make a living by legitimate methods.—Ex.
