Daylight Robbery.

Last Friday some time between the hours of 9:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m., some person broke into the house of W. B. Hoffman, on Jackson street, while Mrs. Hoffman was visiting her mother and Mr. Hoffman was at work, and stole Mrs. Hoffman's gold watch, diamond ring, money, a new dress pattern, some other things and ate a pie. Every cupboard, bureau drawer and box in the house was ransacked. Mrs. Hoffman had left a note for her husband informing him when she would be home, and the thief evidently read the note and then took his time in looking for money and other things to steal. The thief cut the screen out of cellar window crawled in, broke a panel out of door in kitchen, reached through and unlocked the door, key having been left in lock, and thus gained entrance to house.

Death from Consumption.

Mrs. Herbert P. Jones, whose maiden name was Susannah Main, died at ber home on Railroad street at 5:00 p. m. Friday, September 15, 1905. Tuberculosis was the cause of her death. She had been confined to bed 17 weeks, and was a great sufferer, but bore it patiently. She gave up all hopes of recovery eleven weeks before the died and was ready to depart this life. Had been a member of the M. E. church about twelve years. She was born at Murton, Durham county, England, November 25, 1876, and would have been 29 years old next November. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Main, moved to Reynoldsville when Susannah was eleven years old. September 9, 1894, she was united in marriage to Herbert Jones. Four children were born unto them. three of whom, with the father, survive

GAME WAS CALLED OFF.

DuBois High School Foot Ball Team Re-

fused to Play. A game of foot ball was booked to be played at DuBois Saturday afternoon between the Revnoldsville and DuBois high school teams, but after the Reynoldsville team had dressed in their foot ball suits and were on the ground to play ball, the DuBois team refused to play because Fred Bohren, Reynolds Gibson and Jim Degnan were in the Reynoldsville line-up, claiming that they were not bonafied students of the high school and according to the interscholastic rules were not entitled to play with the Reynoldsville team. The Reynoldsville high school team was technically right. Bohren, Gibson and Degnan are students in the high school, are taking two thirds of the high school course and are diligent in their studies. As the DuBois team was given the Reynoldsville line-up on Friday and it was published in the newspapers of that town Saturday morning, our boys feel that the DuBois team should have notified them by letter or telephone that the game would not be played.

"The Bowery News Girl."

The second attraction of the season at the Empire theatre opened yesterday for the rest of the week to two large houses. It is a new melodrama to Holoke "The Rowery News Girl" made a bit with melodrama lovers. The play is presented with a wealth of special scenery which adds greatly to the effectiveness of the many exciting stage pictures. The show is one telling the life of a girl, who when a young child, was abducted, and fell into the hands of a good-natured woman of the New York Bowery. The woman with the aid of an ex-convict, the same man who stole the child, helped to find the girl's parents. The part of the news girl was well taken by Minthorne Worthley, and the work of Herman Rose, as Solomon Isaacs, pawnbroker, in love with the foster mother of the girl, received welldeserved applause. James Grady, as the ex-convict, was the friend of the audience throughout the play. His death caused by shot from the hand of a former pal and plotter, now in the hands of the law, was a *ealistic bit of work which was well done. Specialties were introduced by Herman Rose, Billy Carey, Mabel Herbert and Belle, the girl of the Bowery.-Holyoke Daily Transcript, September 1, 1905. Revnolds Opera House Sat., Sept. 23.
