SCHOOL DIRECTORS CONVENTION

Court House, Brookville, Two Days, Nov. 2nd and 3rd, 1905.

The third annual convention of the Jefferson County Directors' Association will convene in the court house, Brookville, Thursday, Nov. 2, at 1.30 p. m., and will close at noon on Friday, Nov. 3. "The truest test of civilization is not the census nor the size of cities, nor the crops—no, but the kind of men the country turns out." Who can render a higher service to the community than the earnest, wide awake school director? The schools of a district largely reflect the interest, management and progress manifested by the directors of that district. This convention is designed to further stimulate and prepare the school directors of Jefferson county for the important work with which they are entrusted. The state recognizing the value of such a meeting by an act of the Legislature of 1905 makes it the duty of each school director in each district to attend the annual meeting of school directors, and provides that each director attending shall be paid $2.00 per day and also three cents per mile mileage.

Hon. John W. Reed, Dr. D. J. Waller, ex-state superintendent and principal Indiana Normal School, and Dr. Theo. B. Noss, principal California Normal School, will be present and take part in the program.

Note the date and give yourself and your district the benefit of this convention by being present at every session. No better talent can be presented to any body of school directors, and every director should be present.

W. B. CUTLER,
 J. W. FOSTER,
 S. LEE STEWART, Committee.
 F. A. LANE,
 B. M. MOORE.

A good program, for which we did not have space this week, has been arranged for the convention.

Soldier.

Mrs. J. Ramsey, Sr., is very ill.
 Mrs. Robert Cameron visited Mrs. A. R. Ritchie Monday.

Miss Jennie Christian visited the Misses Boardman recently.

Quite a number from here attended the Sunday school convention held at Sykesville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ritchie and two sons, Master LaMarr and De Vere, spent Sunday with friends at Adrian.

Mrs. D. Varner's mother, Mrs. Long, returned to her home in Knoxdale Monday after visiting here two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. "Doc" Biadle, of New Castle, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ross. They will soon reside at DuBois.

Although the weather was very cold and dreary a large crowd gathered Sunday afternoon to witness the dedication of the new Catholic cemetery between this town and Sykesville.

The many friends of Ismael Ročwell gave him a surprise at his home Friday evening, October 20th, that being his twenty-first birthday. A fine lunch was served. The beautiful gifts received by the young gentleman bespeak the love and respect of the entire community. A very pleasant evening was spent by all present.

"The Missouri Girl," which will be seen at Reynolds opera house Tuesday, October 31, has been on the road continuously for the past ten seasons and has been seen in every state and territory in the union, with two exceptions. Last season one company toured Canada, where the play met with the same remarkable success that has characterized its tours of the United States. The popularity of the play is not confined to any particular part of the country; wherever it goes it is the same story—crowded houses and delighted audiences. Year after year "The Missouri Girl" visits the various cities on its route and invariably the verdict is that the companies presenting the play are superior to previous seasons. From time to time improvements are made in the play and performance that strengthens the production wonderfully. This season the vaudeville portion of the show has received Mr. Raymond's careful attention and during the "birthday party" scene he has added five first-class vaudeville numbers that go to strengthen the performance. Price, 50 cents to all parts of the house.

Company of Artistic Merit.

The Brockway Lecture Bureau, of Pittsburg, in speaking of the Cleveland Ladies' Orchestra that will give the first number on the public school lecture course in Reynoldsville Wednesday, Nov. 1st, says: "Ladies' orchestras have been important numbers, in fact, head-liners, in the various lecture and entertainment courses of the country for several seasons past. There have been very few successful ones from every point of view. The question naturally comes, what makes an organization of this kind a success? These points: A thoroughly capable conductor and a well balanced company of musicians. A carefully arranged instrumentation, and constant rehearsal for lights and shadings, to give perfect and artistic musical effects. Soloists of unusual merit, of the kind that can hold their places among the more featured artists of other concert companies. All these points are needed, and more—the company must be composed of ladies. In presenting an orchestra this year, we selected a strong number of soloists under the direction of Alfred Metzdorf, the great Cleveland leader and violin soloist. It is a company of artistic merit, in which numbers play no part—not how many people, but what kind of artists, has been our idea in arranging this combination. In addition to Mr. Metzdorf, violin soloist, the company offers, E. Ralphena Parsons, greatest of all lady trombonists, and Glenora Johnson, cornet soloist of unusual merit and reputation; Mr. Beechtel Alcock, a tenor with both artistic ability and delightful personality."
