Miss Adda Keith, of Reynoldsville, spent Sunday in town calling on some of her friends.
H. C. Perry and wife, of DuBois, visited with their brother-in-law, Rev. R. C. McMin, last week.
Mrs. O'Hare and daughter, Lucille, of Reynoldsville, spent last Sunday with Misses Mary and Sallie Wise.
Mrs. Thomas McPherson left last week for Butler, where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hilliard.
Mr. and Mrs. T. W. White and children visited several days last week with Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shaffer, of Worthville.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church held an oyster and ice cream festival last Saturday evening for the benefit of their church. A neat sum was realized.
Miss Edna Holman, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Syphrit, of Paradise, returned to her home Sunday accompanied by her brother-in-law and niece.
Isaac Wolfgang while engaged in hauling a load of coal from Soldier last Saturday fell from the wagon and was seriously injured. He was taken to the hospital at Punxsutawney on Sunday. It is not yet known whether they will have to amputate his limb or not.

Soldier.
Mrs. John Laverick, Sr., is quite ill.
Mrs. A. M. Johnston is on the sick list.
Miss Kate Ross visited in DuBois last week.
Mrs. John Ramsey, Sr., died at 8:00 p. m. Saturday, October 28, after a serious illness.
Loe Marvin, clerk in Jefferson Supply Co. store, resigned his position and has moved his family to Mansfield, Pa.
Dr. N. C. Mills returned last week with his bride and was serenaded Thursday evening in the usual way.
A sermon highly appreciated by all present was delivered by Prof. N. P. Bish, of the Reynoldsville high school, Sunday p. m. in the union Sabbath school room.
A small Slavish boy was kicked in the face by a horse Sunday afternoon while driving it into a barn. Dr. Mills and Dr. J. C. Sayers were summoned. Seven stitches were required to close the wounds.

Hortown.
F. A. Moore has purchased a fine team of colts.
October 25th, born to Mr. and Mrs. William Sugars, a ten pound girl.
A. B. Moore still has a few apples to huckster and they are a fine grade of apples, too.
Misses Delva Sugars and Maggie Boyer spent Sunday with the former's mother in this place.
The school is doing very well this fall under the management of Miss Cooper, of Beechtree.
J. W. Moore will move onto the David Klehl farm in about two weeks. Mr. Moore bought the farm about a month ago and, hence, he will have Klehl's fine peaches to sell.
Misses Maud and Emily Moore gave a halloween party to about twenty-five of their young friends, which was a decided success. There were many new and catchy games played which were very entertaining. The young ladies are splendid hostesses.

Rubber foot-wear for the whole family—Millirens.

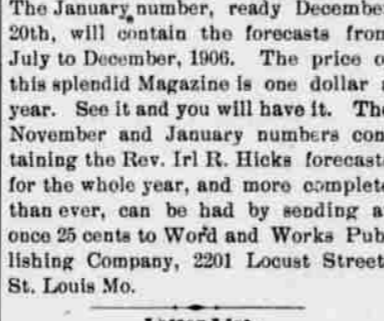

In speaking of Rowland & Clifford's production of "Dora Thorne" which will be seen at the Reynolds opera house on October 3, the Toledo, (O.) Times says: "Decidedly out of the ordinary run of attractions at the Burt is 'Dora Thorne' which opened yesterday. The play has not the lurid claptrap of many deep dyed melodramas and as such is a welcome innovation making good before two big audiences yesterday. It is a play that appeals to most of us for it is a clean, pure, heart story. Be sure to get seats early at the Stoke drug store. This is the best attraction to visit our town this season."
Wooltex coats for women, misses and children—Millirens.

The High School Bulletin
EDITOR IN CHIEF, LEONARD HARRIS.

The Seniors and Juniors deserve congratulations for their noble work with regards the lecture course. This shows what can be done if an honest effort is put forth.
A man that knows not what he knows, Knows not if he knows what he does know. But if he knows that he knows not what he don't know Then he knows if he knows what he knows.
The football team has not disbanded but from present indications it seems as though a game with Johnsonburg high school on our home grounds Saturday, November 4th. Say, boys, are we going to sink in defeat again? Can't we muster up enough spirit to show those fellows that we mean business? "Let's dig in" and practice every evening as we should. None too soon can the realization dawn upon our players that practice makes the master. "Arise ye slumbering hosts, put on your mighty armor and, animated with true zeal, march on to victory."
The melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year: All nature mourns in sympathy— Exams will soon be here.
The Companion as a Christmas Gift.
Can you think of a gift more certain to be acceptable than a year's subscription to The Youth's Companion? Is there any one, young or old, who, having once had the paper in his hands and looked through it, did not wish to possess it for his very own? It is a gift which, far from losing its freshness as Christmas recedes into the past, grows more delightful, more necessary to one's enjoyment week by week.
The boy likes it, for it reflects in its pages every boyish taste and every fine boyish aspiration. The father likes it, not only for its fiction but for its fund of information of the practical sort. The girl likes it for the stories, anecdotes, sketches and editorial articles printed in each number especially for her. The mother likes it for its stories of domestic life and family affection, for its children's page and for its medical article.
On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price, the publishers send to the new subscriber all the remaining issues of The Companion for 1905 and the "Minutemen" Calendar for 1906, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.
Full Illustrated Announcement of the new volume for 1906 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address free.
THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 144 Berkeley Street, BOSTON, MASS.
The Hicks Almanac for 1906.
The Rev. Irl R. Hicks Almanac will not be published for 1906, but his Monthly Journal, Word and Works, has been changed into a large and costly Magazine, and it will contain his storm and weather forecasts and other astronomical features complete. The November number, now ready, contains the forecasts from January to June, 1906. The January number, ready December 20th, will contain the forecasts from July to December, 1906. The price of this splendid Magazine is one dollar a year. See it and you will have it. The November and January numbers containing the Rev. Irl R. Hicks forecasts for the whole year, and more complete than ever, can be had by sending at once 25 cents to World and Works Publishing Company, 2201 Locust Street, St. Louis Mo.

New Interesting Music Folios.
Hinds, Noble & Eldredge, the well-known music and book publishing house have issued a series of four new music folios which cannot fail to prove of interest to every lover of vocal music.
The particular feature about these books which will strike the casual observer is the attractive manner in which they are published, both as regards typographical excellence and artistic beauty.
We really cannot see how any one musically inclined can afford to be without a copy of "The Most Popular College Songs" for there is certainly no folio containing more songs in which every one, whether he be musically proficient or not, can join in the chorus. Such standard gems as "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party", "Jingle Bells", "Solomon Levi", "Swanee River", "My Bonnie", "Forsaken", "Old Oaken Bucket", "Annie Laurie", "Updee", "Junonia", "Sweet and Low", "My Old Kentucky Home", "Tucked in the Cradle of the Deep", and in fact all those old familiar melodies which are the first to be called for when a happy party of friends gather around the piano or organ to enjoy a little music, are included, thus making it an ideal collection and one which ought to be highly prized.
Another book of college songs which has a peculiar significance to anyone, be he a graduate of many years, or at present a student, is "The Songs of All the Colleges". This book contains not only the college songs which are most familiar to every one, but also special songs which have been written by students at the different universities for their Alma Mater. It scarcely makes any difference what college one has attended, for he will be able to find in this book the song which was his favorite and which will bring back to him pleasant memories of the past, or revive the enthusiasm of the present. For instance, Yale College is represented by the famous "Yale Hoo!" song. Naturally there is no student from that college who will not prize this book highly just because it contains the song which he likes best. This is equally true of the songs of other colleges, such as Harvard, Cornell, Chicago, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and a score more of the leading universities.
The other two books just issued by this house are also very valuable in their particular field, both being devoted to new songs for male quartets. One is entitled "New Songs For College Glee Clubs", and contains about 35 excellent numbers. They are all written by well-known composers, and are simple, as well as effectively arranged for male quartets. The other other book is entitled "New Songs For Male Quartets", and contains a splendid series of thirty songs, both secular and sacred in character, by such well-known composers as George B. Nevin, Henry K. Hadley, Walter Howe Jones and Royce Bridgman.
All these folios can be found at our local music or book stores, or can be purchased from the publishers at the prices indicated in their advertisement placed with us this issue.
