

BING-STOKE CO. DEPT. STORES

Are You Ready for Winter

These cold, frosty mornings should make you think of your winter wearables. Our stocks are complete to supply all your needs at money-saving prices.

Clothcraft Overcoats for Men and Boys.

There is real economy and style in a Harvard or Yale overcoat. The left hand figure shows the conservative Harvard—always proper for any occasion, high in favor with the man of business.

The right hand figure illustrates the snappy lines of the Yale—warm, dressy, practical for young and old. Made in a variety of fabrics to suit anybody. Guaranteed pure wool, whether from plain black and blues or oxfords or fancy Scotch cloths. Ranging in price from $5.00 to $22.00.

TRUNKS AND SUIT CASES.

WIDOW JONES AMERICA'S LEADER OF BOYS' FASHIONS 1905-6

The Knickerbocker Suit and the Double Breasted Suit Either style—one made with a knickerbocker, the other with a plain trouser—will be greatly in favor this season. They are full modeled garments, built with concave shoulders, having wide button stand, new style lapel, vent in back of coat—all the "swell" points of the young men's university fashions shown in fancy Scotch chevots, blue and black worsteds, tibets, serges and fancy worsteds, from $2.00 to $6.50.

Clothcraft Clothes for Men and Young Men.

There is a slight change in sack suits this autumn. The most conservative styles are represented in the standard sack shown in front view at the left hand side of cut and the Euclid sack, back view, to right. Both have vents and broader lapels than heretofore. The coats are similar, but the Euclid has three buttons while the Standard is made with four. Shown in all the newest fabrics from $8.00 to $20.00.
