

The High School Bulletin

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, LEONARD HARRIS.

"Panama in Picture and Prose" was vastly interesting and highly educative. As the scenes were thrown upon the screen so effective was their beauty and so strong their reality that it seemed as though one could almost scent the fragrance of the flowers and lingering in the shade of the oriental palms feel the breath of the zephyrs as they murmured through the overhanging branches. The trip through the canal route fully substantiated the facts related by the speaker with regards to the immensity of the amount of time, labor and currency necessary for its completion. Along the way heaps of wreckage reminded us of the effort the French company had put forth, but the lack of preservative qualities and financial resources finally landed them in the arms of bankruptcy. They sold the proposed route to U. S. for the sum of $40,000,000.

Our government took up the reins that the French had dropped and have so pushed the work required that they can almost discern in the distant realms of futurity the time when the peaceful waters of the Pacific will mingle with the turbulent waters of the mighty Atlantic 'mid the palms of Panama. The present estimations are that it will require a period of twenty years, and an aggregate cost of not less than $300,000,000. It means much to U. S. from the commercial standpoint of view and the European powers are inclined to feel somewhat uneasy as they behold the progress of American determination.

The Seniors are almost persuaded to think that their new German classic is rather "immense."

One of the teachers had a terrible accident (if you wish to call it that) a short time ago, and from present indications the results seem to be affecting her again.

Juniors, remember 'tis always the truth that hurts.

One of the Freshies almost brought his teacher an apple last week—but he ate it.

Mrs. Rev. McKay conducted the chapel exercises of the lower grades last Thursday morning and her address to the pupils was considered one of the very best ever given before the grades. Her subject was "Railroads." The body was the engine, life was the track with its up and down grades, evils and virtues attained were the stations.

The talk was illustrated by railway flags showing signals all should heed. The scholars showed great appreciation.

Much enthusiasm and interest is being shown by the High School girls in their physical culture class being conducted Tuesday afternoons from 4.00 to 6.00 o'clock and Fridays from 6.00 to 7.30 o'clock. Calisthenics and basket ball are indulged in. The purpose is not so much to develop a team as it is to benefit by judicious exercise the physical welfare of the girls. Parents are invited to visit these classes.

All of the Sophomores signed the L. T. L. pledge, but unless we can have a gold badge we are likely to withdraw our names.

Thanksgiving will be appropriately observed Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 29, by exercises given by the High School and upper grades in the chapel hall. All patrons are urged to be present.

Juniors, would you rather change the colors of the American flag or have a press muzzle for the Bulletin?—Hard luck.

A mass meeting of the pupils was held after chapel Friday, being called by the Principal to have the students consider the subject of marching in our schools. Many responses were made by representative pupils and much enthusiasm aroused. We propose to not be outtrived by any neighboring schools in this subject. Attention is now being given to special drills along this line. One of the new features will be a fire drill which will instruct the pupils in proper action in case of fire in the building.

Foot ball game latter part of this week, Reynoldsville High School vs. Punx. High School. Turnout, support the boys in their struggle for a victory on the gridiron. We're in to win or bust.

The High School basket ball team goes to Beechwoods to play on the evening of Dec. 1. We would like to see a large delegation of High School enthusiasts present. Every little bit helps. Show your colors—black and gold.

GRAND OPENING

Of the New Opera House Tuesday by the Holy City Co.

The new Opera House was auspiciously opened to the public for theatrical and other like entertainments, Tuesday evening by Gordon and Bennetts Holy City, in a sacred tragic drama bearing that title. Manager Beck had thoroughly advertised the entertainment which is all that is necessary for an opening providing the play and company are firstclass.

By press and poster this was soon established to the satisfaction of our citizens and the advance sales started off with a rush. The house was packed with our best citizens. Priest and preachers lent their presence and many were there who seldom attend a theatre, the character of the play being such that not in the least could it be objectionable.

The manager was fortunate and wise in his choice. The play held the rapt attention of the audience from the first rise of the curtain until its final drop for the evening, a deep interest seemed to pervade all throughout every act. The order was that of a church, not the slightest disorder or any interruption by going in and out. The play was magnificently staged with appropriate scenery. The costuming was grand in its gorgeous robes of royalty and plain in the simple garb of the disciples of the Lowly Nazarene. The acting was superior and the production will be remembered as one of the best entertainments ever given in our city.—Crestline, O., Citizen. At Reynolds opera house to-night.
