

The High School Bulletin
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, LEONARD HARRIS.

The following is a question found on the black-board of Room 14 one day last week:
1 boy—3 of a girl
3 of a man—3 of a girl
1 man—2 girls
That's queer—ain't it?
o—o
Freshies—"If you small folks can't keep your apples in your desks until recess, we will be compelled to get a basket to keep them in for you."

The Seniors bade farewell to Cleoro Monday last. 'Twas a parting that gave many pains.

Miss Coral Sutter and Miss Inez Woodford have returned to school, being absent on account of illness.

Fridays game with Punxsutawney brought well merited victory to the black and gold and gave a most successful finish to our football season. As the two teams lined up on the local gridiron for preliminary practice it was seen that they were evenly matched in weight and speed. The local players displayed determination and vim and played a regular cat-'em-up game. The fact that the team was composed entirely of high school players makes the victory all the more meritorious.
The principal features of the game were the long end runs by the Reynolds half-backs and the fierce line plunging of Scott. The entire absence of any rough playing, accidents or ill temper made it a clean, hard fought, spirited contest, and the best won. Great enthusiasm was shown over right half-back King's dash around left end for a touch down. At no stage of the game did the local men not have the game in hand and only once was their goal in danger. The visiting team was very fast and displayed much ability in breaking the line.
A large crowd of spectators and rooters witnessed the game and all wearers of the black and gold are rejoicing at the outcome. We can rightly believe that the material of the local team exceeds that of any other school in Jefferson county.

We missed the usual remarks of some of the Juniors last week. Are you sick? Or did the editor-in-chief get too much originality for you?

Wednesdays chapel exercises were made unusually interesting by a talk given by Hon. S. B. Elliott, relating his experience of witnessing a total eclipse of the sun as he viewed it at Waynesboro, N. C., in the year 1900. The facts brought out by telling of this phenomenon were explained and the talk made instructive as well as entertaining. We trust Mr. Elliott will come again soon.

All friends and patrons of the schools are cordially invited to attend the Thanksgiving exercises to be given by the high school and grades 9, 8, 7, 6 and 5 in the Assembly hall Wednesday afternoon. The program will begin at 2:00 o'clock. Pupils of the other rooms are not to attend but each room will present appropriate exercises and visitors will also be welcomed by these other grades. This will end school for the week, permitting the scholars to rest from their daily labor, and find a few hours of recreation in Autumnal sports.

Miss Bessie Baum, a member of the Freshman class, is detained from school with a slight attack of appendicitis. A speedy recovery is the heartfelt wish of all her schoolmates.

The high school basket ball team would like to see a large delegation wearing the black and gold at Beechwoods Friday evening of this week.

A Good Team.
There is now no reasonable room to doubt that a representative apportionment bill will be passed at the coming special session of the Legislature and that Jefferson County will have her two representatives. As the special session begins on January 5, and it will require the Legislature a week or ten days to get into running order, it is not likely that a representative apportionment bill could be passed before the spring election, which takes place February 29. It might therefore be well for the County Committee to consider the propriety of postponing the primary until a later date. It appears to be pretty generally conceded that our representatives in the next Legislature should be Hon. S. T. North, of Young Township, and R. H. Longwell, of Brockwayville. Mr. North has made a very creditable representative, and one who may be relied upon to act according to his sense of right in all cases. Mr. Longwell demonstrated in his former campaign for the nomination that he has a large number of friends and admirers in the county who will support him for that office, and that he would vindicate their judgement if given an opportunity to do so, we have not the slightest doubt. Obviously the thing to do is to nominate North and Longwell without opposition. The extreme ends of the county would thus be represented, and the Brockwayville community, which has never had a member of Assembly, would be given just recognition.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Be Cheerful.
Many of us miss the joys that might be ours by keeping our eyes fixed on those of other people. No one can enjoy his own opportunities for happiness while he is envious of another's. We lose a great deal of joy of living by not cheerfully accepting the small pleasures that come to us every day, instead of longing and wishing for what belongs to others. We do not take any pleasure in our own modest horse and carriage because we long for the automobile or victoria that some one else owns. The edge is taken off the enjoyment of our little home because we are watching the palatial residence of our neighbor. We can get no satisfaction out of a trolley ride into the country or a sail on a river steamer, because someone else can enjoy the luxury of his own carriage or yacht. Life has its full measure of happiness for all of us, if we would only make up our minds to make the very most of every opportunity that comes our way, instead of longing for the things that come our neighbor's way.—Success.

Telephone Girls Are Quitting Their Jobs.
DuBois telephone girls are deserting their employment because they find constant wearing of the receiver produces ugly corns on the tragus, the front portion of the external ear. They also say their sense of hearing is more acutely developed in the left ear than in the right. They do not mind this so much as they do the disfigurement, which, betrays their occupation. In order to prevent the girls leaving the company is endeavoring to devise receivers that will not produce corns.—DuBois Journal.

In Memoriam
"For of such is the kingdom of Heaven." Truly this can be said of little Elizabeth Alexander, who closed her eyes on earthly scenes the morning of Nov. 21st to open them in the heavenly land. Only nine years old, but in these few years she fulfilled her little mission of love and service. She was a little sun-beam, of a merry, happy disposition, with a word of greeting for everyone. She was affectionate, obedient, and unselfish, winning a place in the hearts of all who knew her. She loved her Sunday school, never missing a service, unless prevented by sickness or absence from home. She took an active part in all of its exercises, and was interested in everything pertaining to it. With the music of the little Sunday school songs she loved to sing floating o'er her, and covered by the beautiful flowers she so dearly loved, she was laid to rest to await the glorious resurrection morn.
The angels called, and she's gone away To the beautiful land of endless day, And the Shepherd carries her in his arms, Safe from sickness, suffering, death, and harm.
Laugh and Grow Lusty.
Elmer Walters' latest temperance drama, "A Millionaire Tramp," contains seven of the strongest comedy characters that have ever been collected in one play. Each one differs vastly from the other, and lends opportunity for variety and action. The ghost scene is the first act and the dark porter's scene in the third act are two of the funniest imaginable. The dramatic scenes are fully abreast of the comedy and the scenic mounting superb. The Church of the Holy Cross in the second act is one of the handsomest of its kind. The country opera house in the third act is a decided novelty—something entirely new and out of the ordinary; while the old hotel in the last act is the very embodiment of quaintness. Reynolds opera house to-night.

The public, from time to time, have been imposed upon by various so called "tramp" plays but the only original and reputable drama of this character is Elmer Walters' "A Millionaire Tramp" which comes to the Reynoldsville opera house to-night. While others have taken his cue and tried to follow his example, he still has maintained his high standard of excellence with the attraction, and the commendable press notices and public approval warrant the assertion that "A Millionaire Tramp" is the best drama portraying the American vagabond. Seats on sale at the Stoke drug store. Prices 25, 35 and 50c.
Postmaster General Corteyou is said to have issued an order recently in which he puts a ban on all newspapers publishing the result of raffles and church fair lotteries, and prohibiting such publications from the use of the mails.
