REYNOLDSVILLE DRUG CO.

A Little of Everything.

To-morrow is a legal holiday. Congress convenes next Monday. Twenty-five days until Christmas. Mrs. D. M. Dunsmore was critically ill the first of this week. The hard, continuous rain last night will certainly make high water. W. Harry Thompson is building a new residence for W. H. Vashinder on Fourth street. The gambling laws of Pennsylvania will be found on first page of this issue of THE STAR. Bessie Baum, pupil in the borough schools, had a slight attack of appendicitis last Thursday. A Council of Knights of Columbus will be instituted at Ridgway to-morrow, Thanksgiving Day. The Enterprise Athletic basket ball team will go to Clarion Friday evening to play a game with Clarion team. The new two-story ware-house being erected by the Sykes Woolen Mills Company will be put under roof this week. DuBois and Brookville high school football eleven played at the former place Saturday. Score DuBois 34, Brookville 0. The Volunteer printing office will be moved into the laundry building, opposite the postoffice, about the first of the new year. The regular meeting of the Epworth League has been postponed from Friday evening of this week until Friday evening of next week. Next Sunday evening, by request, Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek will preach on the "Bad Ox." A cordial invitation is extended to the public. The thank offering from the M. E. congregation last Sunday for the parsonage fund amounted to about $400.00 in cash and pledges. The Reynoldsville high school basket ball team will play the Beechwoods team in the Beechwoods gymnasium on Friday evening of this week. The B. P. O. Elks annual memorial will be held in the Elks rooms next Sunday and will be private, only members of the order will be present. A football game between the Reynoldsville "Indians" and Punxsutawney had been arranged for Thanksgiving, but was cancelled Monday evening. Corlana, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ross, of Main street, came near dying several days ago from eating paraffin, which clogged her bowels. Lyman W. Scott, who sold his Main street property to the borough, has bought the Bennett property on Hill street, which has been occupied by E. C. Sencor a number of years. A collision occurred on the C. & M. division of the B., R. & P., near Luthersburg, Saturday evening between the work train and an engine running light. One man was killed and several others injured.

The New Bethlehem Indicator, one of our worthy exchanges, was 26 years old last week and is now in its 27th year. We wish the Indicator continued success. The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Jefferson county announce that hereafter they will publish all names on petitions for liquor license within this county. Miss Edith Herpel entertained fourteen or fifteen young friends at her home in West Reynoldsville last Friday evening. Games were played. Refreshments were served. Rev. C. L. Bradshaw, who has been pastor of the Brookwayville Presbyterian church nine years, has tendered his resignation to accept a call to pastorate of another church. The Knights Templar social club held an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hirst on Hill street Tuesday evening, November 21st. Refreshments were served and progressive games played. Robert S. Williams, of West Reynoldsville, brought an apple to THE STAR office several days ago that measured 15 1/2 inches in circumference. The apple grew on a tree in his lot. It was a very large apple. According to the Punxsutawney Spirit, a recent census of Reynoldsville makes the population 4,770, and of West Reynoldsville 953—a total of 5,723. The official census of 1900 gave Reynoldsville a population of 3,435. The body of Louisa Alexander, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Alexander, who was buried in Beulah cemetery in August, 1900, was lifted Monday afternoon and buried beside Elizabeth in the Reynoldsville cemetery. H. J. Hughes, who has been government gauger at the plant of the Reynoldsville Distilling Company since it started a few months ago, has been transferred to Punxsutawney and will take charge of his duties there December 1st. Mrs. Rodgers, aged eighty-four years, who had been blind twenty years, died at the home of her son-in-law, Wesley Rhodes, near Knoxdale, Saturday afternoon, Nov. 25, 1905. Funeral service was held in the Presbyterian church at Knoxdale yesterday. Yesterday Sheriff Curry and several assistants took six prisoners down the river, who were convicted at the recent criminal court held at Brookville. Three of the prisoners were taken to the Allegheny workhouse and the other three to the penitentiary. The paving of Jackson street was completed one day last week, sanded and thrown open to the public. It extends from the corner of Sixth and Jackson to the J. & C. C. & I. Co. office and makes a vast improvement in the appearance of that part of town. Harvey Myers, of Reynoldsville, who is employed at the Hotel Emery at this place, had the fore finger of his right hand crushed in an engine used for pumping the hotel water, so badly that it was found necessary to amputate it at the first joint.—Falls Creek Herald. Bertie Petro, of Brookwayville, was convicted in the Jefferson county court last week of selling liquor without license, was sentenced to pay a fine of $500.00, pay costs of prosecution and undergo imprisonment in the Allegheny County workhouse three months. The Mahler glass plant at Falls Creek, which commenced the season's fire a few weeks ago, will shut down Saturday of this week for the balance of the season. A demoralized glass market and high price charged for water by DuBois borough is given as the reason for suspension. A new schedule went into effect on the Pittsburgh, Summerville and Clarion railroad, on Monday of this week. The changes are in trains Nos. 5 and 6, leaving Clarion for Summerville at 4.40 p. m. and leaving Summerville for Clarion at 6.00 p. m. Ex-Tax Collector I. M. Swartz came very nearly "shuffling off this mortal coil" last Friday night. Mr. Swartz began vomiting which was followed with hiccupping, lasting two hours, and the doctors and friends had about given up hope of his recovery, but finally the hiccupping was stopped and "Bobby" is improving nicely. The Epworth League will hold a "Fun Social" at the home of Miss Grace Clawson, Dec. 5. Lunch will be served; ice cream sold. Every effort is being put forth to make it the best social of the season. Several funny amusements, a comic whistling contest and a comic concert, will go to make the social well worthy of its name. Several years ago this borough began proceedings to get possession of the land to open Eighth street, from Jackson to Main street, but L. W. Scott's dwelling house occupied the ground near Main street and it required time and litigation for the borough to get possession of the land, but it was finally accomplished, the borough getting possession on Monday of this week. Mr. Scott was paid $1,400.00 for his property, the price set by the viewers appointed by court.

The ladies of the W. R. C. gave the Sons of Veterans a supper in the K. of P. hall Monday night in honor of Sheriff-elect Grant Scheafnocker, a member of the Sons of Veterans, who will soon move to Brookville to take charge of the office of high sheriff of Jefferson county. The Sons of Veterans enjoyed and appreciated the kind hospitality of the ladies. Mysterious House Entry. J. H. Beam, who had charge of J. O. Campbell's hardware store at Big Run and carried the store money home with him, shot and killed Mike Butler, foreman at the Eleanor Shaft, Sunday morning. Butler had entered Beam's house and Beam shot at Butler three times to try to frighten him as Butler ascended the stairs, but he continued up stairs and struck Beam, knocking the lamp out of his hand. In the dark Beam fired two more shots the last hitting and killing Butler. Dangerous Use of Shiny Club. A twelve-year-old boy deliberately hit another boy on the head with a shiny club one day last week and knocked the boy insensible for a few seconds. A little more strength applied on the club and the blow would likely have proven fatal. The boy was arrested and now has his liberty by a friend furnishing bail for his appearance at the next term of court. Shiny clubs are all right for hitting balls, blocks and stones, but are a dangerous thing to apply on boy's head. Not Guilty of Murder. The jury in the case of Mike Gulick, who was tried in the Jefferson county court last week on charge of murdering Steven Skendel, returned a verdict Saturday at 9.30 a. m. of not guilty and Mike was given his liberty. The case was given to the jury at 8.30 Friday night. The jury were informed that if they reached a verdict before midnight Judge Reed would hear the verdict, but the jury was out all night and did not reach a verdict until after nine o'clock Saturday morning. Thomas Neale, of Reynoldsville, and Robert F. Morrison, of Allens Mills, were on the jury. Died in Hospital. Edwin Tucker, aged about 26 years, son of Mrs. George Tucker, of this place, died in the hospital at Polk, Venango Co., Pa., on Tuesday of last week, Nov. 21st, 1905. His death was caused by heart trouble and was sudden and unexpected. Edwin was taken to Polk October 9th and only a few days before his death his mother received word that he was getting along nicely. The body arrived here Wednesday. Funeral service was held at the family residence on Railroad street Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. A. Parsons, and interment was made in Beulah cemetery beside father of Edwin, who died several months ago. Twenty Years to "Pen." Monday forenoon Judge John W. Reed sentenced Wesley Enterline to twenty years in the penitentiary. August 25, 1905, Enterline murdered his stepfather, J. B. Geist, near Cool Spring, Jefferson county. Last week he was convicted of murder in the second degree in the Jefferson county court. The only thing that saved him from being convicted of murder in first degree is that he has been known to act on several occasions as if he was not of sound mind. If he was of sound mind when he committed the horrible deed, the sentence is not too long, and if he is mentally deranged it will likely develop in time and he will be removed to an insane asylum. Drunken Escapade. About 10.30 Saturday night a man, apparently drunk, was noticed loafing around the corner of Hill and Seventh streets and word was sent to Policemen Adelsperger and Diekey, who started after him. Shortly before they arrived the fellow entered the home of C. F. Hoffman. Mrs. Hoffman and the children were alone in the house at the time and she was badly frightened, though the intruder was too drunk to know exactly why he entered the house himself. He was taken to the lockup by the policemen and after sobering up professed entire ignorance of having entered the house and being arrested. Burgess Gourley at the hearing sentenced him to forty-eight hours in the lockup. Home Wedding. A wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. A. H. Hoon on Main street on Wednesday evening of last week, Nov. 22, 1905, when her daughter, Miss Maud B. Hoon, was united in marriage to Mr. Dennis McConaughy, of Johnsonburg, Pa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, at 7.30 in the presence of the immediate family. After the ceremony a splendid supper was served and at 10.00 p. m. the bride and groom took the trolley for Pittsburg, Monessen and other places for a two weeks' trip. Both are well and favorably known to a large circle of friends, who wish them a prosperous journey through life. The Enterprise Athletic Association will hold its first annual ball in the Association rooms to-morrow evening.

Funeral Thursday Afternoon. The funeral of Elizabeth Margaret Alexander was held at residence of parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Alexander, at 3.00 p. m. last Thursday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. The floral tribute was extensive and beautiful. The following out of town relatives and friends attended the funeral: F. M. Arnold, wife and daughter, Miss Emma, Mrs. Harry Arnold, Miss Bertha Arnold, Mrs. W. M. Mayhew, Mrs. Ida B. Alexander, of Clarion, W. C. Hembold and wife, of Curwensville, Dr. J. P. Spackman, Mrs. Samuel Morgan, of Peale, Mrs. J. K. Saylor, Mrs. C. A. Wilson, Miss Nora Wilson, L. O. Melinger, J. A. Schwom and wife, of DuBois, Mrs. W. F. Arms, of Punxsutawney. Union Thanksgiving Services. Union Thanksgiving Services will be held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday at 10.30 a. m. The pastors of town will take part in the service. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the M. E. church. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance on the part of all our citizens. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. Doxology. Invocation. Rev. A. D. McKay. Responsive Reading. Rev. J. W. Myers. Hymn. Scripture Reading. Rev. J. A. Parsons. Prayer. Rev. J. W. Myers. Hymn. Reading of President's Proclamation. Dr. A. J. Meek. Offering. Anthem. Choir. Sermon. Dr. J. A. Parsons. Prayer. Dr. A. J. Meek. Benediction. Rev. J. W. Myers. "A Royal Slave" Coming. It would be difficult to say too much in commendation of the royal merit of "A Royal Slave." The play may be said to be a type of its own from the rise to the fall of the curtain. It appeals to all classes, as it has the merit of the classical drama and the strongest dramatic features of the sensational drama. It is full of heart interest and pure sentiment. The devotion of the slave to the persecuted child of his master, and the noble character of the hero priest are true heart chords. The play is based on an actual incident in Mexican history and gave the producers a fine chance for the display of gorgeous scenery and costumes. At Reynolds opera house soon. "The Holy City." A large audience witnessed Gordon & Bennett's production of "The Holy City" at the Reynolds opera house last Thursday night. It was well staged, special scenery used and rich oriental costumes worn. It was the most gorgeous play ever presented before a Reynoldsville audience. There is a diversity of opinion as to whether this play should be presented as a money-making scheme. Some Reynoldsville people who could find no objection to the play before it was produced here, changed their mind about the play after witnessing it. New Schedule. A new schedule went into effect on the Low Grade Division of the P. R. R. Sunday. There is a change in the time of two trains. The westbound train formerly due here at 5.27 p. m. now arrives at 5.07 p. m., twenty minutes earlier, and the eastbound train due here at 6.15 p. m. arrives at 6.25 p. m., ten minutes later. There is no change in time of other passenger trains. The number of all the passenger trains have been changed. A new schedule went into effect on the B., R. & P. on 19th inst., changing time of the southbound flyer at Punxsutawney for Pittsburg from 3.35 p. m. to 3.02 p. m., 33 minutes earlier. People wanting to go from Reynoldsville to Pittsburg on that train will have to leave here on the 12.45 p. m. trolley car. Christmas presents are best selected at a jewelry. There you can find the ideal present for all. Rings for your girl, watch for brother or sister, gold glasses for father and mother, fine china, cut glass, etc., for a friend. There is no place offers so varied selection for the gift buyer, and there is no jewelry store that offers so large a stock and so well selected, at such reasonable prices, as the old reliable place of C. F. Hoffman's. Butter and eggs always on hand at the West Reynoldsville Meat Market. Prices for "A Millionaire Tramp" at the opera house to-night are 25, 35 and 50 cents. This is the only tramp show on the road this sea on. Umbrellas for Christmas at Hoffmans. Boys' overcoats, former price $3.25, now $2.25. A. Katzen. Don't miss the grand opening Saturday at the Cash New York Racket store. The Sons of Veterans will hold a box social in their hall on their next meeting night, Monday, Dec. 4. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and enjoy a pleasant evening with the boys. Thanksgiving table isn't finished without a turkey or chicken. They're obtainable at the West Reynoldsville Meat Market. "A Millionaire Tramp" to-night.

Birthday Surprise Party. Mrs. Annie Winslow, of Jackson street, who is not much in favor of birthday surprise parties, was given a complete surprise party Saturday evening, that being the anniversary of one of her birthdays. There seems to be a dispute as to the exact age of the lady and it might not be wise for us to mention the number of summers she may have seen. The ice cream was to have been delivered at 8.30 p. m., but by mistake it was delivered at 5.30 and had Mrs. Winslow been suspicious the surprise part of the party would have been knocked "galley west," but the deliverer was easily convinced by Mrs. Winslow's charming daughter that he had made a mistake and that the ice cream was to be delivered at home of William Copping, a neighbor, Mrs. Winslow did not "smell a mouse," but she kept a pretty close eye on neighbor Copping's home the next hour to see what kind of "doings" was going on there that she had not been invited to. About eight o'clock some thirty-five friends assembled at her home then Mrs. Winslow knew that she was in the midst of a birthday party, and she submitted as gracefully as if she had always been a lover of birthday parties. The presents consisted of 30 pieces of Haviland china and other articles. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served and various games played during the evening. Chauncey Keifer Co. Manager Chauncey, of the Chauncey Keifer Co., by paying a very large royalty has secured the western rights to "Du Barry," the starring vehicle of Mrs. Leslie Carter. This will be produced in its entirety, as Mr. Chauncey has secured all the scenery, properties and lighting effects for it. This season the company consists of fourteen well known stock players, and is headed by Miss Grace Keifer, a charming soprano and comedienne. The company also carries six big vaudeville acts and gives a change of play nightly. This engagement, which opens at the Reynolds opera house next week, is for three days, at popular prices—10-20-30 cents, and is for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. On Monday evening they will open with "Du Barry," Tuesday, "A Ward of France," Wednesday, "Jesse James." Seats on sale at the Stoke drug store Saturday morning. Imperial Oil Company. Several weeks ago we published a notice in the columns of THE STAR concerning the Imperial Oil Co., a Reynoldsville organization, composed of Reynoldsville stockholders, who now have leased 426 acres of choice oil territory in Butler county, with two producing oil wells on their territory and a number of producing oil and gas wells on all sides of their territory. The Imperial Oil Co. has begun making permanent improvements in the way of power house and pumping machinery. Their No. 2 well produces gas enough to furnish fuel for doing the pumping. The members of this company feels satisfied it is a sure dividend payer. The company has some stock for sale. If interested inquire at Hotel Imperial or National Hotel. Ring Buyers. Ring buyers will get a surprise this year when they look the line over at Hoffman's. About 700 different styles direct from the manufacturers to select from at all prices. Solid gold from 50 cents up. A big line at $2.00 to $4.00, actually worth $5.00. Come in and look them over; it will be good for your eyes if you don't want to buy rings. Go with the crowd to C. F. Hoffman's. Makes Home Brighter. Nothing is left undone to make the Prizer Stoves and Ranges perfect kitchen appliances. They make friends wherever given a trial, and are sold and guaranteed to give the best results in baking and roasting. Reynoldsville Hardware Co. Five Dollars' Reward. Will be paid to person finding and returning lady's gold watch lost at Pennsylvania R. R. station Nov. 15. Return to THE STAR office. Wait And See. We have the most beautiful line of imported dishes. C. R. HALL. The "pie social" in the Athletic Association rooms last Thursday evening was well attended and was a pleasant social event. Dress skirts at Millrens. Ranging in price from $2.98 to $12.50. Umbrellas $2 to $15 engraved free at C. F. Hoffman's. Look for W. A. Thompson's ad. in weeks issue. Great display of holiday goods—fancy imported chinaware, glassware and hundreds of novelties, shaving sets, toilet cases, dolls and go-carts—at the Cash New York Racket store. Don't fall to call and see the immense stock. They make sausage fresh every day at the West Reynoldsville meat market. All goods engraved free at C. F. Hoffman's. Best fleeco-lined men's underwear at 75c a suit. A. Katzen. The plasterers began working at the M. E. church yesterday.

Victory on the Gridiron. A very interesting game of foot ball was played Friday between the Reynoldsville and Punxsutawney high school teams which resulted in a victory for the local high school team, 5-0. FIRST HALF. Smith, of Punxsy's, kicked off, the ball going to King on the 25 yard line. Harris and King, by good interference, took the ball to Punxsy's 20 yard line and then King, by good interference, took the ball over line for a touch down. Nolan failed to kick goal. Score 5-0. Nolan kicked to Punxsy's 30 yard line, Smith making 5 yards on the kick-off. Here Reynoldsville held for down. Harris skirted the end for 5 yards. Scott hit line for 6. King and Strouse made nice gains and it looked as if they were going to score another touch down, but at this stage of the game Punxsy's braced up and held Reynoldsville for downs. Oberlin hit line for 4 yards, Smith for 3. Oberlin and Smith hit the line again for nice gain when time was called for the first half. SECOND HALF. Nolan kicked off the Punxsy's 25 yd. line, Campbell receiving the kick; gained 5 yards before being down. Oberlin tried the end but was thrown for a loss of 5 yards by a nice tackle of King. Smith hit the line for 5 yards; Oberlin again went around the end for 5 yards. It was at this stage of the game that the spectators thought Punxsy's might score, as they were rushing the ball down the field, but on the next play Punxsy's fumbled and Harris secured the ball. Scott went through the line for 5 yards. King, by good interference, circled the end for 15 yards. Harris went the end for 5 yards, Scott went through the line for 10 yards, and it looked like another score but on the next play time was called for the game. The features of the game were the fine tackling of Scott and the playing of the back field. LINE UP. PUNXSUTAWNEY: Kusselman, R E; Pantall, R F; Wadding, E G; Dick, C; McGinnis, L E; Phillips, Ed; Cricks, L G; Westover, L G; Stettler, Quarter; S. Oberlin, R H; C. Oberlin, L H; Smith, F B. REYNOLDSVILLE: Hoffman, R E; Strouse, R F; Seelye, E G; King, C; Ediberto, L E; Murray, L G; Booth, L G; Nolan, Quarter; King (Cap.), R H; Harris, L H; Scott, F B. Referee: Smith, Cornell; Umpire: Richardson, State. Goal Nolan, missed. Head linesman, Foley, Reynoldsville "Indians." Halves, 15 and 20 minutes. Game Basket Ball. The Falls Creek Athletics met the Enterprise Athletics in a game of basket ball in Reynoldsville Monday night and went down in defeat before the local boys 41-2. Notwithstanding the one-sided score, the game was a very interesting one, fast and furious from the start. The playing was clean and free from wrangling. At the end of the first 20-minute half the score stood 19-2 in favor of Reynoldsville and during the last half the magnificent goal throwing of Oberlin and McEntire put 22 more tallies to the credit of the Enterprise. Bohren also distinguished himself by fast work. Prof. Scott refereed the match. There was a good crowd present, including many ladies, and they were given full worth of their money. Basket ball is a fast game and an exhausting one. It takes strong legs, strong backs and strong arms to keep up the vigorous exercise of fast match. Every muscle of the body is brought into use and as no player may hold the ball more than five seconds, the spectators must have quick eyes to follow the ball in all its rapid changes. After the contest a number of athletic feats were performed which served to show that the Enterprise Athletic Association numbers among its members some athletes of exceptional skill. Brookville Won. A bowling contest between teams from Brookville and Reynoldsville took place in The Grand bowling parlors at this place Friday evening of last week. Reynoldsville won three of the five events but Brookville won the contest on total points, having a lead of 20. The score: BROOKVILLE: Bullers 173 150 192 160 187; McManus 224 144 177 176 169; Bar 134 178 156 143 149; Keizer 182 193 198 140 122; Travis 155 143 152 150 172. Totals 888 808 885 769 781. REYNOLDSVILLE: Hoganmiller 168 175 135; Williams 197 178 128 174 181; Hettinger 208 147 159 162 154; Foley 187 162 208 156 194; Morrison 148 135 144 127 169; Barclay 148 135 144 127 169. Totals 838 817 804 798 834. Wool fascinators and shawls. All colors and sizes, at Millrens. Prices 25c to $2.50. About 700 different shapes of mugs to select from, 50c up, at C. F. Hoffman's. Millions have a tendency to depress some individuals, but "A Millionaire Tramp" is always happy. Grand Christmas opening at the Cash New York Racket store Saturday, December 2. Select your Christmas presents now while stocks are fresh and we will keep them for you until you want them. Watches, large stock to select from, Hoffman's. Look for W. A. Thompson's ad. in next weeks issue.

Enoch Westward, of New Bethlehem, formerly of this place, who is now blind spent several days at home of Joseph Sanders in Reynoldsville last week. Mrs. J. M. Smith, of East Liverpool, Ohio, who was called here last week to attend the funeral of her grandchild, Elizabeth Alexander, will remain here likely all winter with her daughter, Mrs. F. K. Alexander. Mrs. J. S. McCreight, of Ridgway, formerly of Reynoldsville, inspected the Women's Relief Corps in this place last Thursday. The department president was to have inspected the Corps, but could not come on account of sickness and Mrs. McCreight did the work. High class repertoire for three days next week, commencing Monday, Dec. 4th. The company produces an entire change of program at each performance both in play and specialty, and assures the patrons of Reynoldsville a clean and up to date performance. Opening play Monday night, "Du Barry." Tickets on sale Saturday morning at the Stoke drug store. The Jefferson county teachers' institute will be held in the Belvedere opera house, Brookville, December 18-22. Indications are favorable for the best institute ever held in the county. To-morrow is Thanksgiving Day. After to-day the scholars of the borough schools have a vacation until Monday. The history of Thanksgiving will be found on an inside page of this issue. The deer hunting season closes Friday. The merchants are displaying their holiday goods. Some of the merchants have bought a large stock for the holiday trade.
