The political agitation which began six months ago with the national convention of the Liberal party and which has dwindled since the withdrawal of Gen. Jose Miguel Gomes Edenborn and Lafayette scem to be presidential candidate named by total. that convention, ended in a quiet election. The vote was very light this being due to the lack of interest in the wholly one-sided election.

The withdrawal of the Liberals from all nominations left a clear field for the Moderates, and every Moderate nominee was elected from President Palma to the provincial councilors.
