

The High School Bulletin

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, MAUDE PRATT.

All who witness the defeat of Brookville high school boys by the local high school team in basketball last Friday evening enjoyed an unusually excellent athletic exhibition. The Brookville team did have an unbroken series of victories this season and was hopeful of maintaining it throughout the season, but did not reckon on the development and proficiency to which the Reynoldsville team has attained. It was easily the fastest and most clever game played on the local floor this season. Brookville was outclassed in team work, which, with the rapid passing of the home team, completely surprised and somewhat confused the visitors. King and Thornton, as guards gave their opponents forwards but little opportunity to secure goals, while our forwards, Harris and Sykes, were too large a proposition for the guards to cope with. Hoffman, at center, played a star game, holding his own against Brookville's pride, Joe Henderson. The game ended with a score of 14 to 10. During the game enthusiasm rose to a high pitch and when victory was declared to Reynoldsville pandemonium reigned for several minutes.

Next Friday evening the high school team will play the high school team of Falls Creek. The game begins at 8.30.

The Reynoldsville high school girls' basketball team played the Brookville high school girls' team in the Enterprise Athletic Association rooms last Friday evening before the boys' game. The game was exciting from start to finish, the final score being 4 to 20 in favor of Brookville, but considering the fact that this was the first real game the Reynoldsville girls had ever played and that Brookville had more experience and played the game slightly different than we did, the Reynoldsville team is not discouraged and hope to do better next time.

The next games will be played next week, Dec. 20, at Brookville by both the boys' and girls' teams.

This week ends the school before Xmas vacation. Three and a half months of hard work certainly needs two weeks' vacation.

The Shakespearean Literary Society elected the following officers last Friday: President, Frank King; Vice President, Craig King; Secretary, Nelle Foley; Editor-in-chief, Maude Pratt; Senior reporter, Leonard Harris; Junior reporter, Aldie Means; Sophomore reporter, Mary Parsons; Freshmen reporter, Fonda King.

Some of the Juniors will lose their record if they don't keep better hours.

Notice—A new editor-in-chief; this one is original.

Don't the Seniors make fine teachers?

Black and gold have at last been decided on as High School colors. Are the Juniors satisfied?
