PUNX'Y GETS BARRACKS.

One of the Four Companies of State Police Located at Punxs'.

On Monday it was officially announced that one of the four companies of state police authorized by the last legislature would be located in Punxsutawney. The announcement was made by Capt. John C. Groome, superintendent of the Department of State Police, of Harrisburg, who was here and accepted the terms and conditions offered by the Board of Trade and prominent citizens for the location of the barracks at this place.

For many years there had been a demand from the country districts throughout the state for better police service. Robberies were being committed on every hand, safes were being cracked and lawless men roaming about at will. The local officers were without sufficient authority or means to leave their bailiwicks to pursue these outlaws and the consequence was that most of these malefactors escaped. Infractions of the game and fish laws and the statutes relating to forests and fires are constantly being violated and the establishment of this new department is designed to give country districts a service much the same as that vouchsafed by the police force of a city.

As a beginning the law provides for four companies, to be composed of a captain, a lieutenant, five sergeants and fifty privates each, a total of 57 men. The other companies will be located at Greensburg, Reading and Wilkesbarre, respectively. The organization at this place will be known as Troop C.

Captain J. F. Robinson, formerly city editor of the Bradford Star, and an officer in the Sixteenth Regiment, N. G. P., will have charge of the Punxsutawney station. The men have all been selected and about 50 of them have been ordered to report in Punxsutawney Friday and Saturday. While here Monday Captain Groome and Captain Robinson had plans drawn up for repairing and remodeling the main building in the fair grounds which will be used for temporary quarters. Work was begun on the building at once and until it is ready the men will be provided for in town.—Punxsutawney Spirit
